From the Other Side of the Desk

A long time ago in a land far away...

The first Christmas gift Gracie opened was a doctor's kit. It had a white box and all kinds of stuff, stethoscope, band-aids, etc.

John thought that looked like fun and that is what Christmas Eve became...a brawl between a relentless, determined 10-month old and what eventually became a wailing, defeated 3-year old.

No matter where Grace went with this thing, John followed. He crawled, he scooted along the furniture, he grabbed and he pulled. It was like he had four hands, snatching and throwing. There were too many things in the kit for her to keep track of all at once.

We opened other gifts for John, but he wasn't interested at all. He wouldn't even look at them.

Grace tried to open other gifts, only to have to run back and try to collect her stuff back from John. He screamed and cried. She screamed and cried.

After about 15 minutes, Gracie gave up and sobbed uncontrollably in my arms. All was lost. The assault of the 20-pound boy was complete.

Holli got a pair of shoes. I got snot on my sleeve.

It was the best Christmas yet.

Of course, Christmas is a lot different now, better in some respects, but I'll never forget that one.

It's Beginning to Look A Lot Like...

The City of Bolivar kicked off their Christmas season on December 2 with their celebration of the season through Bolivar, the first of three parades in Hardeman County.

Whiteville will host their annual parade on December 7 beginning at 7:00 p.m., with a ribbon cutting for their new city hall to follow.

The Middleton Christmas Parade is scheduled for December 14.

The Grand Junction Annual Tree Lighting Party will be December 7 with refreshments, carols, and kid's activities.

Councilman Joy Charged in Fayette Co.

Bolivar City Councilman Jonathan Joy faces allegations of Home Improvement Services Fraud and Theft of Property from $10,000-$60,000 in Fayette County.

Joy, who operates a heating and air conditioning business based in Bolivar, was released on a $25,000 bond at 12:30 p.m. on December 3. His intake time was listed as 9:30 a.m., according to the Fayette County Sheriff's Department.

Joy was indicted by the Grand Jury during the November Term 2019 on a charge of allegedly "delivering or installing a two ton HVAC unit while charging Millard Buruss of Arlington, TN, for three and four ton HVAC units as quoted in the contract, in violation of T.C.A. 39-14-154, against the peace and dignity of the State of Tennessee."

In the second count, Joy is said to "unlawfully, feloniously, and knowingly obtain or exercise control over property belonging to Millard Buruss and First Citizens Bank, to wit: U.S. currency and funds valued at an amount between $10,000 and $60,000, without the effective consent of Millard Buruss and First Citizens Bank with the intent to deprive Millard Buruss and First Citizens Bank thereof, in violation of T.C.A. 39-14-103, against the peace and dignity of the State of Tennessee."

Joy is alleged to have committed these offenses between December 1, 2018 and July 1, 2019.

The next step in the case was not available at press time.

Joy was elected to Bolivar City Council in 2017, defeating incumbent Willie McKinnie and Raven Taylor, winning 45% of the vote.

Whiteville Board Asks for Dispatch Quote

The plan to create a separate county dispatch stalled a bit on Monday, December 2, when the Whiteville Board of Aldermen declined to give approval to the plan, instead asking for a specific dollar amount before they vote to cost share with other municipalities in the county.

Currently, the costs for county dispatch are shared by the 911 District, the county, and the City of Bolivar. The plan put forth by Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain to the mayors in attendance at the November 25 meeting of the Hardeman County Joint Economic and Community Development Board meeting asked for Toone, Hickory Valley, Middleton, Grand Junction, Hornsby, and Whiteville to decide how to split up the rest, which is approximately $37,950 per year, to have the service county-wide.

"We need to pay something for the service," said Whiteville Mayor Aubrey Phillips. "But the aldermen want to know how much before they vote."

Central dispatch in Hardeman County was created in 2011 and the responsibility for such lies under the direction of Hardeman County Sheriff John Doolen. If an agreement is reached among the mayors, the 911 board, appointed by Sain and approved by the county commission, would be the responsible agency.

Sain said at the meeting that any municipality that does not wish to agree to pay would have to begin providing their own dispatch.

Bolivar Energy Authority

Your Local Energy Provider

To operate your space heater and fireplace efficiently and help keep down your heating bill, here's some advice:

Turn down the thermostat and use space heaters to warm only the rooms being used. If it is below 40 degrees outside, don't use your fireplace. When a fire is burning, lower the thermostat a few degrees. And always keep the damper closed when the fireplace isn't being used.

