Democratic Primary Announced

of You Don't Know Everything. First, a little backstory: During the most recent celebration of the anniversary of the birth of one of our employees, it was brought up that the big spoon that would be used as an ice cream scoop would probably not be up to the task. Seemed a little flimsy, said the self-proclaimed expert.

Side note: It's an age-old story, by which influence (like having his own self-absorbed column on the front page of the paper) in one area equals the belief that someone is an expert at everything, including whether the spoon selected for the ice cream would hold up under the pressure of the job.

Side note to the side note: And while the person offering the opinion rarely eats ice cream and even less often ever serves it to anyone, it didn't stop him from offering his ill-advised and uninformed, unsolicited opinion.

Back to the Backstory: Upon hearing his opinion, those who selected the spoon were, possibly insulted, but most assuredly quick to point out to our so-called expert that he really had no knowledge in this area and since the spoon had a history of being able to efficiently serve ice cream, he should let those who were trained and versed in these matters handle it, as they have done for years, without complaint.

Other side note to the backstory: It should be pointed out that when he was told to mind his own business and let the real experts choose the ice cream scoop, he took it rather well. The Hardeman County Democratic Party announced plans to hold a county primary on May 1, 2018, ending months of speculation that a primary board would select candidates for elected office within the county. The Republican Party, as expected, allowed the deadline for a primary announcement to pass.

Up for election are twenty-six offices in Hardeman County.

A list of open positions is on A5. In a letter to the editor on April 20, 2017, Meryl Rice, District 26, TNDP Executive Committeewoman wrote that, "We found seven current commissioners who ran as Democrats in the past, that now, would not qualify as Democrats."

Rice's letter said a "bona fide" Democrat is someone who has "voted Democrat three of the last five state/national primaries."

The primary a citizen votes in is a matter of public record.

The deadline of Thursday, February 15, 2018 is the filing deadline for all candidates, including Republicans and Independents.

Petitions can be picked up beginning November 17. A candidate does not have to declare a party affiliation (or Independent) at that time and can take petitions for all three choices, but can only turn in one petition. Once the petition is turned in and qualified by the election commission, it is final and cannot be taken back or changed.

The fear of rejection could make for difficult decisions for candidates who might be amongst the seven mentioned by Rice, in that any candidate turning in petitions to run as a Democrat would be qualified by the Hardeman County Election Commission, but could, in turn, be rejected by the Democratic Party.

A rejection by the Democratic Party would remove the potential candidate from the election. Once qualified by the Election Commission, there would be no opportunity to refile under a different affiliation.

In 2016, the Hardeman County Commission passed and sent a private act to the Tennessee State Legislature that would have done away with partisan elections for Hardeman County government, but it failed to come to a vote of the full legislature at the state level.

One law change that could effect candidates choosing party affiliations is the Little Hatch Act, which states that an employee of the state, including teachers, cannot run as a partisan candidate for public office. The inclusion of teachers in the act was passed this past year.

Courthouse Renovations Continue by Jessica Simmons

You may have noticed in passing, the many renovations happening on Bolivar's square. Two projects in particular, The Hardeman County Courthouse restoration and the Luez Theatre project have garnered much attention due to the historical ties dating back 193 years.

In the City of Bolivar's history, three courthouses have stood on the court square, with two of these buildings still in existence today. The first courthouse was a two-story log courthouse erected on the court square in 1824. It only served four years and in 1827, was sold to Levi Joy, a settler from Boston, and he had it moved to its present location on East Market Street/Highway 64 East. Now owned and maintained by the Hardeman County APTA, The Little Courthouse Museum is the oldest log building in West Tennessee, and is one of five log courthous-

Highway Committee Roadblocked

The Hardeman County Commission voted 12 to 4 to table a proposal by four members of the commission to increase the voting members of the Hardeman County Highway Committee from three to seven, adding the four appointed commission voting members to the three elected officials.

"They go before the county," said Mac Vaughan, speaking of the three elected officials. "And now their votes might not count against the four commissioners."

Discussion ensued where all agreed three was too few, but few agreed with the plan put forth by Commissioners Chris Bell, Elmer Cobb, Jim Daniel and Vincen Morrow.

"We need to have them all elected," offered Elvis White.

After discussion, a motion to table the issue was put forth by Mike Madden and seconded by Johnny Lanier. The only commissioners voting against tabling the vote were Bell, Cobb, Daniel, and Morrow.

