The State Steps In

Tennessee Governor Bill Lee signed Executive Order 17 on March 22, calling for businesses across the state to utilize alternative business models beginning at midnight on March 23, until midnight April 6. The order also outlines ways businesses and citizens should work to protect vulnerable populations.

"The COVID-19 pandemic has created both an economic and a health crisis and our response must continue to address both aspects," said Governor Lee. "Our goal is to keep the public, especially vulnerable populations, safe while doing everything possible to keep Tennesseans in a financially stable position."

Executive Order 17 prohibits social gatherings of 10 or more people and also enacts the following provisions regarding restaurants, bars, and similar food and drink establishments:

- Establishments are to exclusively offer drive-thru, take-out or delivery options to support families, businesses and the food supply chain during this emergency.
- Establishments may sell alcohol by take-out or delivery (with the purchase of food) in closed containers to those who are age 21 and up.
- Gyms and fitness/exercise centers or substantially similar facilities are to temporarily close and suspend in-person services until April 6. In the interim, these businesses are encouraged to pursue digital programming if possible.
- The order also pursues additional measures to keep

"I urge every Tennessean to take these actions seriously - our physical and economic health depend on this as we work to beat COVID-19," said Lee.

On March 24, Lee extended the closing of schools from April 6 to April 24.

"It is important and necessary to extend that deadline," he said. "We will re-evaluate our position as the virus moves through our communities."

Lee also announced he has mobilized the National Guard to assist with expanded testing effort, with 250 personnel, including 150 medical personnel, preparing to assist 35 remote assessment sites in rural areas.

Lee also directed that driver's licenses expiring after March 12 will be extended until May 18, and the state is also waiving emissions testing deadlines until that date. Real IDs won't be issued until then either, since the federal deadline requiring one is also being postponed. Deadlines for license tags and titles due in the next few months were also moved back, to June 15.

Lee also moved back the filing deadline for franchise and excise taxes has been delayed until July 15. Taxpayers will have until July 15 to file returns and make any payments, including quarterly estimated payments, originally due in April.

The Tennessee Attorney General's office, in conjunction with Lee's administration, filed a petition with the Public Utility Commission, asking companies to not disconnect utilities for those who cannot make payments.

Managing Stress During COVID-19

No matter your age, mental health and well-being are influenced by numerous factors and are susceptible to change. Right now, most people, across all sectors of society, are being affected by the global health crisis related to the Coronavirus.

One particular group we should keep in mind during this challenging time is older adults, whose routines and usual support systems may be disrupted. The stress of COVID-19, the uncertainty it creates, and the potential for older adults to be more susceptible to the virus, can exacerbate any underlying risk for depression or anxiety.

Staying connected in this time of uncertainty can be challenging, but one thing we can do is continue to reach out and support each other. Whether through a text message, phone call, or video chat, it's important that we don't isolate ourselves - even when we can't be in the same room.

You are encouraged to utilize social media and video conferencing for family time, worship, parish meetings and other support group functions.

County Offices Remain Open, Sorta

The doors to the Hardeman County Courthouse were locked on March 24 for the foreseeable future, but all office holders and offices continue to serve the county.

"If someone can do it online or by phone, they need to do it that way," said Hardeman County Clerk Jerry Armstrong. "But if they need service that requires them to do it in person, we are taking care of them."

As of March 24, the only office that remained open for business as usual was Hardeeman County Trustee Mary Powell.

Instructions on the courthouse door and on the office of the Assessor of Property were posted to help county residents get the services they needed.

In Whiteville, customers were being served through the drive-through and the drop box, according to Mayor Aubrey Phillips.

"But if it is something they need otherwise, we'll open the door," he said. "Until we see a case in the county, we're going to remain open." Phillips also said the Lee Ola Roberts Library is remaining open for now, with workers disinfecting often and maintaining social distancing guidelines. "Our library is the only source of services for our people," said Whiteville Mayor Aubrey Phillips. "It is the distribution point of commodities and it's the only place some of our people can use to get the internet."

City offices in Grand Junction, and Middleton conducted business some behind locked doors, but basic services are still being provided.

Bolivar Mayor Julian McTizic said precautions are being put in place.

"Effective March 23, Bolivar City Hall will be closed to the public. Administrative staff will be working at city hall to handle routine city business matters. All city staff are observing the CDC guidelines regarding social distancing. We urge you to conduct routine business matters via telephone or email. If you must conduct business in person, please call city hall to schedule an appointment. Online bill payment is available for the payment of fines and taxes on the city website," he said in a press release.

