Volume 153, Issue 52

DECEMBER 28, 2017

From the Other Side of the Desk

Having thought about it for almost a minute or two, I've decided New Year's is my favorite holiday.

It's about new things, forgetting the old and pressing on to new stuff.

But that's not my only reason. The other reasons it's my favorite are below:

1, No one complains you ran out of Snickers bars or turned off your porch light at 6:15. Costumes are optional.

2. You can give your significant other a crock pot or a vacuum cleaner and not have to hear about it for the rest of your life. And if you don't want to buy gifts at all, no one cares.

3. No one pinches you if you forget to wear green.

4. Planting a tree is optional. No one cares if you think the earth is doing just fine without the government to save it, thank you. Hint: It is.

5. If you hate the whole thing, fall asleep and miss it, or forget it all together, no one is insulted. No one calls you Scrooge. Or the Grinch.

6. You don't have to call people and wish them a Happy New Year right when it happens. You have like a month or two to get it done. And if you forget to tell someone, they don't accuse you of forgetting about them.

7. You can't buy the wrong color flowers or a card that sends the completely wrong message. Or buy a box of chocolates without a grid to tell your receiver of the box where the caramels are versus the orThe Weekly Publication of The County Journal, Inc.

votes through two weeks of early voting and held on to win the city of Bolivar Mayor's race by 73 votes over two-time incumbent Mayor Barrett Stevens.

"I'd like to thank the citizens of Bolivar. Thank you, thank you. You believed in a change. You believed in me. You believed in us working together to make Bolivar better. I won't let you down. I look forward to working with the council and the citizens to make a Better Bolivar. I cannot individually thank all the people by name without forgetting someone, so I'll just say a tremendous thank you to everyone on my campaign. Thank you to all my family, my mom, my dad. Demetria and my boys, these past six months have tested me. Tested us. But that's just it. It was all a test to see if we were ready and we are."

McTizic, who at 30 became the youngest mayor in Bolivar history, got his margin of victory in the East Bolivar precinct, where his 229-128 difference was enough to overcome Stevens' 452-424 margin in West Bolivar. Mayor Stevens, who served for years as a Bolivar City Councilman and for eight years as mayor, said his disappointment won't diminish his love for the city.

June 15- It was a city council meeting full of tearful thanks and goodbyes for exiting Bolivar Mayor Barrett Stevens and Council Members Willie McKinnie and Randy Hill on June 13. "At this time, I want to thank all the citizens of Bolivar and my fellow council members for having me these last eight years as your mayor. I particularly want to thank the staff, department heads, and the employees of the City of Bolivar.

Our success can be laid in this board and in the hands of these valued employees. In a few days, I'll end my term as mayor," began Stevens. "And we've had a good transition, our mayor-elect is working real hard. He's doing a great job. He helped put this new budget together and worked hard at it. He's met with all our employees and department heads and I support him 100%."

Mayor Stevens was overcome with emotion as he took a moment before turning to Mayor-Elect Julian McTizic and going on to say, "Bolivar's success depends upon what you do in the future. I support you and I'm going to do everything I can to continue to support Bolivar. Thank you and God bless you." Willie McKinnie fought back tears, stating, "I do appreciate being the representative for Chief (Pat) Baker and all the policemen and Chief (Lynn) Price and all the firemen. It was a great honor to represent you all. I want to say I thank God for blessing me to serve the citizens of Bolivar. It's just been an honor. But most of all, it's been a pleasure and a great honor to me to serve under Mayor Stevens. And I appreciate the work we have done together and the things that are still in the works.

And I'm praying that God will use Mayor McTizic to carry forth and keep the progress going and that he will lead and guide you in everything you do." During the meeting, the council passed the 2017-2018 budget on the first reading.

June 22- The Hardeman County Commission voted 9-6 to keep the county tax rate at $2.55 for another year at their meeting on June 20 in the Hardeman County Courthouse. Voting against keeping the tax rate at $2.55 were Anthony Pulse, Bobby Doyle, Elvis White, Major Wilburn, Connie Young, and Chandra Lake. The 9-6 margin was more decisive than the vote on the first reading. In May, Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain broke an 8-all tie to pass the 2017-2018 Hardeman County Budget. Mayor Sain broke the May 16 tie after the debate that centered on the county schools funding. Sain wanted to shave four cents off last year's school budget due to a decrease in students in the county, but the schools asked that the county only cut two cents to bring the rate back to $1.48 from $1.50. The commission eventually voted to reduce the schools down to $1.46, a four-cent cut as well.