In November of 2016, Hardeman County Road Supervisors Kenny Pulse, John Mitchell, Jr., and Matt Knight floated, then withdrew a plan that would have sent a private act to the State of Tennessee that would have eliminated the Supervisor of Highways as an elected official, giving the supervisors power to hire and oversee the position.

I'm sure next time he'll stay out of it and just enjoy the ice cream.

In response to the growing conflict within the department, the county commission this past March 21 voted to add Bell, Cobb, Daniel, and Morrow to the county highway committee for the remainder of 2017. The four joined Pulse, Mitchell, and Knight at meetings that are also attended by Highway Superintendent David Sipes.

The non-vote from the commission leaves things as they were, a seven member committee with only three voting members.

Sipes said the addition of the four commissioners has made things better in the short term, but a long term solution was needed.

"It's been saner, I'll put it that way," he said. "But if you leave it like it is, you're going to regret it."

From 1862 until May 1864 Bolivar was under military law. During this occupation, the Union Generals: Ulysses S. Grant, William T. Sherman, J.B. McPherson and Lew Wallace made visits. In May 1864 General Sturgis came with his 12,000 soldiers. He decided to make the town useless to any army and especially the Confederates who had defeated him in battle. Pitzer Miller was a local merchant in Bolivar at the time and he had a good relationship with one of the Union Generals. The General, a Mason just like Miller, informed him that the army was going to burn the courthouse the next morning. Miller begged to be continued on A13

OUR COUNTY

Hardeman County Remembered by Lisa Coleman

(Author's note: My Dachshund-girl, Elsie, and her best friend, my dog-niece, Abbie Tigner, asked if they could write this week's column. As Elsie said, "Momma, we really understand the issue.....")

Woof & howdy y'all! This is Elsie Coleman with my best-dogbuddy Abbie Tigner, and we are woofing, I mean writing, the column for Momma this week, since we know waaaay more about dog stuff. Momma has gone to this event before, but Abbie has actually been there, y'all, and was even a judge one time, but I am getting ahead of our story. That's me and Abbie in the picture this week; we are bestest dog buddies, for sure.

This Saturday, October 21, is the annual March of Dogs presented by the sweet people at the Hardeman Adoptable Animals. "They are really some fine folks over there," Abbie said. "When I lived there, they were nice to me and would scratch my ears and rub my belly and they took good care of me, until my Momma, Janette Tigner, came and brought me to my fur-ever home with her. I want to tell all of them a big woof, I mean, hello from me; some of them might not know me by Abbie; they called me Pookie when I lived there."

You can go to that Facebook stuff and look up about the March and all. I don't get on Facebook much, but me and Abbie know that sometimes our Mommas put our pictures on it and people tell them how sweet and cute we are, so I guess that Facebook is all about dogs and stuff. On Saturday, there is the March of Dogs and then there is a big costume contest up at the Courthouse Square. My Momma is always putting hats and costumes and stuff on me, and I usually let her, she seems like she really enjoys it. The things a girl-doggie does for her Momma...

Abbie told me, "I have walked in the March before and one year, me and my Momma and your Momma all were judges at the pet costume contest. If you have kind of short legs like me that can be a really long walk, so you can join in anywhere along the way, or just join them up at the Courthouse. There will be lots of people who want to scratch your head and lots of new dog-friends to meet. It is surely a woofing good time."

They are selling some pretty groovy people shirts this year and you can buy them at this year's event, or at Old Hatchie Veterinary Clinic the week after the march and such. Those people at the vet clinic are pretty nice, even if they do give me shots sometimes, but they always give me a treat too. Or you can always do like we did just a couple of weeks ago, go through and find any blankets and towels and things you don't use and maybe even buy some new ones and take them out to the HAA people to use for the doggies there. Any way you can help make life easier for our furry friends as they wait for their fur-ever home is always appreciated. All the doggies love having a soft place to stretch out and sleep.

Speaking of which, whew, this writing stuff is wearing me and Abbie out! I guess it's time to have a snack and a nappie. Remember to support the March of Dogs and woof, woof, y'all.

Apples: A Food for All Seasons by Carolyn Tomlin

Johnny "Appleseed" Chapman (1775?-1845), an American pioneer, was legendary for planting apple seeds in the Ohio River Valley. Today we're learning what Chapman knew all the time: that apples are important to our health. Perhaps it's true: An apple a day keeps the doctor away. Look at the following statistics:

• There are approximately 7,500 apple varieties grown worldwide.

• A medium apple has 80 calories and 5 grams of fiber.