"Bolivar Utility Department is transitioning to drive-through only services, he continued. "Utility department services, along with streets and sanitation services, will continue as normally scheduled. Our police and fire departments are available for emergency responses, but will be limiting non-emergency contact with the public."

McTizic added that things are being done already.

"I am thankful for those businesses and churches that have taken measures to protect our citizens. I know that we are facing challenging times, but I also know the resiliency of the people of Bolivar. We have faced adversity in the past. We will get through this time - TOGETHER - as a strong and courageous city full of extraordinary people."

Food Giant Big Star Stay-at-Home Gourmet

Grilled Pears with Cinnamon Drizzle

Ingredients

- 3 ripe pears
- 2 tablespoons honey
- 1 tablespoon cinnamon
- 1/4 cup chopped pecans
- coconut oil
- sea salt

Directions

Turn burn grillers to low and preheat to between 350-400 F. (if you don't have a grill, a grill pan will also work!)
 Cut pears in half removing any visible seeds, leaving stems.
 Brush pears with refined coconut oil, sprinkle with sea salt and place on grill at an angle flesh side down
 Cook pears on covered grill for 15 minutes and check to see if the pears have softened and if the pears have a solid grill mark. If they do not, continue to cook, covered and check every 5 to 10 minutes. Turn pears on an angle to create another grill mark (this is how you get a criss cross pattern) and cook for an additional 10-15 minutes.
 In a small bowl combine 2 tablespoons honey, 1 tablespoon cinnamon and mix well.
 Let pears rest for a bit after cooking, when they are warm but not HOT, drizzle cinnamon honey over them and top with chopped pecans
 Sprinkle with sea salt. Serve immediately!

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Food Giant Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

Hello from Toone. I am writing this today from my home where I have been doing my part to help slow the Covid-19 virus by staying away from others except for a quick trip to the store for supplies. From what I have seen, most people around Toone are following the guidelines set by the CDC and other medical experts.

Bolivar Energy Authority

Your Local Energy Provider

To operate your space heater and fireplace efficiently and help keep down your heating bill, here's some advice:

Turn down the thermostat and use space heaters to warm only the rooms being used. If it is below 40 degrees outside, don't use your fireplace. When a fire is burning, lower the thermostat a few degrees. And always keep the damper closed when the fireplace isn't being used.

For more information on energy saving steps you can take, call Bolivar Energy Authority at 731-658-5257.

WHAT ARE THE SYMPTOMS?

CALL YOUR DOCTOR:

If you think you have been exposed to COVID-19 and develop a fever and symptoms, such as cough or difficulty breathing, call your healthcare provider for medical advice.

WATCH FOR SYMPTOMS

Reported illnesses have ranged from mild symptoms to severe illness and death for confirmed coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) cases.

The following symptoms may appear 2-14 days after exposure.*

- Fever
- Cough
- Shortness of breath

*This is based on what has been seen previously as the incubation period of MERS-CoV viruses.

If you develop emergency warning signs for COVID-19 get medical attention immediately.

EMERGENCY WARNING SIGNS INCLUDE*:

- Difficulty breathing or shortness of breath
- Persistent pain or pressure in the chest
- New confusion or inability to arouse
- Bluish lips or face

*This list is not all inclusive. Please consult your medical provider for any other symptoms that are severe or concerning.

IF YOU ARE AT HIGHER RISK

WHO IS AT HIGHER RISK?

Early information out of China, where COVID-19 first started, shows that some people are at higher risk of getting very sick from this illness. This includes:

- Older adults
- People who have serious chronic medical conditions like:
 - Heart disease
 - Diabetes
 - Lung disease

GET READY FOR COVID-19 NOW

Take actions to reduce your risk of getting sick

If you are at higher risk for serious illness from COVID-19 because of your age or because you have a serious long-term health problem, it is extra important for you to take actions to reduce your risk of getting sick with the disease.

- Stock up on supplies.
- Take everyday precautions to keep space between yourself and others.
- When you go out in public, keep away from others who are sick, limit close contact and wash your hands often.
- Avoid crowds as much as possible.
- Avoid cruise travel and non-essential air travel.
- During a COVID-19 outbreak in your community, stay home as much as possible to further reduce your risk of being exposed.