"I'm very pleased that our county has passed a budget for the third year with no tax increase. The County General Fund took a four-cent cut and will be operating on 39.6% of the revenue, but our conservative elected officials balanced their budgets as requested. I'm very proud to serve with them," said Sain. Breaking down the $2.55 tax rate, it gives the County General Fund $1.01 (39.6%), Debt Service receives $0.08 (3.1%), and the School Fund gets $1.46 (57.3%) of the total monies that are expected to be collected. The Hardeman County Budget Committee consists of chairperson Jerry Watkins, Junior Jimmerson, and three county commissioners: Elmer Cobb, Jackie Sain and Jim Daniel.

June 29- A disagreement over equipment and purchases for the Whiteville Fire Department triggered a walkout of 16 firefighters on June 27. Newly-elected Mayor Aubrey Phillips said his statement in a June 26 meeting where he would "write up" Whiteville Fire Chief Ernie Burkeen and volunteer firefighter Jonathan Swarey for making unauthorized purchases was the catalyst for the walkout. The purchases in question were for turnout equipment last year (the order for which he asked to be canceled when he took office) and the most recent order of Motorola pagers and radios. Phillips says both times, he only knew of the expenditures when the bill and purchase orders arrived. "We have to abide by the rules," said Phillips. "Orders need to go through the city administrator. By state law, anything over $4,000 has to be bid out." Swarey, who had volunteered with the department for 14 years, said he was unsure why he was called in, explaining by purchasing radio equipment that, "I was only doing what I was told to do by the chief," adding that he was given a purchase order number for the radios by Burkeen and that his frustration with being denied what he termed "proper equipment" triggered his resignation. "The Town of Whiteville gets so many medical related calls, especially ambulance calls, it justifies a full department," said Swarey. "The town of Whiteville has been getting fulltime services on a volunteer budget." Phillips said that at the Town of Whiteville City Council meeting on June 26 the council asked Phillips to ask for the resignation of both Burkeen and Swarey. Phillips said he wouldn't ask Burkeen to leave, but Swarey was no longer welcome to serve as a volunteer firefighter or first responder for Whiteville. "He quit and then tried to get others to quit with him. As far as I'm concerned, he's not welcome anymore," added Phillips.

The Maxwell's Stay-at-Home Gourmet

Black Eyed Peas with Ham Hocks and Greens

Ingredients

- 2 pounds black-eyed peas, soaked overnight if possible
- 2 pounds smoked ham hock, meaty ham bone or slab bacon
- 2 teaspoons kosher salt
- 1 large onion, peeled and stuck with 2 cloves
- 1 bay leaf
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon allspice
- 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
- 4 garlic cloves, minced
- $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon crushed red pepper
- 2 pounds collard greens (or desired greens), cut in 1-inch ribbons (about 8 cups)
- 1 bunch scallions, cleaned and chopped, for garnish

Directions

1. Drain peas and put them in a large Dutch oven or heavy-bottomed soup pot. Add ham hock or bone (if using slab bacon, cut it into 2-inch chunks), cover with 10 cups water and turn heat to high. Add salt, onion stuck with cloves, bay leaf, black pepper and allspice.

2. Bring to a boil, then reduce heat to a gentle simmer. Skim off and discard any foam that rises to the surface. Simmer for 1 1/2 to 2 hours, until peas are tender. Throughout cooking, add water as necessary, always keeping liquid level 1 inch above surface, stirring with wooden spoon occasionally. Turn off heat. Check broth for salt and adjust seasoning. Mixture should be fairly frothy. With a pair of tongs, remove ham hock, ham bone or bacon. Chop meat and skin in rough pieces and set aside.

3. Put a large wide skillet over medium-high heat. Add vegetable oil and heat until wavy. Add garlic and red pepper and let sizzle without browning. Add collard greens and stir to coat. Season with salt and add 1 cup water, stirring to help wilt greens. Add chopped ham and reduce heat to medium, then cover with lid slightly ajar and cook until greens are soft, about 20 minutes. Check seasoning. To serve, put greens and meat in low soup bowls, then ladle over hot black-eyed peas. Sprinkle with scallions.

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Maxwell's Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

New Year's - Time for New Year's Financial Resolutions

We've reached the end of another year - which means it's just about time for some New Year's resolutions. Would you like to study a new language, take up a musical instrument or visit the gym more often? All these are worthy goals, of course, but why not also add some financial resolutions?

Here are some ideas to think about:

Increase contributions to your employer-sponsored retirement plan. For 2018, you can contribute up to $18,500 (or $24,500 if you're 50 or older) to your 401(k) or similar plan, such as a 403(b), for employees of public schools and some nonprofit groups, or a 457(b) plan, for employees of local governments. It's usually a good idea to contribute as much as you can afford to your employer's plan, as your contributions may lower your taxable income, while your earnings can grow tax-deferred. At a minimum, put in enough to earn your employer's matching contribution, if one is offered.