• The average American eats 20 lbs. of fresh apples per year (about 65 apples)

The fall season is a great time to enjoy this delicious fruit Try them fresh with the peeling for extra fiber and nutrition. Or bake, shred for cakes, use in salads or a multitude of recipes. Anyway you use this delicious fruit, you'll give your body a healthy boost. Include apples in your daily diet by using some of the following recipes.

Apple Whole-Wheat Muffins (Makes 12 muffins)

- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 cup whole wheat flour
- 1/3 cup brown sugar or honey
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 1 cup milk
- 1/4 cup vegetable oil
- 1/2 cup shredded apple
- 1/2 cup English walnuts, chopped

Preheat oven to 400° F. Spray cooking oil on muffin pans. Combine flours, sugar, baking power and salt in mixing bowl. Add apple and walnuts and toss gently. Set aside. In another bowl beat egg; add milk and oil. Add to dry ingredients. Stir just until flour is moistened. Fill muffin cups 2/3 full. Bake about 15 minutes or until golden brown.

Apple-Cabbage-Raisin Salad (Makes 4 servings)

- 2 cups shredded cabbage (Savoy is best)
- 1 red apple (do not peel)
- 1/2 cup raisins
- 1/2 cup sliced almonds
- 1/3 cup light mayonnaise

Shred cabbage in a food chopper or use a sharp knife on a cutting board. Chop apple. Toss cabbage, apple, aisins and almonds in a clear glass-serving bowl. Stir in mayonnaise. Serve chilled.

Spicy Applesauce Dip (Yields 2 cups)

- 1 cup low fat, low sodium ricotta cheese
- 1 cup unsweetened applesauce
- 1 teaspoons curry powder
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg

Combine all ingredients and place in a blender until smooth. Store covered in the refrigerator until ready to serve. Serve with slices of fresh apples, cantaloupe or other fruit.

Morning Sunshine Breakfast (Yields 2 servings)

Try this simple breakfast with skim milk, heated in the microwave or use as a spread for toast.

- 1 grated apple (or 1 cup unsweetened applesauce)
- 3/4 cup apple juice
- 1 tablespoon dry milk
- 1/2 cup quick oats
- 2 tablespoons raisins
- 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon.

Mix apple and juice for 30 seconds in a blender. Add remaining ingredients and refrigerate until ready to serve.

Officer Nelly Munoz of the Bolivar Police Department was the star of story time on Wednesday at the Bolivar-Hardeman County Library. Inside the Library, Officer Munoz told what a day in the life of an officer is like, how body cameras work to help protect officers, and demonstrated how her radio lets her communicate with dispatch. Moving outside, she showed the children how her sirens and lights work, how to talk on the speaker system, and how everything in her car had a function to keep her safe.

"Retirement Put Lessons from Week" to Work

To raise public awareness about the importance of saving for retirement, Congress has designated the third week of October as National Save for Retirement Week. What lessons can you learn from this event?

First of all, save early - and save often. Too many people put off saving for retirement until they are in their late 40s - and even their 50s. If you wait until you are in this age group, you can still do quite a bit to help build the resources you will need for retirement - but it will be more challenging than if you had begun saving and investing while you were in your 20s or early 30s. For one thing, if you delay saving for retirement, you may have to put away large sums of money each year to accumulate enough to support a comfortable retirement lifestyle. Plus, to achieve the growth you need, you might have to invest more aggressively than you'd like, which means taking on more risk. And even then, there are no guarantees of getting the returns you reauire.

On the other hand, if you start saving and investing when you are still in the early stages of your career, you can make smaller monthly contributions to your retirement accounts. And by putting time on your side, you'll be able to take advantage of compounding - the ability to earn money on your principal and your earnings.

Here's another lesson to be taken from National Save for Retirement Week: Maximize your opportunities to invest in the tax-advantaged retirement accounts available to you, such as an IRA and a 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored retirement plan. If you have a 401(k)-type plan at work, contribute as much as you can afford every year, and increase your contributions whenever your salary goes up. At a minimum, put in enough to earn your employer's matching contribution, if one is offered.

Apart from saving and investing early and contributing to your tax-advantaged retirement accounts, how else can you honor the spirit of National Save for Retirement Week? A key step you can take is to reduce the barriers to building your retirement savings. One such obstacle is debt. The larger your monthly debt payments, the less you will be able to invest each month. It's not easy, of course, to keep your debt under control, but do the best you can.