HAVE SUPPLIES ON HAND

- Contact your healthcare provider to ask about obtaining extra necessary medications to have on hand in case there is an outbreak of COVID-19 in your community and you need to stay home for a prolonged period of time.
- If you cannot get extra medications, consider using mail-order for medications.
- Be sure you have over-the-counter medicines and medical supplies (tissues, etc.) to treat fever and other symptoms. Most people will be able to recover from COVID-19 at home.
- Have enough household items and groceries on hand so that you will be prepared to stay at home for a period of time.

TAKE EVERYDAY PRECAUTIONS

Avoid close contact with people who are sick.

Take everyday preventive actions:

- Clean your hands often
- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, especially after blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing, or having been in a public place.
- If soap and water are not available, use a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol.
- To the extent possible, avoid touching high-touch surfaces in public places – elevator buttons, door handles, handrails, handshaking with people, etc. Use a tissue or your sleeve to cover your hand or finger if you must touch something.
- Wash your hands after touching surfaces in public places.
- Avoid touching your face, nose, eyes, etc.
- Clean and disinfect your home to remove germs: practice routine cleaning of frequently touched surfaces (for example: tables, doorknobs, light switches, handles, desks, toilets, faucets, sinks & cell phones)
- Avoid crowds, especially in poorly ventilated spaces. Your risk of exposure to respiratory viruses like COVID-19 may increase in crowded, closed-in settings with little air circulation if there are people in the crowd who are sick.

Avoid all non-essential travel including plane trips, and especially avoid embarking on cruise ships.

DISINFECTING YOUR HOME IF SOMEONE IS SICK

As part of your everyday prevention actions clean and disinfect frequently touched surfaces and objects. For example: tables, counter tops, light switches, doorknobs, and cabinet handles.

Wear disposable gloves to clean and disinfect.

CLEAN

- Clean surfaces using soap and water. Practice routine cleaning of frequently touched surfaces.

High touch surfaces include:

Tables, doorknobs, light switches, countertops, handles, desks, phones, keyboards, toilets, faucets, sinks, etc.

DISINFECT

- Use diluted household bleach solutions if appropriate for the surface. Check to ensure the product is not past its expiration date. Unexpired household bleach will be effective against coronaviruses when properly diluted.

Follow manufacturer's instructions for application and proper ventilation. Never mix household bleach with ammonia or any other cleanser.

To make a bleach solution, mix:

- 5 tablespoons (1/3rd cup) bleach per gallon of water OR
- 4 teaspoons bleach per quart of water
- Alcohol solutions with at least 70% alcohol.
- Household cleaners and disinfectants: Clean the area or item with soap and water or another detergent if it is dirty. Then, use a household disinfectant.

Follow the instructions on the label to ensure safe and effective use of the product.

Many products recommend:

- Keeping the surface wet for several minutes to ensure germs are killed.
- Precautions such as wearing gloves and making sure you have good ventilation during use of the product.
- Most EPA-registered household disinfectants should be effective.

SOFT SURFACES

For soft surfaces such as carpeted floor, rugs, and drapes

- Clean the surface using soap and water or with cleaners appropriate for use on these surfaces.
- Launder items (if possible) according to the manufacturer's instructions. Use the warmest appropriate water setting and dry items completely.

OR

- Disinfect with an EPA-registered household disinfectant. These disinfectants meet EPA's criteria for use against COVID-19.

LAUNDRY

For clothing, towels, linens and other items

- Wear disposable gloves.
- Wash hands with soap and water as soon as you remove the gloves.
- Do not shake dirty laundry.
- Launder items according to the manufacturer's instructions. Use the warmest appropriate water setting and dry items completely.
- Dirty laundry from an ill person can be washed with other people's items.
- Clean and disinfect clothes hampers according to guidance above for surfaces.

CLEAN HANDS OFTEN

- Wash your hands often with soap and water for 20 seconds.
- Always wash immediately after removing gloves and after contact with an ill person.
- Hand sanitizer: If soap and water are not readily available and hands are not visibly dirty, use a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol. However, if hands are visibly dirty, always wash hands with soap and water.

Additional key times to clean hands include:

- After blowing one's nose, coughing, or sneezing
- After using the restroom
- Before eating or preparing food
- After contact with animals or pets
- Before and after providing routine care for another person who needs assistance (e.g. a child)
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands.

FOOD

- Stay separated: The ill person should eat (or be fed) in their room if possible.
- Wash dishes and utensils using gloves and hot water: Handle any non-disposable used food service items with gloves and wash with hot water or in a dishwasher.
- Clean hands after handling used food service items.