Try to "max out" on your IRA. Even if you have a 401(k) or similar plan, you can probably still invest in an IRA. For 2018, you can contribute up to $5,500 to a traditional or Roth IRA, or $6,500 if you're 50 or older. (Income restrictions apply to Roth IRAs.) Contributions to a traditional IRA may be tax-deductible, depending on your income, and your earnings can grow tax-deferred. Roth IRA contributions are not deductible, but earnings can grow tax-free, provided you don't start taking withdrawals until you are 59-1/2 and you've have had your account at least five years. You can put virtually any investment in an IRA, so it can expand your options beyond those offered in your 401(k) or similar plan.

Build an emergency fund. Try to build an emergency fund conaining three to six months' worth of living expenses, with the money held in a low-risk, liquid account. This fund can help you avoid dipping into your long-term investments to pay for unexpected costs, such as a new furnace or a major car repair.

Control your debts. It's never easy, but do what you can to keep your debts under control. The less you have to spend on debt payments, the more you can invest for your future.

Don't overreact to changes in the financial markets. We've had a long run of rising stock prices - but it won't last forever. If we experience a sharp market downturn in 2018, don't overreact by taking a "time out" from investing. Market drops are a normal feature of the investment landscape, and you may ultimately gain an advantage by buying new shares when their prices are down.

Review your goals and risk tolerance. At least once in 2018, take some time to review your short- and long-term financial goals and try to determine, possibly with the help of a financial professional, if your investment portfolio is still appropriate for these goals. At the same time, you'll want to re-evaluate your risk tolerance to ensure you're not taking too much risk – or possibly too little risk – with your investments.

Do your best to stick with these resolutions throughout the coming

August 3- Members of the Tennessee Black Caucus presented the Allen White School with a grant to help further their goals to create a cultural and educational center at the school site. "It's a great thing for me personally," said Tennessee State Representative Johnny Shaw, who is an alum of the school. "It will be a neat museum and will bring visitors to Whiteville. I'm proud to be a part of this." The donation was a portion of the agenda at the meeting of the Tennessee Black Caucus held at Elcanaan Baptist Church in Whiteville.

August 10- The Bolivar City Council presented a memorial proclamation during their regularly scheduled meeting at the Bolivar Municipal Center Courtroom to the family of former Councilman Willie McKinnie, who passed away on July 12, 2017.

McKinnie's first term as City Councilman was in 2002. During his last term, McKinnie served as City Commissioner of both the Bolivar Fire and Police Departments until June of 2017. Along with his responsibilities as councilman, Bishop McKinnie served on the City of Bolivar

August 10- The State of Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development announced the ThreeStar competitive Grant Awards for Fiscal Year 2017/18. Thirty-one counties will receive $25,000.00 and Hardeman County is one of them. In the past, each ThreeStar County received $10,000.00 upon application. This is the first year that the grant was raised to $25,000.00 and made competitive. Hardeman County Mayor Sain stated, "I am very proud that we were chosen for the grant. I will utilize the funds to continue the Work Ethics/Workforce Development Classes, Workforce Clean Records program, Health and Welfare programs, updating and maintenance on the county's website. It is vital to our economy to have a trained available workforce ready to go to work. I would like to thank Governor Haslam, Commissioner Rolfe, Senator Gresham, Representative Shaw and Representative Gant for supporting Hardeman County and our efforts to prepare it for competitiveness and economic development."

Upon arrival by four Hardeman County Deputies, three investigators, Sheriff John Doolen and Chief Deputy Billy Davis, it was learned that two shots had been fired inside the home, allegedly by Angel Bustillos. As other law enforcement came, Bustillos barricaded himself and his captives in the residence. Two squads from the Madison County Swat Team, including a translator were brought in and after negotiations, Bustillos was taken into custody and charged with three counts of Especially Aggravated Kidnapping, one count of Domestic Assault, and three counts of Reckless Endangerment. His bond was set at $300,000. Bustillos' intake documents show him as a non-citizen of the United States and according to Sheriff John Doolen, Immigrations and Customs Enforcement was contacted and his status as a resident could be in jeopardy.

In Casablanca, "Everybody Comes to Rick's."

In Hardeman County, *Every*body Comes to Leon's. And when it comes to Leon's, there are few places that are as American or as Hardeman County as his location near Hickory Valley.

Everybody Comes to Leon's. Just not all at once. It's not a big place with a dance floor and 423 brands of beer, no, in fact, more people attended the dedication of the Leon Fish Bridge in central Hardeman County last week than could actually fit inside his establishment.

And when the Hardeman County Commission recognized a business that has had almost everyone show up at one time or another, they confirmed that, Everyone Comes to Leon's.

It's a bar. And he runs it. But way more than that, Leon Fish was recognized for his fame outside his four walls off Lake Hardeman Road. He was recognized for his music, playing with the greats and bringing the greats home to play right here in Hardeman County.

