ONE DOLLAR

From the Other Side of the Desk

When I was a kid, I heard the famous story about this group of people, who thinking their rights were being denied, did a bunch of property damage in hopes of seeing some real changes being made. And as the storyteller told it, he said they were the heroes.

Part of the reason for the lawlessness had happened a few years before, when the police there killed five people and injured six. The police had guns. The citizens were armed with snowballs.

Fed up with the government and thinking change wasn't going to happen, these people there got together, trespassed on private property and destroyed about a $1,000,000 (in today's money) of someone else's stuff.

No one got hurt. One guy was arrested and imprisoned, mostly because his disguise was subpar.

This act of property damage divided a few people, who years later, are remembered as being on the same side through all of it. One future president was thrilled, having participated in the act, another future president felt destruction of private property was wrong no matter what, although he admitted he understood their reasons. Another prominent politician, inventor, and diplomat said the people who had their property destroyed should get their money back and he even offered to pay for it himself.

In reaction, the government created martial law and brought in the military to restore order. It made things worse.

A few years later, many of the same people did it again, albeit destroying less property this time.

A few years after that, many of the same people involved signed the Declaration of Independence. And after that, The United States Constitution.

In other words, this ain't nothing new. And as scary as it is, this is the celebrated history of our country. And maybe of mankind.

But, there is a difference. The protesters from the 18th century didn't profit. No one stole any tea. Or sneakers...Or 48" LED Smart TVs....Or burnt down local businesses...Or put graffiti on churches...Or...

Budget Passes on First Reading

The Hardeman County Commission got the first step in the budget process taken care of June 2 as the first reading of the 2020-2021 budget passed without a moment of controversy in the meeting held at the Hardeman County Agri-Business Center.

The second step, which includes a June 16 meeting and a public hearing on the document, might not be so easy if last year is any indication. However, the Hardeman County Budget Committee avoided a fight with the schools by passing the same tax rate as 2019-2020, putting the rate at $1.46.

With COVID-19 closing schools in March, Director of Schools Bobby Doyle presented the highlights, noting cuts were necessary with less revenue expected due to a dip in sales tax and a dip in reimbursements for meals provided.

"We are going to run about a $400,000 deficit even with the cuts," he explained, saying a textbook purchase was being split over two years instead of being completely in the current year, a $100,000 cut in the maintenance department, the purchase of two buses, fuel, travel, and five employees who retired would not have their positions filled were part of this year's attempt to offset less revenue. "I'm concerned about the sales tax," he said.

Hardeman County Highway Superintendent Casey Swift presented the Highway Department numbers, noting his department would be dipping into the fund balance to offset the loss of revenue due to gasoline tax shortages. Swift said his budget was a "worse-case scenario" and hoped the $800,000 needed to balance the sheet wouldn't be necessary.

Hardeman County Budget Committee Chairman Jerry Watkins presented the county budget, noting all tax rates would remain the same, with $1.01 for the General Fund, $1.46 for the schools, and 8 cents going for debt service.

"Every department stayed within their budget from last year, with the exception of the sheriff's department," explained Sain when asked. "And that is being handled with the attorney."

The School and Highway Department Budgets passed 16-0, while the General Fund Budget was 15-1, with Commissioner Elvis White voting no.

The AgriBusiness Center hosted the meeting to aid with social distancing guidelines. About 50 people were in attendance, including the commission, other officials, and the public.

It's Back...But it's a New Ballgame

Teams in Hardeman County got back on the field and on the court as COVID-19 restrictions allowed teams to begin practice for the coming seasons.

Prior to taking part, players are screened for illness with questions and a thermometer and mask are provided to use during the sessions.

A limited number of players are allowed at any one time and the workout groups were limited by individual drills and time in the weight room.

Co. Commission Tables Dispatch Vote

Budget talks took a backseat to another issue as the Hardeman County Commission eventually tabled a vote on the Hardeman County Property Committee's desire to allow Hardeman County 911 to lease property at the Hardeman County Criminal Justice Center until a new facility could be built to house the dispatch department.

The vote would have also moved the dispatch department from being administered by the Hardeman County Sheriff's Department to being under the eye of the Hardeman County 911 Board and the Director.