One other barrier to accumulating retirement resources is the occasional large expense resulting from a major car repair, sizable medical bills or other things of that nature. If you constantly have to dip into your long-term investments to meet these costs, you'll slow your progress toward your retirement goals. To help prevent this from happening, try to build an emergency fund big enough to cover three to six months' worth of living expenses. Since you'll need instant access to this money, you'll want to keep it in a liquid, low-risk account.

So, there you have them: some suggestions on taking the lessons

Do you have squirrels that need to be chased out of your yard? If so, then Roy might be the dog for you! Roy #17404 is an English Red-Tick Hound. Roy is estimated to be three years old, so he will not get any bigger. He was found in poor condition, but with some TLC from the volunteers, he is healthy and ready for adoption to a loving home. He is heartworm NEGATIVE!! Because of Roy's hound instincts, he will need to be kept in a fenced in area where he can run (hounds have some energy and like to chase) but cannot run off. Roy will be neutered before adoption, and he is up-to-date on shots. Are you the right owner for this boy?

If you are interested in adopting Roy please contact a volunteer: Charla Cooper 731-234-4421 or Jennifer Smallwood 731-609-0408. You can also check out our Facebook page, Hardeman Adoptable Animals, Inc. You can also come to the shelter. We are located inside the county landfill (Walton Road), and volunteers are there between 9-1 each day. HAA, Inc. is a 501©3 not-forprofit organization. Adoption fees are $125, and this includes all vaccines, spay/neuter, and care while at the shelter.

Come out to the annual March of Dogs on Saturday, October 21. There will be a parade followed by a costume contest, training demonstrations, food, a silent auction, and lots more! The parade begins in front of Fred's at 10:30 a.m. Bring your dogs in their best outfits to show them off! Some of HAA's dogs will also be available for meet and greet.

Singing Along with Seniors

The Bolivar Senior Center enjoyed live music Kyndle McMahan and Adam Gowdy on October 11. McMahan and Gowdy performed many familiar songs and a sing-a-long broke out.

Had friends come up from South Carolina last year and duck hunted for three days.

First day NO shots fired. Recent rains got the water level on an upgrade that night. Next two days were the best of the season. 60 straight days, it was the worst I have recorded since 1993. It's a sad shame the number of ducks that used the HATCHIE'S flyway not that many years ago. MILLIONS of dollars have been spent to ensure huntable numbers of ducks in the future. HERE'S MY THANG! WHOSE FUTURE??? Certainly not for our area that at one time was "DUCK RICH".

It was unreal at the ducks when I was growing up. Especially when we got flood water!!! The skies would be TEAMING with Mallards. Pin Oak acorns was their main diet in our area along with the flooded fields along the river. There's one thing about it, if they do come through our area, I'LL be there !! Everyone has their own opinion's about REFUGES, I can't write down my REAL FEELINGS, I'll only say::: IT AIN'T NICE!!

As Always::: SAFETY FIRST::::: HOOT

Cider-Baked Stuffed Apples with Salted Caramel Sauce

Ingredients

4 baking apples, such as Pink Lady, Honeycrisp or Braeburn, about 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 inches in diameter

- 1/3 cup dried cranberries, chopped
- 1/4 cup finely chopped walnuts
- 1/4 cup packed brown sugar
- 1 cup apple cider or apple juice
- 1 teaspoon lemon zest
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 3 inches stick cinnamon
- 1 tablespoon butter, cut into four pieces
- 1/3 cup packed brown sugar
- 1/4 cup whipping cream
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 tablespoon light-color corn syrup
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
- 1/2 teaspoon coarse sea salt
- Vanilla or cinnamon ice cream (optional)

Directions

Core apples; peel a strip from the top of each apple. Place apples, top sides up, in a 3 1/2- or 4-quart slow cooker. (If necessary, trim apples so they will sit on the bottom of the cooker.) In a small bowl, combine cranberries, walnuts and brown sugar. Spoon mixture into centers of apples, patting in with a knife or narrow metal spatula. Combine apple cider, lemon zest and lemon juice and pour around apples in cooker. Add stick cinnamon to liquid. Top each apple with a piece of butter. Cover and cook on low-heat setting for 5 hours or on high-heat setting for 2 1/2 hours.

For sauce: In a heavy small saucepan, bring the 1/3 cup brown sugar, whipping cream, butter and corn syrup to boiling over medium-high heat, whisking occasionally; reduce heat to medium. Boil gently, uncovered, for 2 minutes more. Remove from heat. Stir in vanilla and sea salt. Cool to room temperature before serving, or chill for up to 24 hours and rewarm in the microwave on 50 percent power (medium) for 1 1/2 to 2 minutes before serving, stirring twice.