In Casablanca, Rick said, "Your business is politics, mine is running a saloon."

But Leon did both. For 40 years. And I've heard more than once and from more than one person, that if you're going into politics in Hardeman County, you'd better go see Leon. And whether for superstition or just good politics, most of them have. If they wanted to win, that is.

Seating is limited, but nobody cares. The jukebox is a museum of music from times gone by but not forgotten. The walls have photos of the famous people that have passed through there and business cards of anyone who wants to leave one to let everyone know that they too, have been to Leon's.

Leon's Place is a testament to the American Dream, where someone with somewhat humble resources coupled with great hospitality and attitude, can be a bona-fide-famous-for cool-reasons success. I'm just glad he didn't want to start a newspaper.

Yeah, I've been there. Why? Because Everyone Comes to Leon's. Reprinted from From the Other Side of the Desk, September 7, 2017

There is a touch of humor in asking God for patience and being impatient in the process. But patience is a very badly needed virtue for the Christian life (Luke 21:19; Gal. 5:22). God calls us to be patient and be long suffering in every area of our lives.

August 31- A joint investigation by special agents with the TBI and officers with the Hardeman County Sheriff's Department, the U.S. Marshals Service and the FBI has resulted in the arrest of two individuals, charged in connection to a 2016 double homicide in Toone. At the request of 25th District Attorney General Mike Dunavant, TBI Agents joined Hardeman County deputies on October 21, 2016, in investigating the homicides of Joe "Joe Duke" Robertson, 38, and his 13-year-old son Jarvarrie "Joe Joe" Robertson. The two were found shot to death at their Naylor Road home. As a result of that investigation, Andrian Bullock, Damein Hamer and Jeremy Hamer have since been indicted by the Hardeman County Grand Jury on charges of first degree murder, and are currently awaiting trial. During the course of this ongoing investigation, agents developed additional information that identified Marquenton Deandra Williams, of Lamar, Mississippi, and Erica Angria Beard, of Bolivar, as two individuals with connections to the deaths of the victims. Marquenton Williams (DOB 1/18/1989) was arrested on August 28 in Tippah County, Mississippi. Williams waived extradition and was brought to the Hardeman County Jail. He was charged with two counts of First Degree Murder and is being held without bond pending his arraignment.

The following day, Erica Beard (DOB 8/07/1975) was arrested and charged with one count of Criminal Conspiracy to Commit Aggravated Burglary and Aggravated Robbery and one count of Accessory After the Fact to First Degree Murder. She was booked into the Hardeman County Jail, where she was held on a $1,000,000 bond.

September 7- Former Hardeman County resident Charles Larry Bates was sentenced to 21 years and 10 months for a scheme selling gold and silver to investors that netted the self-made radio host almost $100 million. Bates made his pitch on Christian media outlets as well as his family's own Information Radio Network, Inc. During sentencing, Bates was ordered to pay restitution of $21 million to 400 people defrauded in the scheme. In May, Bates was convicted of 46 counts of fraud and was tabbed as the ringleader in the grift and deemed responsible for the total amount gained in the scheme. Customers had given $87 million to First American Monetary Consultants to buy precious metals. But prosecutors maintained, and the jury decided that the defendants kept the money for their personal use, including commodities trading and a 10,000-square-foot house. By 2009, the company had more than $26 million dollars in unfilled orders, according to court documents. Bates was also in the Hardeman County spotlight in 2010, with his attempt to influence the outcome of the 2010 Hardeman County Sheriff's race against current Hardeman County Sheriff's race

IV. We Need Patience in Our Family Life.

One of the areas that we need patience the most is with those in our family. The people we are with all the time and love the most, yet can lack patience for. The husband and wife relationship definitely requires love & patience from both parties to make the marriage a happy home (Eph. 5:25-33). All those personality traits and peculiar habits that we found endearing at first, can become annoyances later on. They can even be a source of strife and bitterness, if we allow them to (Col. 3:19). We forget about the need to patiently forgive the other's faults and that we too have faults that require patience. We can forget the scriptures' teaching that, "Love suffers long and is kind; love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up; 5 does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked, thinks no evil; 6 does not rejoice in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth; 7 bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." O, how we need that kind of love in our homes! And not to mention the greatest challenge in family life- the raising of children! Children are a great blessing from the Lord (Psalm 127:3), yet there are times when they can and will test our patience to the breaking point! It is in those times that parents need to hold fast to their discipline, yet show love & fairness to our dear ones (Proverbs 13:24). What a great challenge that is in the heat of the moment! May it never be said of us, that we are more patient with other people than the family we love. In our family life, Christians be patient!