TRASH

- Dedicated, lined trash can: If possible, dedicate a lined trash can for the ill person. Use gloves when removing garbage bags, and handling and disposing of trash. Wash hands afterwards.

HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF

Older adults and people who have severe underlying chronic medical conditions like heart or lung disease or diabetes seem to be at higher risk for developing more serious complications from COVID-19 illness. Please consult with your health care provider about additional steps you may be able to take to protect yourself.

There is currently no vaccine to prevent coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19).

- The best way to prevent illness is to avoid being exposed to this virus.
- The virus is thought to spread mainly from person-to-person.
- Between people who are in close contact with one another (within about 6 feet).
- Through respiratory droplets produced when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

These droplets can land in the mouths or noses of people who are nearby or possibly be inhaled into the lungs

TAKE STEPS TO PROTECT YOURSELF

Clean your hands often

- Wash your hands often with soap and water for at least 20 seconds especially after you have been in a public place, or after blowing your nose, coughing, or sneezing.
- If soap and water are not readily available, use a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol. Cover all surfaces of your hands and rub them together until they feel dry.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose, and mouth with unwashed hands.

AVOID CLOSE CONTACT

- Avoid close contact with people who are sick
- Put distance between yourself and other people if COVID-19 is spreading in your community. This is especially important for people who are at higher risk of getting very sick.

TAKE STEPS TO PROTECT OTHERS

Stay home if you're sick

- Stay home if you are sick, except to get medical care. Learn what to do if you are sick.

Cover coughs and sneezes

- Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue when you cough or sneeze or use the inside of your elbow.
- Throw used tissues in the trash.
- Immediately wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are not readily available, clean your hands with a hand sanitizer that contains at least 60% alcohol.

WEAR A FACE MASK IF YOU ARE SICK

- If you are sick: You should wear a facemask when you are around other people (e.g., sharing a room or vehicle) and before you enter a healthcare provider's office. If you are not able to wear a facemask (for example, because it causes trouble breathing), then you should do your best to cover your coughs and sneezes, and people who are caring for you should wear a facemask if they enter your room. Learn what to do if you are sick.
- If you are NOT sick: You do not need to wear a facemask unless you are caring for someone who is sick (and they are not able to wear a facemask). Facemasks may be in short supply and they should be saved for caregivers.

CLEAN AND DISINFECT

- Clean AND disinfect frequently touched surfaces daily. This includes tables, doorknobs, light switches, countertops, handles, desks, phones, keyboards, toilets, faucets, and sinks.
- If surfaces are dirty, clean them: Use detergent or soap and water prior to disinfection.

INFORMATION FROM THE CDC

The Centers for Disease Control is responding to an outbreak of respiratory disease caused by a novel (new) coronavirus that was first detected in China and which has now been detected in more than 100 locations internationally, including in the United States. The virus has been named "SARS-CoV-2" and the disease it causes has been named "coronavirus disease 2019" (abbreviated "COVID-19").

On January 30, 2020, the International Health Regulations Emergency Committee of the World Health Organization (WHO) declared the outbreak a "a public health emergency of international concern". On January 31, Health and Human Services Secretary Alex M. Azar II declared a public health emergency for the United States to aid the nation's healthcare community in responding to COVID-19. On March 11, the World Health Organization characterized COVID-19 as a pandemic. On March 13, the President of the United States declared the COVID-19 outbreak a national emergency.

SOURCE AND SPREAD OF THE VIRUS

Coronaviruses are a large family of viruses that are common in people and many different species of animals, including camels, cattle, cats, and bats. Rarely, animal coronaviruses can infect people and then spread between people such as with MERS-CoV, SARS-CoV, and now with this new virus (named SARS-CoV-2).

The SARS-CoV-2 virus is a betacoronavirus, like MERS-CoV and SARS-CoV. All three of these viruses have their origins in bats. The sequences from U.S. patients are similar to the one that China initially posted, suggesting a likely single, recent emergence of this virus from an animal reservoir.

Early on, many of the patients at the epicenter of the outbreak in Wuhan, Hubei Province, China had some link to a large seafood and live animal market, suggesting animal-to-person spread. Later, a growing number of patients reportedly did not have exposure to animal markets, indicating person-to-person spread. Person-to-person spread was subsequently reported outside Hubei and in countries outside China, including in the United States.

