ONE DOLLAR

From the Other Side of the Desk

Note: This week's column isn't very good. It's all about a personal beef that I have with the way some things are and it has nothing to do with the Oakland Speed Trap they've got over there for out of county people. So, skip it or just realize I'm wasting your time and I'll try to have something worth reading for next week. Go on and read it if you must, but don't say I didn't warn you.

Over the years, I heard people try to get right down to the "heart of the matter," i.e. "cut to the chase," "get down to brass tacks," "fish or cut bait," or even, "just get on with it," when they wanted to know the real story and they aren't interested in a bunch of delay and just explaining nothing over and over again just for the sake of drawing it out and making it longer. Kind of like this column so far.

But here's my point. Yes, finally. I've also heard people asking for "the bottom line."

But apparently, it's getting popular to use the bottom line for something other than the bottom line.

Here in Tennessee, we read left to right and top to bottom, but if you are sending bills out to people, maybe you aren't.

In fact, the "bottom line" or the farthest right in the case of a horizontal listing is often the amount you pay if you are including the late fee. Well, thanks, but can't we just wait until I'm late before I add some more money to my total?

And me, being an American, have been just paying the "bottom line" and I'm just wondering who thought of this.

Two Weeks for the Tax of None

The first tax-free holiday weekend focuses on clothing and other back-to-school items. It begins at 12:01 a.m. on Friday, July 31 and ends Sunday, August 2 at 11:59 p.m. During this time, clothing, school supplies, and computers

Early Voting Encouraged Statewide

EARLY VOTING

106 S. Porter St * Bolivar

Early voting for the Tennessee State and Federal Primary and County General Election begins Friday, July 17, and runs Monday to Saturday until Saturday, August 1. Election Day is Thursday, August 6.

In Hardeman County, early voting will take place at the Hardeman County Election Commission Office at 106 S. Porter Street in Bolivar.

"The safety of voters and poll officials are our top priority," said Secretary of State Tre Hargett. "With social distancing measures and many other safety precautions in place for this election, I urge voters to take advantage of Tennessee's generous early voting period."

Early voting provides Tennesseans the opportunity to avoid Election Day crowds and can shorten your wait time. Early voting also offers the flexibility of evenings and Saturdays along with multiple polling locations in many counties.

FAITH

Jesus on Anxiety by Jeff Capshaw

According to the Anxiety and Depression Association of America (adaa.org), "anxiety disorders are the most common mental illness in the U.S., affecting 40 million adults in the United States age 18 and older, or 18.1% of the population every year."

There are underlying psychological, physical, or even chemical causes for anxiety. But these may not always be the root cause. Sometimes the root cause is spiritual or attitudinal. One thing is for certain. Looking at things from a different perspective can help. Listen to the words of Jesus.

"Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? Therefore do not be anxious, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all" (Matthew 6:25-32).

First, don't worry about things you should not worry about, such as food and clothing. The point is learning to trust God for the simplest necessities. God provides food for birds and clothes for flowers (6:26-30). And Jesus says that human lives are much more "valuable than these" (v. 26).

Secondly, don't worry about the things you cannot control. Being revved-up about little things or the things beyond our control is futility. When we find this true of ourselves, then we immediately know the source of the problem; we have "little faith" (v. 30). We are acting like unbelievers (the Gentiles) who trust in their own abilities or blind fate instead of trusting God. Rather than worrying, try to "seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you (v. 33). That is a promise from God.

Finally, think about it this way. Worrying about the future is, as a friend of mine puts it, "pre-suffering." Try honestly trusting in the Lord and His promises for today. "Therefore, do not be anxious about tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble" (6:34).

Carpe Diem by David Coy

We have all probably heard the phrase identified above. A Latin term, it originally came from book 1 of the Roman poet Horace's work, Odes. It usually is seen to mean 'seize the day.' How can we apply this to our journey with grief? So often we become so immersed in our sorrow because we are in shock and on top of that we are struggling with brain fog. So, we have difficulty focusing on one task at a time. Yet, it must be our goal to build anew our life in absence of our missed loved one to heal and taking one day at a time caring for each day's responsibilities. Mahatma Gandhi said it this way, "Live as if you were to die tomorrow. Learn as if you were to live forever." Good advice, and here are a few others worth trying to help further our healing and growth.