September14- The Bolivar City Council approved allowing alcohol to be consumed at special events in the city during their regularly scheduled meeting on September 11. The ordinance, labeled #17-006, amends the Bolivar Municipal code to "grant exceptions to the prohibition of drinking or consuming alcoholic beverages on public property." The change, which passed unanimously at the August meeting, had a more difficult time in the final passage, as Page Walley, Tracy Byrum, and Larry McKinnie found the possibility that sales of alcohol might accompany the consumption as a point of discussion. Mayor Julian McTizic assured the council that the laws governing the sale of alcohol had not changed and that any selling in conjunction with an event would have to be approved through the Bolivar Beer Board After a pause in the discussion, Councilwoman Suzanne Rhea made a motion to approve the change. The motion passed with four council people (Rhea, Jonathan Joy, Todd Lowe, and Melvin Golden) voting in favor, two (McKinnie and Walley) voting against, and one, Tracy Byrum, declining to vote on the issue. Groups or events wishing to have alcohol at an event or for a weekly event such as Music on the Square, will have to apply with the city council and pay a fee. The ordinance change will take effect in 10 days, according to McTizic.

September 21- The seven-week journey for the Luez Theatre sign saw the Bolivar icon come back home on September 15 after a restoration from Memphis Sign Erectors.

The Luez Theatre is a project of the Bolivar Downtown Development Corporation who purchased the circa 1947 theatre in 2013 with plans to restore it for use and approved $250,000 to repair the facility in March. The sign restoration was done thanks to a grant contract with the State of Tennessee.

September 28- Two escapees from the Western Mental Health Facility (WMHI) in Bolivar were captured Saturday, September 23, after a little more than thirty-six hours of freedom. Caught were 31-year old Joseph Bortz and 22year old Matthew Inman, who plotted their escape from Western while incarcerated together in Gibson County, reasoning that it would be easier to escape from a mental facility than a jail, according to Bolivar Police Chief Pat Baker. Also, according to Baker, their run to freedom ran into some trouble after they overpowered a WMHI employee, took a key card and used it, leaving the grounds by scaling the fence. "They broke into a nearby cabin and got a coffee pot, some tea, a hot dog roaster, deer tent, and a roll of paper towels," said Baker, adding they made a makeshift camp on the land that held the cabin. A tip from the landowner came when he checked his trail cameras, saw one of the escapees, and alerted police in Bolivar.

The presence of police in the area caused the pair to attempt to borrow a telephone from a nearby house to call for help. The homeowner allowed them use of the landline, but called the authorities on a cell phone at the same time.

Inman was captured when the authorities arrived and Bortz, who had fled across the road, was apprehended five hours later. Baker said the escapees were surprised to learn they hadn't traveled more than about four miles from Western.

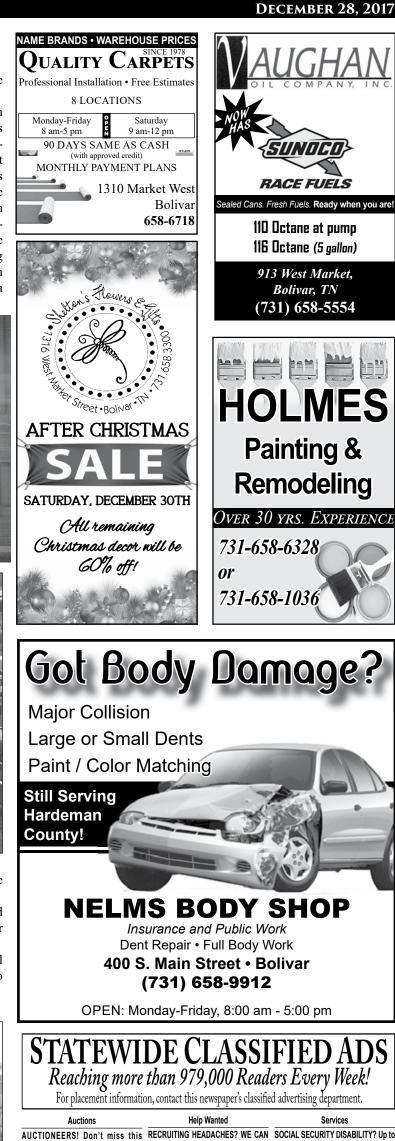

"They thought they were on the other side of Jackson," he added. Baker said the department was grateful for the assistance of the Gibson County Sheriff's Department as well as the Tennessee Highway Patrol, who lent a helicopter to the search effort.

October 5- For the second time in two weeks, game cameras positioned in Hardeman County helped find missing persons. This time, however, the news was not good. A call from hunters checking game cameras led to the discovery of the body of James Perry, 83, of Bolivar, on October 1, ending the search for him that began on September 12 when he is thought to have walked away from his home at 110 Hollywood Acres Lane in Bolivar.