SEVERITY

The complete clinical picture with regard to COVID-19 is not fully known. Reported illnesses have ranged from very mild (including some with no reported symptoms) to severe, including illness resulting in death. While information so far suggests that most COVID-19 illness is mild, out of China suggests serious illness occurs in 16% of cases. Older people and people of all ages with severe chronic medical conditions — like heart disease, lung disease and diabetes, for example — seem to be at higher risk of developing serious illness.

COVID-19 NOW A PANDEMIC

A pandemic is a global outbreak of disease. Pandemics happen when a new virus emerges to infect people and can spread between people sustainably. Because there is little to no pre-existing immunity against the new virus, it spreads worldwide.

The virus that causes COVID-19 is infecting people and spreading easily from person-to-person. Cases have been detected in most countries worldwide and community spread is being detected in a growing number of countries.

This is the first pandemic known to be caused by the emergence of a new coronavirus. In the past century, there have been four pandemics caused by the emergence of novel influenza viruses. As a result, most research and guidance around pandemics is specific to influenza, but the same premises can be applied to the current COVID-19 pandemic. Pandemics of respiratory disease follow a certain progression. Pandemics begin with an investigation phase, followed by recognition, initiation, and acceleration phases. The peak of illnesses occurs at the end of the acceleration phase, which is followed by a deceleration phase, during which there is a decrease in illnesses. Different countries can be in different phases of the pandemic at any point in time and different parts of the same country can also be in different phases of a pandemic.

There are ongoing investigations to learn more. This is a rapidly evolving situation and information will be updated on the CDC website as it becomes available.

SITUATION IN U.S.

Different parts of the country are seeing different levels of COVID-19 activity. The United States nationally is currently in the initiation phases, but states where community spread is occurring are in the acceleration phase. The duration and severity of each phase can vary depending on the characteristics of the virus and the public health response.

RISK ASSESSMENT

Risk depends on characteristics of the virus, including how well it spreads between people; the severity of resulting illness; and the medical or other measures available to control the impact of the virus (for example, vaccines or medications that can treat the illness) and the relative success of these. In the absence of vaccine or treatment medications, nonpharmaceutical interventions become the most important response strategy. These are community interventions that can reduce the impact of disease.

The risk from COVID-19 to Americans can be broken down into risk of exposure versus risk of serious illness and death.

Moments with the Mayor

What a difference a week makes! Last month, we shared with you some of the upcoming events that the City of Bolivar will be hosting in 2020. The plan for this article was to be focused toward spring event planning and promoting events coming up in April. The old adage is true - even the best laid plans go awry.

For the last week, our team of dedicated professionals in the City of Bolivar and Hardeman County have focused on managing the effects of the COVID-19 (Coronavirus) crisis. We are putting forth a tremendous effort to "flatten the curve," and, thus far, we have been successful. I want to take this time to thank everyone for their efforts. From the health services personnel on the front lines to the trucking companies working non-stop to get supplies to every area of this country, this epidemic is showing us what we are truly made of.

Life, as we have known it, has come to a screeching halt. Schools are closed, businesses are closed or are drastically changing their models, and social distancing has become the norm. Yet, I have faith.

What I see in Bolivar is truly uplifting. We are a small town in rural Tennessee, unbeknownst to many, with neighbors helping neighbors, school staff providing essential meals to students, teams collaborating, businesses helping each other, people shopping for their elderly family and friends, and church services moving online to minister and provide comfort to their members.

What I hear in the early morning silence is the birds singing and rain drops as they splatter across my windshield. I see that spring is giving birth to greenery, to buds on trees, and the flowers are beginning to bloom. In all of the hustle and bustle in the world, we tend to overlook the small stuff. In all of the chaos of the last ten days, what I see is hope for our future as a community, as a city, as a county, and as a country.

In closing, I will be honest in the fact that I do not know when life will return to normal, but allow me to again share my favorite Bible verse found in 2 Chronicles 7:14, "if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

I have faith that we, as a community, will stand firm and rise up as a stronger Bolivar BECAUSE WE ARE ALL IN THIS TOGETHER.

The Crisis and the Christian, Part 2

by Jeff Capshaw

Last week's column called for readers to see the current crisis from a biblical and theological perspective. The over-arching narrative of Scripture entails Creation, Fall, and Redemption. God created the world and pronounced it good. Adam and Eve disobeyed their Creator and, consequently, brought a curse upon humanity and the whole of creation. Yet, God promised to send a curse-reverser to redeem mankind and all of creation. That renovating of all creation is the blessed hope of the Church.