For some people it is helpful to write in a journal. If this is you then find a quiet time when you can log your day's feelings and experiences. Maintain an orderly regulated schedule each day and this will help relieve stress. Include in this routine sufficient sleep which helps restore mind and body. Share your journey with someone who is willing to walk with you. Struggles shared are lighter. Be willing to accept the new reality life has thrust upon you and make the most of every new day you are blessed with. Everyone still has a purpose to fulfill (one person told me they did not see what purpose they had after their loved one died). Take a good walk daily if possible. It can help to clear one's head as well as increase serotonin and dopamine levels which help to maintain healthy mood levels. Release intense emotions such as anger in a healthy productive manner. Avoid the use of drugs for a temporary relief, but bring misery in the long term. Make the most of the day! This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcures.com

PAMELA GAIL MATHIS FEBRUARY 7, 1954 – JULY 10, 2020

Ms. Pamela Gail Mathis, age 66, of Pocahontas and Selmer, TN, Pamela passed away at 1:45 p.m. on July 10, 2020, at Alive Hospice Residence in Nashville, TN.

Born on February 7th, 1954, in Norfolk, Virginia, Pam was the daughter of the late James Horace Mathis and the late Sadie Lou Ingle Mathis. An Army brat, she and her family lived in many places prior to moving to Pocahontas, TN, where she lived the majority of her life prior to moving to Selmer, TN. She attended Middleton High School. She worked for many years alongside her parents at Mathis Grocery and Restaurant in Middleton, TN. She worked at other restaurants throughout the years. Pam had a big heart and enjoyed talking to anyone she met. Pam smiled at everyone she passed in life. Her heart was open and loving to everyone. More than anything, she loved her family. She especially loved all of her grandchildren. Her grandchildren and their friends loved her and affectionately called her PamPam. She soon was known to all - children and adults alike as PamPam. She shared her birthday with her grandson Riley and this held a very special place in her heart. She was a Christian and a member of Pocahontas Baptist Church.

She is survived by her significant other John Babcock; her loving daughter, Christy Cherkesky and her husband Itay of Franklin, TN, and her beloved son Jerry Wayne Sims of Providence, Rhode Island, her previous daughter-in-law Robin Sims. PamPam is survived by her grandchildren: Hallie McKinnie of Franklin, TN, Andrew Sims & Riley Sims of Lincoln, Rhode Island, Aden Cherkesky & Kelly Anne Cherkesky of Franklin, TN. She is survived by her sisters: Wanda (Landon) Mathis Shearon and Merrie (Ray) Mathis Jones, her Aunt Bonnie Vaughn, Uncle Wendell (Martha) Ingle, Aunt Faye Mathis-Saucier, & Louise Frazer; her niece Stacie Shearon and nephews: Billy Wilkerson, Bryan McQueen, Chad McQueen, Matt Shearon; and several great nephews and many wonderful friends.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, July 11, in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church in Pocahontas, TN. The family received visitors from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. with a memorial service immediately following, with Brother Steve McKee officiating. Heritage Funeral Home is assisting the family with arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to either First Baptist Church of Pocahontas, TN, or Alive Hospice in Nashville, TN, or the American Cancer Society.

The family would like to express a special thanks to the many home health providers that cared and loved Pam during her illness. You may share condolences with the family at the Heritage Funeral Home website: www.TnFunerals.com.

Protect Yourself Against Financial Scammers

It's unfortunate, but true: During this period of economic uncertainty, one of the busiest "industries" has been financial scamming. But it goes on even during normal times, too, so you'll want to know what to look for, and how to defend yourself.