For more information on energy saving steps you can take, call Bolivar Energy Authority at 731-658-5257.

Incorporated in 1936, Bolivar Energy Authority serves Hardeman County and parts of Fayette, Chester, Madison, and Benton (MS) counties. The Bolivar Energy Authority covers 1,350 miles of line with an average of 8 customers per mile. The governing board meets the last Monday of each month.

Searching for Roots and Relatives in Hardeman County

Richard McAnulty of Florida is searching for his past, and he thinks it has ties to Hardeman County.

He writes:

"I'm seeking the real family of my Dad. His adopted name was Richard Budden McAnulty."

Apparently, it seems my dad was most likely a victim of Georgia Tann, who was a baby thief and child murderer of over 5,000 babies and small children from Memphis, TN through Hardeman County, TN from the 1920s to 1950s. I have exhausted, all of my other resources, to find my true family and everything leads back to Hardeman County."

When my older sister would ask about our dad, the only thing that was ever said was that he was adopted out of Hardeman County and that there are no records because the orphanage in Hardeman County burned down along with all the records and that was all that was ever said.

From my understanding, and the people I talked to there was never an orphanage in Hardeman County in the early 1920s.

I strongly believe that I am a Stewart / Stuart in my DNA I carry a very distinct genetic trait marker. The S781 which is a genetic marker that is only in the Stewart / Stuart DNA.

My dad was born approximately March 1, 1930, at least on the census record that was what was said. His birth could be a little earlier or later. He was approximately 5'9", weighed about 160, and had an extremely high IQ. My dad was possibly the offspring of a Stewart / Stuart and Lewis marriage or a direct descendant of a Lewis because my DNA directly connects me to the Lewis line specifically to:

William Terrell Lewis 1718 -1802 from New Kent County, VA and died in Davidson County, TN
Sarah (Martin) Lewis 1720 - 1793 from Amherst County VA and died Brushy Mountain, NC

My dad was adopted by William David McAnulty and Elma Forrestine Jones from Bolivar, in the early 1930s.

In short, if my dad looks your great grandparents or grandparents and they had a child that was supposedly born stillborn, died directly after birth, lost, kidnapped or taken out of a home in the late 1920s I might actually be your lost family member. Please contact me.

Mr. McAlpin was a member of Hebron Baptist Church.

CHUCK WHITE AUGUST 3, 1937 - DECEMBER 2, 2019

Chuck White of Middleton, Tennessee passed away peacefully on December 2, 2019. Chuck was born on August 3, 1937 in Toone Tennessee. Both of Chuck's parents, his mother Nancy Jane White and his father William Carroll "Jack" White have passed on. Chuck is survived by four of his six siblings, Sheila Arnold of Jackson, TN / Tony White of Myrtle, MS / Jim White of Middleton, TN and Neil White of Saulsbery, TN. Chuck was preceded in death by his two brothers, Bobby White and Bill White.

Chuck's first marriage to Levon Smith lasted nine and a half years, and produced three children who he loved dearly: Marvin White and wife Mary Jane of Bolivar / Sheila Ward and husband Randy of Memphis, and Sherry Pennington and husband Scott of Wylie, Texas.

His second marriage to Mary Pearl Pace in 1969 lasted over 50 happy years. He became father to a whole brood of girls, all of whom loved him and will miss him every day. Starting with the eldest, they are Patricia Braddock and husband Curt of Byrdstown, TN / Linda Pickett and husband Randy of Wilmington, NC / Norma Fuller and husband Larry of Savannah, TN / Donna Pace of Abita Springs, LA / Rita Sears of Middleton, TN / Rebecca Miklancic and husband Daniel of Mt. Pleasant, SC and Mary Anne Goertz and husband Dustin of Bolivar, TN.

This group of diverse and loving children has given him a total of 14 grandkids, and 13 great grandkids and one great-great grandkid. It was his grandchildren which gave him hours of joy and happiness in his later years. They all have lost a loving 'Papaw' and caring mentor.

After attending Grand Junction High School, Chuck joined the US Army and served from 1957 until his honorable discharge as a Staff Sergeant E6 in 1968. During his time in the service, Chuck worked as a mechanic, repairing and maintaining various motorized vehicles. Chuck worked on about everything the Army had, but his specialty was tanks and other heavy fighting equipment. He served two tours of duty in Germany as a tank mechanic, finishing his service as Assistant Battalion Maintenance Sergeant in Fort Benning, Georgia.