According to Hardeman County Sheriff John Doolen, Perry was found within 1.5 miles of his home in a small creek behind the Old Granville Howell Sawmill near Highway 125 South. "At the time of his discovery, the creek had about a foot of water in it," said Doolen. "But we think it was about four feet deep on September 12." "Hunters checking their game cameras saw Mr. Perry walking around," said Doolen, adding that the date stamp was September 12.

Doolen said an untold number of man hours and numerous agencies from outside Hardeman County lent labor and resources to the search, which lasted from September 12 to September 22, when the department began to investigate other leads.

October 12- The Bolivar Rotary Club had their annual chicken cooking, with 1,000 halves sold to raise money for Rotary Club events and scholarships.

October 12- The City of Bolivar hosted a job fair on October 5, attracting hundreds of job seekers and more than 30 businesses to the Bolivar Municipal Center. "We can talk about the numbers but if we can get one person to come today and get a job, this will be a success," said Bolivar Mayor Julian McTizic. "And with that as a goal, we can certainly say this has been a success." McTizic said the city wants to expand the job fair in 2018 and plans to use both the conference room and the Bolivar Municipal Gymnasium as well.

October 12- The Bolivar City Council added a new councilperson for District A, Position 3 at their monthly meeting on October 9 as Tommy Woods of Bolivar was sworn in by Bolivar City Judge Cathy Frost. Woods, who is a Hardeman County Sheriff Department's School Resource Officer in Middleton, won by a 4 to 3 vote by the council defeating Donnell Polk, who received the other three votes and two other candidates. Woods replaces Quantissia Hamer, who resigned from her District A Position 3 spot. The seat will be up for re-election in 2019.

October 19- The Hardeman County Commission voted 12 to 4 to table a proposal by four members of the commission to increase the voting members of the Hardeman County Highway Committee from three to

"They go before the county," said Mac Vaughan, speaking of the three elected officials. "And now their votes might not count against the four commissioners." Discussion ensued where all agreed three was too few, but few agreed with the plan put forth by Commissioners Chris Bell, Elmer Cobb, Jim Daniel and Vincen Morrow. "We need to have them all elected," offered Elvis White. After discussion, a motion to table the issue was put forth by Mike Madden and seconded by Johnny Lanier. The only commissioners voting against tabling the vote were Bell, Cobb, Daniel, and Morrow. In November of 2016, Hardeman County Road Supervisors Kenny Pulse, John Mitchell, Jr., and Matt Knight floated, then withdrew a plan that would have sent a private act to the State of Tennessee that would have eliminated the Supervisor of Highways as an elected official, giving the supervisors power to hire and oversee the position. In response to the growing conflict within the department, the county commission this past March 21 voted to add Bell, Cobb, Daniel, and Morrow to the county highway committee for the remainder of 2017. The four joined Pulse, Mitchell, and Knight at meetings that are also attended by Highway Superintendent David Sipes. The non-vote from the commission leaves things as they were, a seven-member committee with only three voting members. Sipes said the addition of the four commissioners has made things better in the short term, but a long-term solution was needed. "It's been saner, I'll put it that way," he said. "But if you leave it like it is, you're going to regret it."

October 26- Bolivar Central Football prepared to say goodbye to Woody Woods Stadium on October 27, as the final home game of the 2017 season was the last game played at the stadium which was first used in 1953.

"The last couple of years the Board of Education has been investigating new facilities for both high schools," said Superintendent of Schools Warner Ross. "We've had to do a lot of belt-tightening, but we can now go forward without having to do any financing." In addition to new home side seating, a new fieldhouse will be built to house the football facilities.

The field itself, named after R.A. Butler, will remain in the same place. "The old stadium has a lot of character, but a lot of flaws. We've repaired it over the years many times," said Ross, adding that the locker rooms will be in the fieldhouse that will be situated near the south end of the field. In the spring, Hardeman County Schools plan to build a new gymnasium at Middleton High School, replacing Bailey Howell Gymnasium.

"With seventh through twelfth grades at Middleton, there are a lot of teams competing for floor time in addition to the P.E. classes," said Ross. "We plan to build a spectator gym for Middleton High School." Ross, hopes the Bolivar Central Stadium will be done in time for spring graduation ceremonies, the fieldhouse in time for summer, and the gym at Middleton ready in the fall of 2018.

November 16- With the opening of the 2018 Hardeman County Elections on November 17, the Hardeman County Democratic Party released their requirements and/or guidelines for allowing a candidate to affiliate with the party that has dominated Hardeman County politics for years, although perhaps in name only. To that end, the party formed a Democratic Party Primary Board with the purpose of determining if candidates for office are "bona fide" democrats. The party has crafted a letter to explain their process that will be sent to all candidates who pick up petitions to run as democrats. The letter says the primary board will use objective evidence to make the determination but will allow candidates to explain exceptions. The letter outlines the criteria and process as follows:

• The basic criteria are that Democratic candidates must have been shown to support state and federal Democrats the majority of the time.