For starters, just how widespread is financial fraud? Consider this: In 2019, more than 3.2 million fraud cases were reported to the Federal Trade Commission, with identity theft being the most common type of fraud, accounting for about one-fifth of the overall cases. And fraudulent new accounts (mortgages, student loans, car loans and credit cards) amounted to about $3.4 billion in 2018, according to a study by Javelin Strategy & Research.

To help yourself from being victimized, consider the following suggestions. They are certainly not an exhaustive list, but they should prove useful.

Watch out for unsecure websites. Make sure a website is secure before entering any payment or personal information. Look for sites that start with HTTPS, rather than those with just HTTP, which are not secure and can be hacked. But even a site with HTTPS can still be used by scammers, so, if you don't recognize the name of the company or group that's requesting your information, do some research to make sure it's legitimate.

Review your credit reports. As mentioned above, the fraudulent opening of new accounts is a big source of financial scams. To be sure nobody has opened new accounts under your name, try to review your credit reports at least once a year. You can get them for free at AnnualCreditReport.com.

Follow up on fraud. If you've already been victimized by having new accounts opened in your name, contact one of the three major credit reporting agencies (Experian, Equifax or TransUnion) and place a 90-day fraud alert on your credit file. You might also want to file a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission, print it out and file it with your local law enforcement agency. And it's also a good idea to contact the fraud department of the financial companies where the thief has opened a fraudulent account in your name.

Be alert for suspicious links. "Phishers" have gotten quite good at sending out messages that look like they're from reputable businesses. But if you examine these messages carefully, you can usually determine if there's something off about them. For example, no legitimate business will tell you, via this type of message, that you have to "correct your account" by providing additional information. And if you do hit the link provided, and it takes you to a third-party site, you can be pretty sure it's bogus.

Resist "act now" offers. If you get an offer, via phone or online, urging you to "act immediately" on an investment opportunity, discontinue the communication. No reputable financial advisor will ever try to force you to take such swift action, and if an investment is legitimate, it will be available tomorrow, next week and next year.

Use your shredder. You probably have the option to "go paperless" with all your banks and financial services providers, but, if you still do receive paper documents, be sure to shred them when they're no longer needed.

You save and invest for years to help achieve your long-term goals. Don't let any of your efforts be undone by financial fraudsters.

Early Voting Encouraged Statewide continued from A1

During early voting and on Election Day, Tennesseans are encouraged to do their part. This includes wearing a face covering and maintaining a six-foot distance from poll officials and other voters. Voters should expect to see signs with further safety instructions at their polling locations. All poll officials will be wearing face coverings and will be trained on social distancing measures.

"County election commissions have been planning for a safe and secure election for months," said Coordinator of Elections Mark Goins. As part of our commitment to safety, the state is providing masks, social distancing resources, gloves, gowns and face shields for poll officials."

Tennesseans can find early voting and Election Day polling locations, view and mark sample ballots and much more with the GoVoteTN app or online at GoVoteTN.com. You can download the GoVoteTN app for free in the App Store or Google Play. Reviewing your sample ballot and deciding how you will vote will reduce your time at the polls.

Voters who have moved within the county or have had a name change since the last time they voted can update their registration online at GoVoteTN.com. By making sure your registration is up to date, you can shorten the time you will need to spend at your polling location.

Tennesseans voting early or on Election Day should remember to bring valid photo identification with them to the polls. A driver's license or photo ID issued by the Tennessee Department of Safety and Homeland Security, by Tennessee state government or by the federal government are acceptable even if they are expired. College student IDs are not acceptable.

Photo: Tennessee Secretary of State Tre Hargett is expected to visit the Hardeman County Election Commission Offices for the first day of early voting. Hargett visited Hardeman County in October of 2019, as part of a program to help Hardeman County Libraries.

The Silerton City Park continues to gain momentum for its upcoming enhancements. The play structures have been ordered and the split rail fence will be installed soon. Mayor Beshires shared the play structures will include a swing set as well as a playground spinner that multiple children can enjoy. In addition, following the grant funded purchase of the adjacent lot, Hardeman County has agreed to clear the land and remove the debris free of charge.