After his discharge, Chuck worked doing backhoe and bulldozer work. Eventually he spent many years working at Callahan's garage in Middleton. He finished off his working career by following the bright lights of the movie industry. Chuck and Mary spent several years in Wilmington, NC working in the film industry. Chuck was the go-to-guy for repairing picture cars and keeping all of the equipment trucks running. Besides working on the epic "Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles", he also worked with Andy Griffith on "Matlock," Alan Alda on "Betsy's Wedding," and many other movie stars, both big and small.

For as hard as Chuck worked, he really had only three hobbies, fishing, hunting and helping people. Everyone has heard his fishing and hunting tales, some are more believable than others. But what he didn't brag about was all the time he spent helping relatives, neighbors, or complete strangers with car trouble. If you had a car problem no one else could fix, he would take on the challenge and find a solution. If your car broke down, and you had no money, he would still come out in the middle of the night and fix it. Sometimes he would eventually get paid, some times not. It didn't matter, he was there to help.

We need more people like Chuck. He was a loving husband, a good father, a steadfast soldier, an honest mechanic, an old fashion horse trader, a friend to all in need, and a so-so fisherman. Chuck White will be missed.

Services were held at the Shackelford Funeral home in Middleton, Tennessee on Thursday, December 5, 2019 at 1:00 p.m. Graveside services will follow immediately after at New Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery in Roger Springs.

Advent : Week 1

by Jeff Capshaw

The prayers of Paul were the topic for the last three columns and to which we may return, after the Christmas season. For this and the next three weeks' columns, however, the Gospel readings of the liturgical calendar will provide direction.

When this month's columns go to print, each Sunday of Advent will have passed. However, if readers desire a schedule to follow the liturgical calendar during this Advent season, then search for an online version (e.g.): "Revised Common Lectionary of the Vanderbilt Divinity Library."

As a reminder, "Advent is a season observed in many Christian churches as a time of expectant waiting and preparation for both the celebration of the Nativity of Jesus at Christmas and the return of Jesus at the Second Coming." The term Advent comes from the Latin word adventus, a translation of the Greek word parousia, referring to the Second Coming of Jesus (Wikipedia).

The Gospel reading for the First Sunday of Advent (December 1) was Matthew 24:36-44, and the theme is the Second Coming of Christ. Matthew quotes Jesus as saying, "but concerning that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father only. For as were the days of Noah, so will be the coming of the Son of Man" (vv. 36-37).

In addition to quashing date-setting for the return of Christ, this passage has led some to question Jesus' omniscience (all-knowing). However, Christ here refers to himself as the Son of God and above the angels. Somehow, then, in the mystery of the Trinity's internal dialogue, the timing of the Second Coming is the Father's prerogative.

The real point here is the element of surprise, thus the reference to the "days of Noah." People were going about their business: eating and drinking, marrying and so one, but "they were unaware until the flood came and swept them all away, so will be the coming of the Son of Man" (v. 39). Thus, at the Second Coming, some will be mindlessly going about their business, instead of staying awake in anticipation and readiness . . . "for you do not know on what day your Lord is coming" (v. 42).

Jesus further illustrates this lack of expectation and readiness for his Second Coming with a short parable. He said, "but know this, that if the master of the house had known in what part of the night the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have let his house be broken into" (v. 43).

Indeed, Christmas is about the Birth of Christ, his First Coming. However, God's plan for the complete redemption and renewing of all creation cannot be finalized, until Christ does return in a second time in His Glory. "Therefore, you also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect" (v. 44). That too is our blessed Hope during this Advent Season.

Sunrise: Grateful

by David Coy

Soren Kierkegaard told a parable of a wild Dove in the forest. The wild Dove lived near a farmer's house where some tamed Doves lived. Each day the wild Dove would go into the forest to gather food, one day met the tame Dove's and they shared how they cared for nothing as their every need was provided. The wild Dove never thought of itself as lacking until now. It had always thought of its needs being met in the forest. Now it was dissatisfied and discontent. One day it slipped into the barn thinking it could be cared for just like the tame Doves, never again needing to forage for food in the forest. The farmer noticed the new Dove the next morning and put the wild Dove in a box. The next day it was killed., free from all the anxieties and cares of life. Someone has said, "she who has forgotten the language of gratitude can never be on speaking terms with happiness."