To serve, transfer warm apples to dessert dishes. Spoon some of the cooking liquid from cooker over apples. Serve with Sea Salt-Caramel Sauce and, if you like, ice cream.

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Maxwell's Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

by Jessica Simmons

In an effort to help build community relationships, the City of Bolivar Police Department is rewarding good seat belt and driving behaviors with a sweet treat from Bolivar Sonic. An officer pulls over the citizen who wonders what they've done wrong, only to be given a ticket that reads, "Bolivar Police Department Good Driver Citation. Thank you for buckling up! This ticket is good for a free ice cream cone from Bolivar Sonic!". Chief Pat Baker wanted to use this avenue to help the department meet children in a new way to show them that police officers are their friends. "We want them to see us as someone they can trust and run to when they need something and to thank the parents for buckling them up and making it a habit

Burn Permits Needed in Hardeman County

The official start of wildfire season in Tennessee was October 15.

"It's important, and required by law from October 15, 2017 to May 15, 2018, that citizens call for a burning permit and follow outdoor burning safety recommendations," State Forester Jere Jeter said. "Tennessee experienced a historic fall fire season last year due to exceptional drought conditions. Fortunately, that underlying condition does not exist this year, but we're not going to let our guard down. The permit system helps us communicate to the public when and where it is safe to burn and focuses attention on safety. We need all Tennesseans to volunteer to prevent wildfire."

The online burn permit system is free, fast and simple. If you are burning a leaf or brush pile that is smaller than 8 feet by 8 feet in size, log on to www.BurnSafeTN.org for approval. More than 300,000 permits are issued each year, and the online system provides a quick and efficient way to apply.

Burn permits are only issued when conditions are conducive to safe burning. If you live inside city limits, there may be additional restrictions. Check with your municipality before you burn.

Burning without a permit is a Class C misdemeanor punishable by up to 30 days in jail and/or a fine. Wildfires caused by arson are a class C felony punishable by 3 to 15 years in prison and up to $10,000 in fines. Anyone with information about suspected arson activity should call the state Fire Marshal's Arson Hotline at 1-800-762-3017. The hotline is answered 24 hours a day, and you may remain anonymous when providing information.

Visit www.BurnSafeTN.org for additional tips to burn safely and to protect your community. To obtain a permit by phone in Hardeman County, call 731-658-2213.

Middleton Civitan will meet November 6 at 6 p.m. at Middleton Methodist Church fellowship hall, please come out and join us. We had a booth at Ames Plantation October 14. Thank you to everyone that came by and purchased items. Proceeds help our needy children and other needs in the community.

Middleton Lions Club thanks everyone that came out to the Spaghetti Supper on Friday, October 13.

Glenda Mathis and her daughter Rebecca Glasgow flew to Sacramento, CA recently to visit Rebecca's grand daughter, Carrie Ballard and family. They were able to spend time with Carrie who had surgery. They attended church in Stockton where Rebecca attended when she lived there. She was able to see many friends, but said it was good to get back to TN. Middleton Woman's Club met October 10. There were 22 members present. Kandy Shackelford, Chairman of Hard-eman County Chamber of Commerce, was the guest speaker. She gave a very informative speech on Hardeman County Tourism. She shared 2016 Economic impact of Tourism in Hardeman County. She stated if not for state and local taxes generated by tourism in Hardeman County each Hardeman County household would pay 337.65 more taxes each year. Thanks to those who are saving the Best Choice labels for the Middleton Woman's Club. This helps with the ongoing projects the Middleton Woman's Club does.

Lets watch out for our children and keep them in our prayers as they go to school and activities.

Larry and Anita Lambert hosted their annual wild game stew on Saturday, October 7. As usual the family and friends who attended in spite of the threatening rain forecast, had a great night eating stew and visiting. The rain never materialized and it turned out to be great event.

Melea Beshires was delighted to share highlights from their Beshires annual family vacation. "We (Willard, Linda, Kevin and myself) visited Ireland and Iceland. Initially, we chose Ireland because we wanted to visit the birthplace of our ancestors. Recently, Linda discovered along with Irish roots, she has significant Scandinavian roots. So naturally, when Kevin discovered the incredible rates for Iceland through Wow Air, the trip seemed almost serendipitous. We spent most of our time in Ireland in Cork and Dublin. We stayed at a lovely Bed and Breakfast in Cork where we enjoyed a half or full Irish breakfast daily, with eggs from the resident hen. From Cork, we took a day trip to the rugged Cliffs of Moher, and the Ring of Kerry where we saw beautiful rolling hillsides, dotted with sheep and cows as far as one can see.