Mary Lynn Lambert shared with us some July 4th holiday celebrations. She writes, "David and Winna Cupples were busy over the holiday. On Friday, July 3, they entertained the extended Lambert family. The food was delicious and spending quality time with family was great. On Saturday, July 4, they once again entertained with another great BBQ with their children and grandchildren. Walter and Brenda Cooper served up a great BBQ with all the sides on Sunday, July 5. Grady and Carolyn Stack, Frankie and I certainly enjoyed the food and our time with them."

In case you missed Debbie Dillard's birthday, on Saturday, July 4, it's not too late to wish her a Happy Birthday.

Our annual Silerton firework show was cancelled this year due to the pandemic. Otto and I took the opportunity to visit my family in Knoxville, Tennessee. As a child, my family traditionally celebrated the 4th of July in Norris, Tennessee with my grandparents. Norris also hosts a firework festival each year. We would order BBQ from the Lion's Club and eat on it all day. The dog show and the quilt show were some of our favorite events. One year our dachshund Cobalt won "most handsome" in the dog show. The Norris Festival was cancelled as well, but we still enjoyed visiting with the family and getting to see neighboring fireworks from lawn chairs at my parent's home. Last year, my son Otto was too young to really appreciate fireworks. This year, he seemed a little apprehensive when he heard the first boom; but when he got a glimpse of the colors bursting in the sky, he decided they were actually quite amazing. We look forward to resuming our annual firework show next year and getting to introduce Otto to his hometown traditions.

Hello from the hot, humid Town of Toone, where that hot, dry weather most of us were wishing for back in the winter is here! I suppose it's only human nature to always want what we don't have. It seems that toward the end of each summer, we all begin asking for the cooler temps that we enjoy in the fall, then as winter arrives with it's frigid and blustery days, we begin to dream once again of summer. Let's all enjoy these summer days along with all of the activities that go along with them. There will be plenty of time later in the year to cool down!!

From what I hear and what I see as I drive around, it looks like everyone's gardens are at the height of production. Local gardeners are beginning to show off their tomatoes, squash, peppers and other garden vegetables. If you've grown any prize-winning produce, send me the information, and we will share it with your neighbors.

Toone Elementary School is set to re-open and begin the 2020-2021 school year, Friday, August 7, with the Kindergarten kids starting that day, and the higher grades being staggered over the following week. For all information on TES and other county schools, visit the Hardeman County School System website, or their Facebook page.

Please keep, our good friend and long-time Cloverport neighbor, Mitt Klaunch, in your thoughts and prayers as he battles his terrible illness. For many years, Mitt has helped us all so much at the Toone trash collection center. I miss his friendly greetings and funny stories. We all wish you the very best, Mitt.

Happy belated Birthday to our good friend and neighbor, Miss Bernice Cobb Finley, who celebrated her big day on, July 12. I wonder is Miss Bernice will send me a photo of the birthday cake that her husband, Ham Finley, baked for her. Please join me in wishing another belated Happy Birthday to, Mason Sowder, who celebrated his seventh birthday, July 7. Mason has grown into quite a little man. His interest include hunting and fishing with his Dad, riding the inner-tube at the river, and riding his 4-wheeler around the Hooper farm. Mason's parents are, Blake & Natalie Hooper-Sowder, of Toone.

Until next time. . . talk to your neighbors!

Hello to all! I pray everyone is doing well. Hornsby Baptist is back to having Sunday school we are still being cautious, and we want you to feel comfortable when you come to worship. Please be in prayer for the Hornsby Baptist Church Youth who are on a retreat trip this week. The new app for the church is really a great tool please download it for some wonderful devotions and to keep up with what is going on with the church. VBS is scheduled for July 31st through August 1st. If you would like to help in any way reach out to Jennifer Aylor, I know she will appreciate it. Bible school is a wonderful thing, children seem to always remember the things they learn when they attend. This year's theme is "Jesus: Our Strong Foundation", I don't know of any words that are truer than this, so I am looking forward to the study.