Scientific research is discovering that being and expressing thankfulness has distinct, measurable and beneficial effects not only on our mood, but our hormone balance, the function of our nervous system, and even the quality of our digestion. We were meant to live with others as John Donne said, No man is an Island. When we lose a significant person in our life, someone highly esteemed, we may lose our compass. Lose sight of what we have been blessed with because we are overwhelmed by our loss. It is easy for all of us to think that our life will continue on as it always has. When sorrow comes it shakes our foundation and our belief of forever. It requires patience with ourselves to allow adjustment to our life's new reality. Endure and be thankful for the blessings past and present no matter the duration. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcures.com

Invest in Your Family and Community

Why do you invest? For many people, here's the answer: "I invest because I want to enjoy a comfortable retirement." And that's certainly a great reason, because all of us should regularly put money away for when we're retired. But you can also benefit by investing in your family and your community.

Let's start with your family members, particularly the younger ones. How can you invest in their future? One of the best ways is to help send them to college. A college degree is still a pretty good investment: The average lifetime earnings of a college graduate are nearly $1 million higher than those of someone with a high school degree, according to a study by the U.S. Census Bureau.

To help your children or grandchildren pay for any college, university, vocational school or other postsecondary education, you may want to open a 529 savings plan. With this account, withdrawals are federally tax free, as long as the money is used for qualified higher education expenses, including those from trade and vocational schools. (However, if you withdraw some of the earnings on your account, and you don't use the money for qualified expenses, it will be taxable and can also incur a 10% federal tax penalty.) Plus, you retain control of the funds until it's time for them to be used for school, so if your original beneficiary chooses not to pursue some type of higher education, you can name a different eligible beneficiary.

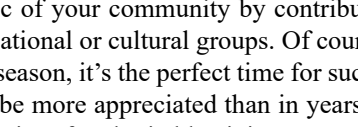

Another way to invest in your family is to help your adult children avoid feeling obligated to provide financial assistance to you. For example, if you ever required some type of long-term care, such as an extended stay in a nursing home, could you afford it? The average cost for a private room in a nursing home is more than $100,000 per year, according to a study by Genworth, an insurance company. And Medicare typically pays very few of these expenses. So, to avoid burdening your adult children – while also preserving your own financial independence – you may want to consider some type of long-term care insurance. A financial advisor can help you determine what coverage may be appropriate.

Moving beyond your family, you may want to invest in the social fabric of your community by contributing to local charitable, civic, educational or cultural groups. Of course, now that we're in the holiday season, it's the perfect time for such gifts. Furthermore, your gift will be more appreciated than in years past because one of the chief incentives for charitable giving – a tax deduction – was lost for many people due to tax law changes, which raised the standard deduction so significantly that far fewer people chose to itemize deductions. However, you might still be able to gain some tax benefits from your charitable gifts. To name one possibility, you could donate financial assets, such as stocks that have risen in value, freeing you of potential capital gains taxes. In any case, contact your tax advisor if you're considering sizable charitable gifts.

Saving for your retirement will always be important. But don't forget about investing in your family and your community – because these investments can provide satisfying returns.

Tiger Win Streak Broken by Hawks

Bolivar Central's three game win streak to open the 2019-2020 season came to an end on December 2, as Jackson South Side came to town and scored a hundred on the Tigers.

Winning 108-83, the Hawks took advantage of foul trouble for Jaquan Lax and Toris Woods, leading by 15 at the half and pulling away in the fourth quarter.

Senior guard Jeff Norment attempted to keep up with the Hawks scoring barrage, but his 33-point, 7-rebound, 4-assist effort (all team highs) came up short.

The next night, Norment had 25 to again lead the Tiger offense, but Bolivar fell 80-65 on the road against Dyer County in the rematch of the opening night Tiger win.

That Championship Season

This season, the Bolivar Bulletin Times will look back at ten years ago, following week by week the 2010 Bolivar Central Tigers State Championship season.

December 5, 2009 -- Bolivar traveled to Haywood and won 80-65. Ricky Tisdale scored 32 points to lead Bolivar as they pulled from a 28-26 halftime lead to a 57-43 lead after three quarters. Three other Tigers were in double figures, Jay Murphy with 15, Coleman with 12, and Keegan Fuller with 11. Harold Watson led Haywood with 22.

December 7, 2009 -- Memphis Hillcrest came to Bolivar and the Tigers won a game that was close until the fourth quarter, winning 68-59. Tisdale and Murphy shared high scoring honors with 20 each, and Keegan Fuller added 10. Bolivar was 5-1. The district would start next week.

Higgs Honored with Statewide Award

Lisa Higgs of Toone became the first from the Hardeman County Schools to receive the Tennessee Association of School Business Officials Distinguished Service Award when she was recognized by the body at the 2019 convention.