In Killarney, we took a horse and buggy ride through an enchanting forest with a local guide who regaled us with stories and made sure that we hated Oliver Cromwell by the end of our tour. We thoroughly enjoyed walking up the narrow winding steps of the Blarney Castle where Kevin and Linda kissed the Blarney stone, giving them the gift of gab. For those who are not familiar with the gift of gab, it is the ability to speak with eloquence or skill at flattery. Winston Churchill, WB Yeats, and Pierce Brosnan are a few of the famous people who have kissed this stone. In Dublin, we walked through the famous Temple Bar pub district, visited St. Patrick's Cathedral, and gazed at the statue of Molly Malone. We also took a day trip to the Wicklow Mountains to see the land of two lakes, the bridge from the movie "P.S. I Love You", and an overlook of a valley where the television show "The Vikings" is filmed. The heather on the hill, coupled with the gorgeous rainbow that stretched across the sky made for a picturesque day. We were sad to leave Ireland, but as soon as we saw the Icelandic landscape we were not disappointed. We rented a car and stayed in the house of a local artist who lived by the sea. The day we arrived we saw seven rainbows. Reykjavik had a biting wind, but we felt spellbound as we walked around the city, visiting the Opera house and the Cathedral.

The next day we took a dip in the Blue Lagoon where we got facials by applying white silica mud from the lagoon. We spent several relaxing hours there trying different fruit juices and smoothies before visiting some geysers and waterfalls. Everywhere we drove, the scenery was staggeringly beautiful. Much of the landscape had a barren cratered look. The sky stayed overcast most of the time, however, despite the subdued atmosphere the greens and reds of the landscape had a vibrancy that was constantly astonishing. Many of the buildings looked simple and minimalist. Many of the towns seemed to be a mixture of run down decrepit structures nestled beside more progressive and stark modern architecture. The signs were mostly in Icelandic with some English, but everywhere we stopped there were English speakers. A favorite experience was eating at Geothermal Cooking, where we tasted unique dishes such as potato pate and lamb meatballs.

On our final day in Iceland we visited one of the world's largest glaciers. After a five-hour drive through the fog, we were afraid that we might not get to see the glacier; however, on arrival, the sky was clear and we could see the crystalline blue of the glacier. It was a sight of indescribable beauty. Returning home was bittersweet after such an amazing adventure and so many breathtaking views, but we will never forget all of our experiences. I highly recommend that anyone with a traveler's heart to see some of the world's greatest marvels, go to Ireland and Iceland. You will not be disappointed, but rather, all the more enriched with stories and memories for a lifetime."

Courthouse Renovations Continue continued from A1

allowed to remove all the records and furniture from the building. Given a full 24 hours, they were able to remove all the documents and store them in Pitzer Miller's basement. After that 24 hours, General Sturgis ordered the business section including the Baptist and Methodist Churches along with the second courthouse to be burned. During the year 1865 progress was made rebuilding the business section. Due to Miller's quick thinking, the City of Bolivar still has all those documents as well as the original design drawing by Jimmy Stevens of the second courthouse.

The third and present courthouse was built in 1868 by the firm Willis, Sloan, and Trigg with Legislative Authority for the issuance of bonds in the amount of $25,000. Originally built as a two-story brick structure with a pediment portico above the main façade, an arcaded, rusticated ground story, brick piasters with three defined bays and a cupola that has four clock faces that surrounds the building; the building had two, three-story wings added in 1955 by architects Arch-Eason, Anthony, McKinnie, and Cox.

Cathy Mayfield, Grant Administrator for the City of Bolivar, applied for a Historic Preservation Grant from the Tennessee Historical Commission/National Park Service on behalf of Hardeman County and Mayor Jimmy Sain. Mayfield says the original reason in applying for the grant was due to, "The pediment and acanthus leaves were completely falling apart. That's when we decided that something had to be done and I started looking to apply for this grant. This is the most valuable building in the entire county, we've got to take care of it."