The committee that is working on the 100 year celebration met this week and is working hard to make this a great celebration. If you have any ideas you think would be fun to do, please reach out to Becky Stanton. Please mark your calendar to make plans to attend, a lot of great things are going to be happening on October 17 in our little town. We will soon have a Facebook page to inform you of some of the activities that you can share also. We want this to be a great event and hope that lots of folks who grew up here will come back home to enjoy a day of celebrating the town.

Prayer is a powerful thing and I know there are a lot of wonderful folks who are happy to pray for you or someone you know. If you have a prayer request please let us know. Please continue to lift the following people up in your prayers: Lynn Allen, Joe Anderson, Mimi Anderson, Hugholene Barnes, Ricky Bass, Diane Cross, Sue Day, Norma Emerson, Rich Emerson, Robert Gibson, Crystal Grantham, Thomas Green, Sue Hall, James Hanna, Marilyn Hanna, Willie Lou Hannis, Richard Hazelwood, Justin Hodge, Sue Hodge, Willis Hornsby, Jo Edna Howell, Charley Johnson, Ann Kelly, Aubrey King, Lucy King, Debbie Laster, Bobbie McBride, Betty McMahan, Orville McMahan, Margie Moore, Carolyn Morgan, Evan Nield, Joyce Overton, Gay Pierce, Gail Pope, Scarlett Sipes, Stacy Spence, Ronna Spoon, Susan Thompson, Martyn Venuti, Tommy Warner, Chasity Watkins, Eddie Webb, Joe West, Jennifer Wheeler, Piper Williams, the men and women who serve our country, the families of the ones who are fighting cancer, all the health care workers, the leaders of our country and especially the ones who are lost.

His Word for the week: Psalm 34: 17-19 "The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. The Lord is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but the Lord delivereth him out of them all. Fact or Fiction:::

First off please understand this article is My Opinion. I have no doubt that there's a 100 lb plus yellow cat (flathead) hanging out somewhere in the Hatchie River.

The 73 1/2 lb Larry Joe and I caught last year puts that clearly in my mind. I had my hand in Slicks mouth and with out knowing his/her weight was bigger. As everyone that knows me, I've been on a crusade for Slick ever since. Giving just a "in the ballpark" guess, I'd say Slick was and still is a 100 pounder. I watched three very short video clips of this 266 lb catfish. Not one time did his gills or tail move. Where and how was it weighed?? The photo says "May" was the month it was caught. It's the middle of July right now! I was sent that photo yesterday (Sunday). In the comment section there were several questions about "Where" it was caught, no reply! I'm just saying, I'd need a few more details, one being certified scales and where it was weighed. Like the endless quest for Slick, I guess Big Foot (Sasquatch) is real! As always SAFETY FIRST::: HOOT

BPD Starts Dive Team

The City of Bolivar announced that it has taken the first steps to create and certify an emergency response dive team. Current members of the team include Bolivar Police Department Officers Chris Wilkerson, Cris McKinney, and Nellie Munoz, and Bolivar Fire Department Engineer Rory White.

The four-person team completed the first phase of their training during the week of July 12, 2020, to become certified open water divers. The team is being trained through The Dive Shop in Memphis led by Fayette County EMA Director and ERDI Instructor Hunter Winfrey. They will continue their training in the coming months with the ultimate goal of becoming certified public safety divers.

“The decision to create and certify a dive team came as a result of the opening of Sand Beach Lake last year. As we move toward the continued construction of the park and begin to add attractions, we felt that it was prudent to ensure that we had a rapid response dive team in case of a water emergency,” said Mayor Julian McTizic. The team is working collaboratively with the Hardeman County Rescue Squad to ensure that we have the necessary resources to respond to emergency situations on our waterways.”