Paul reminds us that "the creation was subjected to frustration, not by its own choice, but by the will of the one who subjected it, in hope that the creation itself will be liberated from its bondage to decay and brought into the freedom and glory of the children of God (Romans 8:20-21). In the meantime, however, we live in the context of our "present sufferings" (8:18). So, how then should we live?

First, uncertainty induces fear. While writing to his young and timid protégé (Timothy), Paul reminded him that "God gave us a spirit not of fear but of power and love and self-control" (2 Timothy 1:7). Fear isn't always a bad thing. It is a built-in mechanism that can serve us well by keeping us from harm.

Instead of allowing fear to overcome us during times of uncertainty, remember who is ultimately in control. As evident from the current crisis, we clearly are not. So, be wise, follow the recommended protocols; remain calm and confident in the Lord. He is Sovereign and "upholds all things by the word of his power" (Hebrews 1:3).

Secondly, uncertainty creates some level of anxiety. Many people already struggle anxiousness, even when things are fairly normal. But, when unexpected disruptions suddenly arise, it can be especially trying. For believers, however, we must willfully turn to our source of comfort and consolation. Paul has a great antidote for FUD (fear, uncertainty and dread).

Consider this familiar passage in the book of Philippians. "Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7). The formula is simple, but not easy to apply. The visceral experiences of drastic changes in our lives creates instability. It throws off life's otherwise normal state of balance and stability.

Yet, being free from fear and living in peace, according to God's Word, comes down to making choices. We must understand that some fear is natural and Okay. But being horrified at circumstances beyond our control isn't healthy. We must choose to pray and take our requests for inner peace to God. If we follow these simple principles, then Scripture promises that God's peace will be like an umpire in our hearts.

Finally, remember that this too shall pass. We will be better for it, and God will somehow be glorified in it.

Panic

by David Coy

We are living through previously unexperienced health crisis wherein fear of the unknown mixed with the reception of mixed messages can and will lead many to the fringe of mental and emotional panic. When people get to the edge of their ability to cope they may find themselves behaving in unusual or erratic ways. For example, news reports have stated that people have purchased an overabundance of products beyond their need and what their rational mind would lead them to do. Another example is people fighting in markets over products on the shelf. These are people led by emotions frayed to the breaking point, rather than calmly examining the facts as they are known and making decisions that are best for oneself and family within reasonable limits for the occasion based on needs. Emotions can run away with themselves and can be easily misled as well as misdirect a person. It does not help the situations when certain individuals and groups use this serious time as an occasion of criticism, attack and or misleading information in order to hurt others and advance some agenda.

What should we do or can we do to help ourselves, our neighbors, our community and thus our nation? Be calm, take this occasion seriously, use your rational mind to receive the facts as they become available and exercise prudent and proper precautions for your continued good health, both mentally, emotionally and physically. Pray, for yourselves, for your neighbors and for the nation and world. For healthcare workers, first responders, elected officials that they also will make prudent appropriate decisions that are in the best interest of all. Take this time also to turn to Jehovah the creator of the universe and or become closer to him and to family, and as a blest citizen. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcares.com

NOTICE OF SUMMONS

TO THERAL HATCHETT, ANY UNKNOWN PUTATIVE FATHERS, TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN, AND ANYONE CLAIMING TO HAVE A PARENTAL INTEREST IN THE ABOVE-NAMED MINOR CHILDREN BORN TO MARLIENA HATCHETT, MOTHER, ON THE DATES LISTED ABOVE.

You are hereby notified that the above-styled action seeking the termination of the parental rights of the parents of the above-named minor child was filed against you in said Court on the 6th day of February, 2020, and that an Order for Service of Publication was entered by the Court on the 6th day of February, 2020.

You are hereby commanded and required to appear before the Juvenile Court of Walker County, Georgia, in LaFayette, Georgia, on the 29th day of April, 2020, at 2:30 o'clock p.m., The hearing is for the purpose of determining whether or not said parental rights should be terminated.

A copy of the Petition may be obtained from the Clerk of the Juvenile Court at the Courthouse located at 103 South Duke Street, LaFayette, Georgia, 30728, during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, exclusive of Holidays. The Clerk's telephone number is 706-638-1742. A free copy shall be available to the parents. Upon request, the copy will be mailed to the requester. The child is in the present physical custody of the Walker County Department of Family and Children Services.