The TASBO Distinguished Service Award was added at the 1970 conference in Nashville. Commissioner J. Howard Warf received the first award, and it has been presented each year since. In 2010 the TASBO Distinguished Service Award was changed to the James D. McCullough Distinguished Service Award in honor of the first president of TASBO and the second recipient of the award.

Higgs was president of the association in 2017-2018.

Prayers needed for Mary Jane Rainey. She recently had a surgical procedure on her back. JoAnn Murley is recovering from pneumonia.

Remember Silerton residents are invited to help decorate the Holly Beshires Memorial Park for Christmas on Saturday, December 7. Hotdogs will be served. The town council invites you to come and enjoy the day by helping with decorations and spending time with your neighbors. Volunteers are also needed to help with the Christmas lights for our town.

A big shout out to Mike Alexander. He was awarded the Servant of the Month for November by the Lions Club of Henderson. Mike is a member of Silerton Baptist Church and demonstrates his servant spirit in the many responsibilities he assumes.

Silerton Baptist Church will be hosting a Christmas party on Saturday afternoon, December 14, at 5:30 p.m. Finger fare and party treats will be served. There will be a gift exchange so each lady should bring a gift suitable for a female and each man should bring a gift suitable for a male. There will be many games to play.

Piney Grove Baptist Church will have a Christmas musical program on December 22 at 11:00 for morning worship. During the night service, they will have a potluck meal and gift exchange.

Remember to call with news or your memories so we can stay connected.

Toone

Glenn Yarbrough
731-609-0939
gnyarb@bellsouth.net

Hello from Toone, where all Thanksgiving left-overs have been thrown out, the pumpkins have been busted, and the Black Friday shopping spree is over. It's time now for everyone to turn their full attention toward Christmas, although many of us have already decorated our houses and yards. Yes, I must admit that this year, I am guilty of being one of those "early decorators" who decided to get an early start on the busy holiday season. Everything looks very nice, but I have to admit, it felt a bit strange eating Thanksgiving dinner while looking at the fully decorated Christmas tree. Oh well, it's up now and everything is ready to go! Let the holiday season begin, Merry Christmas!!

The December meeting of the Toone Mayor and Board of Aldermen is scheduled for, Tuesday, December 10, at Toone City Hall. As always, the public is urged to attend these important town meetings.

The City of Bolivar officially kicked off the Christmas season with their annual Christmas parade. Everyone enjoyed a wonderful parade, and Santa stayed afterwards to greet the children at "Santa's Village" in the Square in Downtown Bolivar. It was a fun event for the entire family.

The Yarbrough Clan enjoyed our Thanksgiving feast and festivities here at the farm. We all gathered at my Sister, Mary's, house for the traditional holiday meal and fellowship. My favorite Thanksgiving treat was having my little Kentucky Family back home with us for the weekend. The grandkids and I had fun riding on the trails through the farm and going hunting. My granddaughter, Carson, went hunting with her Aunt Mary, and killed her first deer. West Fisher and I went squirrel hunting, but had no luck that morning. It was still fun being with them and the rest of the family. I cannot wait till Christmas when they will be back home again.

This is the big weekend at the Hardeman County Arts Center for one of the funniest Christmas shows around, The Sanders Family Christmas Smoke on the Mountain Part 2. As always, the cast is made up of local Hardeman County actors and musicians. Show-dates are, Friday & Saturday, December 6 & 7, at 7:00 p.m., and Sunday, December 8, at 2:00 p.m. Tickets are now available at the HCAC, or you can order online at: <http://www.heactn.org/>

I realize how popular online shopping has become, but I would like to encourage everyone who wants to avoid the cyber-hassles, as well as the long lines at the big box stores to check out our local merchants right here in Hardeman County. There are some amazing shops and businesses here that offer wonderful Christmas gifts that you can't find anywhere else. Shop local, and keep the money here in the county.

We would like for you to share your family's Holiday plans, along with your church, school, and other civic events with our readers by contacting me through the information listed at the head of this article. Until next time . . . talk to your neighbors!

Pictures ::::

I've heard it said: A picture speaks a 1,000 words. Had two special guest in the duckblind. Emma (young huntress) and her "cuz" Alyssa.

Although there wasn't many ducks taken (2), their duckblind manners was outstanding. And, those young eyes could spot ducks a long ways off! Today (Monday, December 2) is the last day of the four day Duck season opener, it'll re-open Saturday, December 7 (Pear Harbor Day). We did see a few ducks which gives us hope for the rest of the season. Hope everyone had a Safe/Great Thanksgiving::: As Always, SAFETY FIRST::: HOOT