• To meet these criteria, candidates should have voted in at least three of the last five state and federal Democratic Primaries or be prepared to present reasonable explanations why they did not.

• Candidates that do not meet the base criteria may meet with the Democratic Party Primary Board after the filing deadline and present reasons why they should be qualified as a Democratic Party candidate.

• Immediately after the deadline for fling for candidacy has passed, the Hardeman County Democratic Party Primary Board will hold a public meeting to consider whether candidates meet the qualification to run for office as a Democrat. All candidates that have fled to run as a Democrat will have the opportunity to attend and present at that time, if they so desire.

• The primary board will consider the candidates primary voting records and any other relevant evidence presented to it. There being no evidence contrary, the candidate will be deemed a Democrat and qualified to run as a Democrat.

• If a candidate is determined to not be a bona fide Democrat, the primary board shall refer the matter to the Hardeman County Democratic Party Executive Committee for review.

• The executive committee may either qualify the candidate as a bona fide Democrat or refer the matter with a recommendation to disqualify to the Tennessee Democratic Party Executive Committee for final decision. See also the letter from Hardeman County Democratic Party Chairman Randall Rice and Hardeman County Democratic Party

Primary Board Chairman Evelyn Robertson on A5. According to Hardeman County Administrator of Elections Amber

Moore, a candidate rejected by the Hardeman County Democratic Party or the State Democratic Party would not be eligible to refile and run as a Republican or an Independent if their petition had been turned in and certified by the Hardeman County Election Commission. Last summer, the Hardeman County Democratic Party said they had identified seven Hardeman County Commissioners who ran as democrats in 2014 but were not, according to their criteria, bona fide democrats. In 2014, 23 of the 27 partisan offices in Hardeman County Government were won by those identifying with the Democratic Party, and 16 of those democrats ran unopposed in the general election.

November 30- A federal grand jury returned a 14-count indictment on November 20 charging five defendants with federal Hobbs Act Robbery in West Tennessee. D. Michael Dunavant, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Tennessee, announced the indictment, which said from July 1, 2016 through October 31, 2016, Jenial Edwards, Scotty Edwards, Eddie Matthews, Zarius Norment and Johnny Cross were on a robbery crime spree. Separately and together, the defendants robbed seven different businesses in Bolivar, Whiteville, and Jackson, Tennessee. Some of the defendants possessed firearms in each of these robberies. The 14-count indictment charges each defendant with robbery affecting interstate commerce and carrying and/or brandishing firearms during the commission of the robberies. Jenial Edwards is also charged with being a felon in possession of a firearm. The defendants are: Jenial Edwards, 25, Bolivar, Scotty Edwards, 25, Bolivar, Eddie Matthews, 26, Bolivar, Zarius Norment, 21, Whiteville, and Johnny Cross, 54, Bolivar If convicted, each defendant faces up to 20 years imprisonment for each of the robberies and a $250,000 fine. In addition, the defendants face a consecutive 7-year sentence for brandishing a firearm during the robberies. Jenial Edwards has an additional penalty of not more than 10 years for being a convicted felon in possession of a firearm. The United States also seeks criminal forfeiture of property involved in the crime This case was investigated by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives; Hardeman County Sheriff's Office; and Bolivar, Whiteville and Jackson Police Department. The charges and allegations contained in the indictment are merely accusations, and the defendants are considered innocent unless and until proven guilty. Assistant U.S. Attorney Victor L. Ivy is prosecuting this case on the government's behalf.

December 7- The Bobby Martindale Memorial Library in Grand Junction officially moved to their new location 530 Madison Ave. W. on Saturday, December 2. See photo below. A programming room for their continued GED/Hi-Set Education classes with a smart board, new computers, a complete kitchen, new windows, paint, updated book shelves, and a wonderful children's area are just some of the renovations available to the eye. Grand Junction Mayor, Curtis Lane, expressed his gratitude to everyone who's played a part in the process of this amazing new facility. Stressing the importance of libraries as being a "safe-haven" for many children he said, "One of my favorite quotes reads, "Today's readers are tomorrow's leaders". What we're doing here is giving children and adults the ability to change their lives. I just don't know what I would do without Ms. Wanza Taylor."

Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain discussed the ways the new library came about, with fundraising efforts, and a grant from the state for $100,000.

Expressing the important need for this new facility, Alex Beene, Lead Instructor for the Tennessee Adult Education Center, reviewed the success stories of their GED/Hi-set program out of the old library and couldn't contain his excitement for the successes to come with the expansion of more computers and a big-ger classroom in the new facility.