Adoptable Animal of the Week by Sara Vonderheide

Paisley (#20241) is a female Blue heeler. She is about two years old and weighs a little more than 30 pounds. Sadly, Paisley is heart worm positive and will need treatment. She and her pup (we think) were found roaming in the county. A family has cared for them and nobody has claimed them. Now it is time to find their forever home. This is the sweetest and calm girl who will make a great companion! Check out her presumed son, Bushman too. These pups deserve a loving and stable home! Contact us for more information (text is preferred) Charla Cooper at 731-234-4421 or Jennifer Smallwood at 731-609-0408. You can check out our Facebook page, Hardeman Adoptable Animals, Inc. You can also come to the shelter. We are located inside the county landfill (Walton Road), and volunteers are there between 9-1 each day. HAA, Inc. is a 501©3 not-for-profit organization. Adoption fees are $125, and this includes all vaccines, spay/neuter, and care while at the shelter. HAA is still currently closed to the public due to COVID-19. Please consider making a donation to HAA or donating your time to help us care for the dogs. We operate solely on donations and fundraising. The shelter is run by volunteers and has no paid staff. If you would like to donate to the shelter’s general fund, sponsor a specific dog’s adoption fee or vet bills, building fund, or send a memorial or honorarium, please mail a check to HAA, Inc., PO Box 513, Bolivar, TN 38008. Tales from the Yellow House by Lee McAlpin

With temperatures hovering near 100 degrees the past few days, I am amazed at how we survived temps like these at the Yellow House. No refrigerator, no AC, no fans other than the kind that businesses like Shelly's Hardware, Bank Of Middleton and Shackelfords Funeral Home gave out. One of our Aunts, (who had plenty as we used to say), came for a visit, she had one of them fancy fold-out accordian-type fans with all the colored flowers on it. I remember that Mom folded her one out of colored paper one time.

Mom seldom ever fired up the wood cookstove in the afternoon hours in the summer. She would cook the daily meals in the early morning hours before it got so hot. Whatever we had for lunch, we knew we would have the same thing for supper. After our noon meal, Mom would cover the bowls on the table with a white table cloth. She didn't have to warm it up at supertime, for it was already warm. Nothing seemed to spoil. We never got food poisoning.

I read something interesting lately about food items. It said that you do not have to refrigerate mayonnaise. The Ph balance is such that it is impossible for bacteria to grow in it. I guess that the Ph balance was such in Mom's cooking.

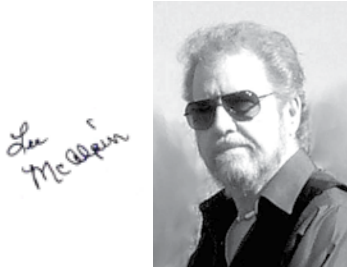

When we did have milk in hot weather, Mom would put the jug in the well bucket and lower it into the water in the well at night. This kept the milk from clabbering.

On really hot days, if you walked out near the railroad tracks, you could see what we called Heat Devils dancing above the tracks. It was hot air movement that you could see above the rails. I've seen a few of these while hoeing cotton on a hot day.

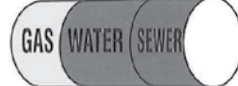

We spent most of the hot days and early evening hours on the front porch. Mom would have a fan in one hand and a fly swatter in the other. She made the fly swatters out of screen-wire and sewed cloth around the edges and attached it to a section of cane. We would stay on the front porch until the sun went down and it cooled down some in the house.

At night, all the windows were raised and all the doors left open. We had screen doors and screens on the windows. Our doors were never locked or latched at night. Even on rare occasions when we went for an overnight stay our doors were not locked. It sure was nice when a cool southern breeze blew through the windows at night.

At that time, we had never heard of the Walton family, but after the coal-oil lamps were blown out and everyone was settled in bed, all of us kids would tell each member of the family goodnight. Just some happy hot memories of the Yellow House.

- 2 Natural gas is a very safe and efficient source of energy.
- 3 If you ever smell gas and think that you may have a leak, DO NOT operate any light switches, or create any open flame, please leave the area immediately, and call the Bolivar Utility Department during regular business hours at 731-658-5894 Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m., if after hours, dial 911.
- 4 If you hear a hissing sound or dust/dirt blowing up from the ground, leave the area, and call Bolivar Utility Department or dial 911 after hours.
- 5 If you ever have the need to dig in your yard or property, call Tennessee One Call System at 811 and we will be notified to mark gas pipelines that is the property of the Bolivar Utility Department.