The Hardeman County Courthouse was in dire need of more repairs than were initially thought. Originally there were 16 feet of soffit and fascia board along the southwest front entrance and approximately eight feet of soffit and fascia board on the northwest front entrance that had deteriorated due to a water leak along the roof line edge. With over 15 years experience working in historic property restoration, Hardeman County resident Brad Grantham (Brad Grantham Construction (also completing the restorations on the Luez), is the contractor in charge of the project. Along the front west entrance, there were nine double eave brackets and three larger corbels that needed to be replicated and replaced. Grantham had to have a knife maker make particular knives so that new eave brackets and corbels could match identically to the historic originals. The newly carved cedar will be painted to match the existing structure. Mayfield says, "He had to re-create all that wood. You can't buy that anymore. The artistic designs like the Greek key and all the ornamental elements of the building, had to be completely replicated. Brad had to take pictures and pieces of the rotten wood before the local commission and the state. In the past all that's been done is painting. With this grant, we've been able to go in and fix so much rot, mold, and just years of wear and tear."

With an over 200-page application detailing every inch of the courthouse that needed repair, along with pictures of the damage, The City of Bolivar received $28,020 of the $46,700 project cost signed by Patrick Miller of the Tennessee Historical Commission. Hardeman County only had to match 40% of the total which equated to $18,680.

"That little amount is nothing to preserve and save this history that is so important to our county and the State of Tennessee. This is only phase one. We're going to apply for a phase two. Phase two will take care of the east side of the building and will include mostly masonry and the windows. As of now, we've only done the west side of the building which is the front where the most guests come in and is seen from the Highway by guests coming in and out of town." ## Good Citizens by Jimmy Sadler

Yesterday, I was pulled over by a police officer. I am very conscientious about following road laws. I stop at stop signs completely and generally stay within the speed limit. I wondered at the time what I had done, but figured it had to be more related to my car. I knew I was up to date on my tags and sticker, so I just wondered and waited for the walk to the window. Turns out, my brake light was out. The officer was nice and asked me a few questions of follow up. I call this the fishing expedition. They take the opportunity of a pulled vehicle to make sure they don't have something else they could have caught on the stop. I was then handed a warning and kindly sent on my way. Looking down at the warning, I found some of the words very interesting. "The constable's office of Montgomery County is giving you this friendly warning for the stated traffic violation because we believe good citizens will follow the laws when given a reminder."

I am certainly glad I got a warning, and thought the printed section on the warning notice was nice and insightful. I was being reminded to follow the rules in hopes that I would get in line with them. The hope was based on the fact that they were assuming, or at least hoping, I was a good citizen. You could take that too deeply, as none of us are truly good to the core. But, the truth is, if we reminded each other of God's plans and rules occasionally, in hopes that the people might want to actually live better and please God, I wonder what the world would be like. I know it could easily create a community of self-defensive posturing. Most of us would feel some level of personal attack at someone calling us out on something. But what if we truly took God's Word, the advice of spiritually mature friends and the lessons of a sermon to heart as God's reminder that He wants us to do well. He has every hope that we will listen when reminded and follow when confronted.

My brake light could seem unimportant in comparison to many offenses, but the truth is, I'm only one burned bulb from potential disaster. If someone had no clue I was stopping, many people could be injured or worse. There is great potential for property damage too. There is no doubt that people who disobey some laws set themselves and others up for disaster. If you drink and drive, run stop lights, speed excessively, you run the risk of hurting or killing others and yourself.

So, practically speaking, what would it look like for each of us to hold one another to a higher standard? I think this would be best accomplished as a community standard. A church, for instance, could challenge their members for one month to speak up when they think they could sharpen a brother or sister in Christ. If I heard someone speaking poorly of another, I could give a little smile and pat on the back to acknowledge that I had just noticed something offensive. We owe it to those we love to speak up when they are being mistreated or are mistreating others. In our speech and interactions with others, we could challenge one another in hopes that we will be good followers of Christ and good citizens of Heaven.

Sunrise: Unprepared by David Coy

Sometimes circumstances will arise unexpectedly that bring with it perceived negative consequences or results. These circumstances will come upon us without notice and we will find ourselves unprepared and overwhelmed with the experience. Have you ever experienced something like what I am suggesting? Or have you known someone else who has experienced a change in life that was life-altering and came with it what some would describe as negative consequences? Sometimes people may experience loss that places heavy burdens upon their heart. One such example would be the unexpected loss of a child by SIDS. Another would be loss of a loved one by suicide. A third might be parents giving birth to a child with a genetic disorder.