Almost immediately upon being brought to the floor for discussion by Commissioner Mark Gilliam's request for approval, Commissioner Justin Howell questioned the ability of dispatch to operate independently of a law enforcement agency and Commissioner Elvis White wanted to know why the county would make the change.

"We would have less responsibility," Sain answered. "They (911) would be their own entity. Everyone signed up in 2010, but no one has paid a dime, besides Bolivar."

Sain added later that six of the nine mayors have signed up, with only Whiteville, Middleton and Grand Junction still unsigned.

Howell said the other city mayors weren't on board with it anymore, citing Mayor Curtis Lane of Grand Junction.

Commissioner Johnny Lanier said he had talked to two city mayors, saying one of them was okay with the plan and agreed they needed to pay something, but needed an exact price and wouldn't commit until he heard one he could take to his aldermen.

"There is nothing broke about our current situation," said Howell. "The previous director said it was okay. And then she resigned. It's a problematic situation."

When asked who was running 911, Sain answered that 911 Board Chair-

Bill Dance Signature Lake on Final Approach for Landing

The Hardeman County Bill Dance Signature Lake project has taken a giant step this week as the State of Tennessee Department of Economic and Community Development has awarded a grant for $62,446.35 for the project. The county has contracted with Schnabel Engineering of Alpharetta, Georgia to perform a Water Balance Analysis to determine the viability of a reservoir at the Pleasant Runn site based on local environmental and hydrological factors.

Schnabel will obtain available stream discharge data from the United States Geological Survey (USGS) Gaging Station. The proposed reservoir will be evaluated based on correlations of historical stream flow measurements, required minimum releases, and estimates of evaporation from the proposed reservoir surface to determine the required inflow to maintain the proposed normal pool elevation of the reservoir. The county also contracted with Lord and Winter, LLC of Nashville, Tennessee to propose Wetland Delineation, Stream Determination, and Jurisdictional Determination for the proposed 3,354-acre lake.

Hardeman County Environmental Attorney Laura Benz of Newman, Georgia was given the green light to move forward with the engineering studies after meeting with the Memphis District, US Corps of Engineers. These engineering studies are required to move forward with the permitting process. Professional sportsman Bill Dance reviewed Tennessee. I appreciate the hard work and determination of Mayor Sain in driving this project to change the lives and economic future of not only Hardeman County, but all of West Tennessee." Mayor Sain stated, "I would like to thank ECD Commissioner Rolfe and his staff for the grant. This has been a long tedious permitting process that we could not make a reality without our state partners. I believe we are on final approach to land this project for our citizens."

The University of Memphis' Sparks Bureau of Business and Economic Research has stated that the Hardeman County Like Project would be projected to generate approximately 401,053 visitors annually with visitor expenditures, and economic inputs that will generate a projected $22,940,232 annually. The bureau has stated that the project is one of the best economic projects they have researched.

Co. Commission Tables Dispatch Vote continued from A1

man Chris Bell was overseeing operations upon the recent resignation by almost 20-year Director Mary Henderson and that Bell would lead the unit until a permanent boss could be found. Henderson's last day was May 29.

When asked whether Bell would be paid, Sain said he didn't know, but Bell said compensation was offered by the board.

On June 3, Bell confirmed compensation was offered, but said he would not be accepting any salary to oversee 911 until a permanent director was hired.

Bell said he had been working with Henderson and with the numbers it would take for each city to sign on, saying Whiteville would be around $15,000 per year, Middleton would be $9-10 thousand dollars a year and Toone would be about $1,500.

Bell said up until now, the others municipalities were not sharing the cost and that "Bolivar was not happy."

Bell then added no agency would have priority over any other.

Commissioner Bobby Wright challenged Bell, asking, "The Director said the system is working fine right now. Is she wrong?"

After a moment, Bell answered, "Yes."

"We are doing it like Hardin County," interjected Sain. "It's fair. It doesn't lock anyone out."

Bell added that different agencies have complained, feeling like they weren't getting the same service the Hardeman County Sheriff's Department received.

"Is this documented or hearsay?" challenged White. "Did the 911 Board investigate?"

Howell then brought up the makeup of the 911 Board itself, noting only five members, including Bell, were currently serving. "Who appoints the Board?"