Perry Named TSWA Player of the Year

Former Middleton Lady Tigers and University of Tennessee at Martin women's basketball standout Chelsey Perry garnered yet another postseason recognition by being named the Tennessee Sports Writers Association Women's Basketball Player of the Year, as announced this week by the organization.

Perry adds this prestigious honor to her already loaded trophy case which includes WBCA Coaches' All-American honors along with claiming the Ohio Valley Conference Player of the Year Award and UT Martin Bettye Giles Female Athlete of the Year Award. The All-OVC first team selection also served as a finalist for the Beck Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Award while claiming a league-record eight OVC Player of the Week honors.

Perry burst onto the national stage with a record-setting junior campaign. Perry scored 740 points on the season to rank second in the NCAA (all Divisions) and first amongst all collegiate scorers in the State of Tennessee. She ranked first nationally in field goals made (286), second in total points (740) and third in both points per game (23.1) and field goal attempts (386). She also finished 11th nationally in blocks (86) and 17th in blocks per game (2.69).

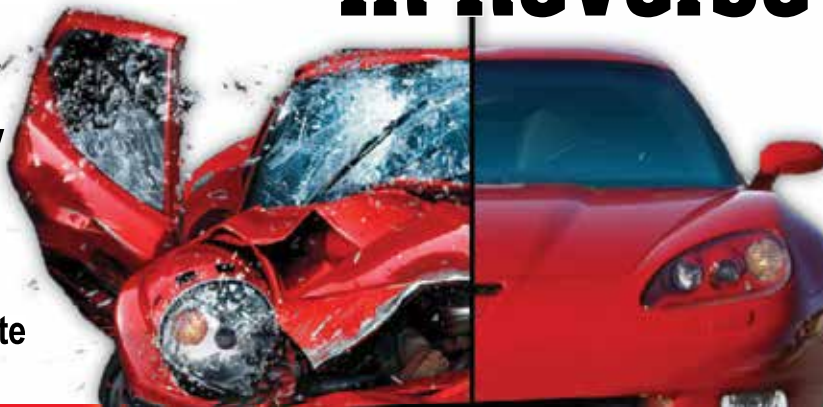

Perry scored in double figures in the final 30 games of the season while posting 20 games with at least 20 points and nine games of 30 points or more. Her best game came against in-state foe Lipscomb where she scored a career-high 42 points which tied for the sixth-most points in the NCAA this season and marked an OVC season single-game high.

Other highlights from the year include joining the 1,000-point club against Austin Peay while tying the program record with eight blocks against IUPUI. She also posted six double-doubles while scoring 479 points in OVC to mark the most points scored in league play over the last 20 seasons en route to a league championship.

Bolivar Rotary Gives to Carl Perkins

The Bolivar Rotary Club donated $300 to The Carl Perkins Center. Rotarian, Carly Weems receives check from President, Stacey Swift on behalf of The Carl Perkins Center.

The mission of the Carl Perkins Center is to provide support to families in preventing and dealing with child abuse in West Tennessee and to help both parents and children meet the practical needs of preserving and improving the quality of family life.

The Exchange Club-Carl Perkins Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse opened its doors in October 1981. The Center was the first Child Abuse Prevention Center in the state of Tennessee and the fourth in the Nation. It is now one of the largest of its kind. Last year, the Center helped 16,809 individuals in West Tennessee, serving all counties outside of Shelby.

The mission of the Center is to provide support to families in preventing and dealing with child abuse in West Tennessee and to help both parents and children meet the practical needs of preserving and improving the quality of family life. Many services are provided by the Center such as forensic interviews, group and individual counseling, emergency services, 24 hour hotline services, therapeutic visitation, relative caregiver support services, child advocacy services and community education programs. The Center works collaboratively with law enforcement, district attorney offices, juvenile court systems, the department of children's services and many other child-serving organizations to protect children and keep their best interest at heart.