When we believe that life has placed an overwhelming burden upon us we may come to experience perceived or assumed guilt as a result. This is when by no direct cause from us we assume responsibility for something that has happened that we could not have prevented or altered. I knew of someone who lost a parent through illness, yet somehow believed if only they had done something different, there would have been a different outcome. Family and professionals alike informed them that there was nothing anyone could do to change the outcome, but knowing this did not change the guilt that was felt. What can we do for these individuals or families by way of support or assistance? Be understanding and willing to provide whatever we may for whatever need they have that we may provide. Do not to add to the blame game if others are giving a negative response to their life-challenge. Be prepared rather, to give the emotional support they may need. Encourage those struggling to share/ talk about what is going on with them. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcares.com

The Hardeman County Youth Commission, with help from a Tennessee ThreeStar Grant, saw the dedication of a new T-Ball field for Middleton on October 14.

On hand to dedicate the field were Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain, Tennessee State Senator Dolores Gresham, Middleton Mayor Jackie Cox, and members of the Youth Commission.

"Thanks to the City of Middleton employees and Board of Alderman, our Woman's Club, Lion's Club; and Civitan Club for always being there with a helping hand. And thanks to all the city's businesses, both new and established, for their encouragement and support. It truly takes everyone to make dreams a reality," said Cox.

Cox also thanked Billy Spencer and EP Minerals, Johnny Lanier and Richie Yopp of Middleton Fiberglass for materials and support.

The ThreeStar Grant supplied funds for the fence, sod, bleachers, and concrete, while others provided the rest of the elements, including infield dirt supplied by EP Minerals that is effectively the same as used by the St. Louis Cardinals and San Diego Padres.

The inaugural game was played by teams coached by Bobby Hensley and Justin Campbell. The Hardeman County Sheriff's Department provided the refreshments.

The Youth Commission also voted to build a park in Bolivar, but plans and a site have yet to be finalized, according to Mayor Sain. Photo of Jackie Cox addressing the crowd, by Jessica Simmons.

Whatever the Season... It's the Farmers Market by Ginger Tester

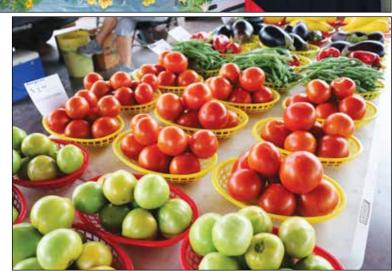

BULLETIN

In Tennessee, thousands of people will go to pumpkin patches, orchards and corn mazes; some looking for decorations, wagon rides, pig races and fall festivals as the agritourism season is in full operation. The Bolivar Farmers Market brings some of the best of these in one location right in the middle of Bolivar.

Opening shop at 7:00 a.m. on Tuesdays and Saturdays from April through October, the Bolivar Farmers Market offers a vast variety of fruits, vegetables, plants, hand-crafted items, and meats including catfish and Angus beef. Although some may think this is the end of growing season and it's rest ahead for the farmer, it is just getting started and there is much work to do to conclude this season and prepare for the next.

With farming being the greatest industry in Hardeman County, it is no wonder why the farmers market is a popular venue for both tourists and residents. All over the world, in every culture, economies are reflected by the farmers markets ranging from a few stalls to several city blocks and bring to the consumer what he cannot get otherwise due to the lack of transportation or ability to get to the fields.

Whether you are looking for fresh menu or gift ideas from the abundance, or to stock up on your canning and freezing items, the Bolivar Farmers Market ensures that you won't leave disappointed in the variety, selection, quality, and price. But don't hesitate.

The season at the Bolivar Farmers Market will conclude on October 28. To get information to participate next year, contact Market Manager Gerald Sykes at 731-609-2345. The Bolivar Farmers Market is part of PickTnProducts and exists due to the efforts of the Bolivar Downtown Development Corporation.

Saturday was a great day for a ball game!!

Thanks to individuals and businesses, the City of Middleton has a new T-Ball field.

I want to take this time to offer a hearty thank you for all the contributions made in making our new T-Ball field a reality. Without your involvement, it would not have been possible. A special "thank you" to Billy Spencer and EP Minerals and Johnny Lanier and Richie Yopp of Middleton Fiberglass for the materials they provided for the field, Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain for helping secure the grant, and the support and dedication of State Senator Delores Gresham. Thanks to the Hardeman County Sheriff's Department for the hamburgers, hot dogs, chips and drinks. (They were delicious of course.) Special thanks to Bobby Hensley and Justin Campbell for bringing their teams to make history by being the first teams to play on the new field. Thanks to the City of Middleton employees and Board of Alderman, our Woman's Club, Lion's Club and Civitan Club for always being there with a helping hand. And finally, thanks to all the city's businesses, both new and established, for their encouragement and support.

It truly takes everyone to make dreams a reality.

JACKIE COX, MAYOR, CITY OF MIDDLETON