NOTICE OF EFFECT OF TERMINATION JUDGMENT: Georgia law provides that you can permanently lose your rights as a parent. A petition to terminate parental rights has been filed requesting the court to terminate your parental rights to your child. A court hearing of your case has been scheduled for the 29th day of April, 2020, at 2:30 o'clock p.m., at the JUVENILE COURT OF WALKER COUNTY, Walker County Courthouse, LaFayette, GA 30728.

If you fail to appear, the court can terminate your rights in your absence.

If the court at the trial finds that the facts set out in the petition to terminate parental rights are true and that termination of your rights will serve the best interests of your child, the court can enter a judgment ending your rights to your child.

If the judgment terminates your parental rights, you will no longer have any rights to your child. This means that you will not have the right to visit, contact, or have custody of your child or make any decisions affecting your child or your child's earnings or property. Your child will be legally freed to be adopted by someone else.

Even if your parental rights are terminated:

- (1) You will still be responsible for providing financial support (child support payments) for your child's care unless and until your child is adopted; and
- (2) Your child can still inherit from you unless and until your child is adopted.

This is a very serious matter. You should contact an attorney immediately so that you can be prepared for the court hearing. You have the right to hire an attorney and to have him or her represent you. If you cannot afford to hire an attorney, the court will appoint an attorney if the court finds that you are an indigent person. Whether or not you decide to hire an attorney, you have the right to attend the hearing of your case, to call witnesses on your behalf, and to question those witnesses brought against you.

The biological/putative father is hereby placed on notice that pursuant to O.C.G.A. Section 15-11-233 he may lose all rights to the above named child and will not be allowed to object to the termination of his rights to such child unless, within 30 days of receipt of notice, you file a petition to legitimate the child as well as a notice of the filing of the petition to legitimate with the Walker County Juvenile Court where the termination proceeding is pending. Additionally, the court may enter an order terminating all the parental rights of a biological father, including the right to object thereafter to such proceedings if the biological father fails to timely legitimate the child named above.

The general nature of the allegations are: the parents have failed to complete their case plans for reunification.

All concerned parties are informed that they are entitled to have an attorney represent them, and if a party is entitled to Counsel during the proceedings, the Court will appoint Counsel, at no cost if the party is unable, without undue financial hardship, to employ Counsel.

If you have any questions concerning this notice, you may call the telephone number of the clerk's office which is 706-638-1742.

WITNESSETH the Honorable Steven M. Ellis, Judge of said Court.

This 20th day of February, 2020.

Know the Four Uses of Cash

It's important to have cash available for your everyday spending and the inevitable rainy day. However, you also need to develop a cash strategy that can contribute to your long-term financial success. But just how much cash do you need? And in what form?

To answer these questions, it's useful to look at the four main uses of cash:

- Everyday spending – Your everyday spending includes the cash you use for your mortgage, utilities, groceries and so on. As a general guideline, you should have one to two months of living expenses available during your working years, and perhaps a year's worth of living expenses when you're retired. (The latter can be adjusted higher or lower based on your income from Social Security or a pension.) You'll need instant access to this money – and you need to know your principal is protected – so it may be a good idea to keep the funds in a checking or cash management account.
 - Unexpected expenses and emergencies – If you needed a major car repair or a new furnace, or if you incurred a big bill from a doctor or dentist, would you be able to handle the cost? You could – if you've set up an emergency fund. During your working years, this fund should be big enough to cover three to six months of living expenses; when you're retired, you may be able to get by with one to three months' worth of expenses, assuming you have additional sources of available cash. You'll want your emergency fund to be held in liquid vehicles that protect your principal, such as savings or money market accounts or short-term certificates of deposit (CDs).
 - Specific short-term savings goal(s) – At various points in your life, you may have a specific goal – a new car, vacation, wedding, etc. – that you'd like to reach within a year or two. Your first step is to identify how much money you'll need, so think about all the factors affecting the final cost. Next, you'll need to choose an appropriate savings vehicle. You could simply put more money in the accounts you use for everyday cash, or even in your emergency fund, but you would run the risk of dipping into either of these pools. Instead, consider opening a separate account – and tell yourself this money is for one purpose only.
 - Source of investment – You can use cash in two ways as part of your overall investment strategy. First, cash can be considered part of the fixed-income allocation of your portfolio (i.e., bonds and CDs). Because cash behaves differently from other asset classes – such as stocks and bonds – it can help diversify your holdings, and the more diversified you are, the less impact market volatility may have on your portfolio. (However, diversification can't guarantee a profit or protect against all losses.) The second benefit of cash, in terms of investing, is it's there for you to purchase a new investment or to add more shares in an existing investment. In any case, you probably don't want to be too cash heavy, so you might want to keep no more than 10% of your fixed-income assets in cash.
- As you can see, cash can be valuable in several ways – so use it wisely.