He spoke on the magnitude of Ms. Wanza Taylor within her community and said, "I just don't know where this library, this community, or myself would be without her". Grand Junction Library Director Wanza Taylor fought back tears as she thanked the "Friends of the Library", Alex Beene, Curtis Lane, and everyone who had a hand in seeing this dream become a reality.

The Grand Junction "Friends of the Library" presented Ms. Taylor with a plaque of appreciation for all her efforts to make this library possible and within the community to help children learn to read no matter the means necessary. An amazing cake made to look like the book, "The Neverending Story", punch, and other finger foods were available to patrons to wrap up the afternoon with a snack while they sat and enjoyed a book.

YEAR IN REVIEW

to pay $500 each.

December 14- The Bolivar City Council voted 6-2 to revise the Bolivar Municipal Code in regards to package stores in the city. The vote took place during the regularly scheduled meeting on December 18 in the Bolivar Municipal Courtroom. The first reading passed 5-2 with one abstaining (Tommy Woods) on November 13. Voting in favor of the change were city council members Melvin Golden, Larry McKinnie, Tracy Byrum, Jonathan Joy, Tommy Woods, and Page Walley. The successful vote was to remove any reference to the DevCo zone from the liquor ordinance, which established guidelines for liquor stores in Bolivar in June of 2015, and limited liquor stores to spots within the "footprint" of the Bolivar Downtown Development Corporation. The passage on the second reading included a public hearing where citizens were allowed to voice their concerns. After the public hearing closed, Melvin Golden made a motion to approve the new ordinance, seconded by Larry McKinnie. Against the change on both the initial reading and the final vote were Todd Lowe and Suzanne Rhea. The legality of package stores in Bolivar was passed by a referendum of the voters (71%-29%) in May of 2015, and the subsequent ordinance limited the area in which a store could be located to the Bolivar Downtown Development Zone (DevCo). Of the current council members, only Lowe and Rhea voted for the ordinance on the second reading in 2015.

In late December of 2016, Bolivar businesswoman Maria Howell filed a lawsuit against the City of Bolivar, asking that the 25th Judicial District overturn the denial of Howell's application to open a package store in the city. In the petition filed by Shari Danielle Elks of the Elks Law Firm in Burns, Tennessee, Howell (Top Shelf) asked for the petition to open a package store be approved and for all attorney fees and discretionary costs associated be awarded as well. The 22-page document outlined Mrs. Howell's requests to have her application approved and alleged that councilperson Suzanne Rhea "improperly participated in the discussion of and voted on Plaintiff's application without properly recusing herself based on a conflict of interest in violation of the Bolivar Municipal Code 1-603 directly affecting the outcome of the Defendant's vote." Named in the suit were the city of Bolivar, all eight Bolivar City Councilmembers and former Bolivar Mayor Barrett Stevens. December 14- A ground breaking celebration for a new shooting range and education facility was embraced at Lone Oaks Farm on December 7. Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain, commissioners of the TWRA, Director Ed Carter, TN State Representatives Johnny Shaw and Ron Gant, along with numerous other city and county leaders to see for themselves these first steps in the construction of the facility designed by Marty Fisher.

December 21- After more than a few months of hoping, Hardeman County and Chemring Countermeasures USA (Kilgore) announced the world leader in design, development and manufacture of countermeasures and countermeasure suites will remain in Toone. At a ceremony on December 13 at the Hardeman County Courthouse, County Mayor Jimmy Sain told some of the story. "With the successes of Kilgore, growth is requiring the need for new technology, new facilities and additional employees," Sain began in his address.

"The Chemring Board of Directors decided approximately twelve months ago to hire InSight Consulting to make a recommendation on moving forward. This process has required a lot of hard work on behalf of a lot of people, not to mention 12 other states that wanted Kilgore to replant on their soil. Moving forward with the recommendations of InSight, and with the great help from Governor Haslam, Commissioner Rolfe and the Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development, this week, construction trailers have moved on site in Toone." "We look forward to the ground-breaking ceremony in early spring." Photo by Jessica Simmons

HOOT: TRADITIONS

Christmas Day, I would go duck hunting. When or if I killed one duck, I'd head to the house.

This Christmas I was seeing several ducks so, I decided to hang in there. By 10:00 I needed one duck to get my six duck limit. Around 11:00 a single GREENHEAD (drake mallard) saw my decoys and he seemed to be interested. Minutes later I was packing up my stuff, I had limited out. The next day (Tuesday) had seven or eight hunters in the blind. Got one wood duck. Conditions were perfect. Guess that's hunting??

Inting?? The river is flooded right now,

should be seeing ducks::: we'll see! As always:: SAFETY