The Hardeman County Sheriff's Department

John Doolen
 Sheriff

As the Hardeman County Sheriff's Office responds to Coronavirus 2019 (COVID-19) pandemic, the men and women of the HCSO remain vigilant and steadfast in our commitment to maintain public safety, uphold the law and safeguard the well-being of our citizens. Our agency is taking proactive measures to help reduce unnecessary potential, for exposure or spread of COVID-19. Here are some of the measures the HCSO are taking to protect sworn members, civilian staff and the public:

- HCSO will be implementing a temporary report call center. The public is requested to call our office at (731) 658-3971, where dispatch will direct the call accordingly based on information provided by the caller. All non-emergency report calls will be handled via telephone, minimizing person-to-person contact. We will still respond to all emergency calls for service and calls where a caller requests an officer to make scene in person.
- Walk-in reports will no longer be facilitated at the Criminal Justice Complex unless it requires emergency assistance to be dispatched, until further notice.
- On-site video visitation at the CJC has been suspended until further notice. Family members may still schedule at-home internet video visits with inmates housed at the Hardeman County CJC. The kiosk for adding money to inmate phone accounts is also closed. Please contact City Tele Coin at (800) 682-0707, if you need assistance with online visits or to add money to inmate phone accounts.
- The kiosk for commissary is also closed. Please visit www.tigercommissary.com to add money to an inmate's commissary account. Orders cannot be made on the website and must be placed by the inmate at the CJC.
- If you have been issued a misdemeanor citation to appear for booking, please contact (731) 228-3016 for a booking date.
- Most courts have been temporarily suspended. If you have any questions regarding General Sessions or Circuit Court, please contact the Circuit Court Clerk's Office at (731) 658-6524.

The public should rest assured that our services remain available. We are continuing to function as a law enforcement agency under the unusual, tumultuous circumstances we all are facing. The HCSO is taking these precautions to ensure that we can continue to provide our services to the citizens of Hardeman County throughout the duration of this national crisis.

Spring Sports on Hold

An uncertain future faces teams and seasons that have both begun and are hoping to begin, but are in different stages of limbo because of the COVID-19 virus.

Bolivar Central and Middleton High School's sports seasons are at the mercy of the state organizing body, but the Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association (TSSAA) is still hoping to complete all spring sports seasons, according to their website. The playoffs for the Spring Fling (Soccer, Baseball, Softball, Tennis, and Track and Field) are scheduled to begin in early May with final games and matches scheduled for the week of May 21. Those and the TSSAA Basketball championships being completed are still a possibility, according to an article in The Tennessean.

One sport that won't finish the year is Middle School Volleyball in Hardeman County, as it was cancelled after school across Hardeman County were dismissed until April 6, later becoming April 24.

The Hardeman County Middle School Baseball championship, scheduled for April 4, was thought to be still possible if school resumed on April 6, but with the new April 24 start date mandated by Tennessee Governor Bill Lee, it is now less certain.

Lions Club Dizzy Dean Baseball and Softball are still hoping to begin in April, but will need cooperation from the City of Bolivar to get use of the softball field (see photo) and for the field preparation support they have benefitted from for many years. The Lions Club controls the baseball field, but the softball field, and the second field at the city park used by baseball is also the property of the city.

Naylor Elected President of TARS

Hardeman County Rescue Squad member Dujuana Naylor was elected president of the Tennessee Association of Rescue Squads (TARS) in October at their annual convention.

TARS works for better recognition of organized Rescue and First Aid activities through organizations, government officials, agencies, and departments, on community and state levels. Membership in T.A.R.S. gives each member direct participation in promoting this greater understanding and recognition of the organized rescue and first aid movement.

Naylor is the first female president of the association. She served as Historian, Secretary, and Vice President prior to her election. She is also a past-president of the Hardeman County Rescue squad.

The Hardeman County Rescue Squad is a 100% non-profit/volunteer organization providing life saving rescue services to the citizens of Hardeman County.