"I do," said Sain.

"The state says we are required to have 7-9 members," replied Howell. "Are you saying they made a decision with only five members?"

On June 3, Bell said that after checking with the state, all decisions made by the five member board would stand, including decisions made tabbing Bell as Interim Director and the approval of a bid to add on to the current building housing 911 on Washington Street. Bell said the full board plans to meet in the next two weeks. "We are going to do things right," he promised.

A few minutes later, Howell produced a document from June of 2019, signed by Sain, then 911 Board Chairman Jerry McCord, and Bolivar Mayor Julian McTizic, which stated the sheriff's department could continue to run dispatch until the 911 Board could get an ORI number.

Howell then asked for the motion to be tabled until more study could be done. It was seconded by Wright.

Voting to table the measure were Russell DeBerry, Gilliam, Howell, Chondra Lake, Lanier, Viscen Morrow, Johnny Weems, Wright, Hensley and White, while Bell, Mike Madden, Jackie Sain, Mac

Vaughan, John Vickers, and Gary Barber, who is a member of the 911 Board of Directors, voted to keep the issue on the floor.

On June 3, Sain said the 911 Board control of dispatch and their employees would be in effect July 1, and that the money to administer 911 has not been in the Sheriff's budget, since 2017-2018, instead it was under "other emergency management."

To fill out the 911 Board, Sain asked for approval for Gary Byers of Middleton, Whiteville City Administrator Mark McCrory, and Bolivar Police Chief Mike Jones to be added. It passed, but with a few dissensions, including Howell.

They will join Barber, Bell, Bolivar City Councilman Larry Crawford, Virlene Brown, and Hardeman County Trustee Mary Powell on the 911 board.

Clarification: Last weeks article entitled "Life Sentence Handed Down" correctly stated that Taylor Lucas Robinson, 20, of Bolivar, will serve six years for attempted aggravated robbery and 22 years for facilitation of first degree murder in the death of Michael Ruiz, but omitted that he will be eligible for parole after 30% of the time is served. We apologize for any misunderstanding this may have caused.

Be prepared for the hot or cold weather, tune up your unit now.

Silerton

Mary Lynn Lambert
609-6455

Four Silerton grandmothers shared graduation news. Steve and Linda (Hatch) Russell had two grandchildren to graduate from high school. John Clifton (JC) son of John and Melinda Kirk graduated from Home Life Academy at Fellowship Bible Church in Jackson, TN on May 23rd. He also did dual enrollment his senior year and has nine months completed in Auto Technology. He will graduate from Whiteville Vocational School in 2021. Alayna Russell, daughter of Tony and Kelly Russell will be graduating at Middleton High School on June 13. She is eighth in the top ten of her class. She will be attending Jackson State in the fall pursuing a teaching career.

Frances Stack's grandson Griffin Rimer, graduated from the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga with a B.S. degree in Psychology.

David and Winna (Lambert) Cupples traveled 165 miles to Benton, MO on May 16 to witness their grandson, Taylor Coffman, receive his high school diploma. He was also recognized as the student who improved at the fastest pace. Winna stated the ceremony was nice and the students wore masks and practiced social distancing. He will enter the Marines. Taylor's dream since childhood has always been about the military.

Larry and Anita Lambert are hoping they will be able to attend their grandson, Harrison Lambert's, graduation June 22 at the Blackman High School in Murfreesboro. Graduation ceremony will depend on how the quarantine works out. Harrison has been accepted to Tennessee Tech Engineering program.

A big shout out to Bessie (King) Harris. She celebrated her 100th birthday on May 27. Because of the quarantine, there was no big party. I feel for sure that everyone who knows Mrs. Bessie has been richly blessed by their acquaintance. This writer cannot offer up enough thanks to Mrs. Bessie for her influence on my life. She has been the Christian mentor that I so needed. True to the Bible, Mrs. Bessie has endured her share of trials in life, but she came out a victor because throughout her life, she kept the faith and brought praise and honor to God.

In the Silerton area, there is a feel of excitement. A transmission tower is being built on Hurst Road. The tower is a massive addition for Silerton. Melea Beshires worded our dilemma so correctly. She writes, "If the phrase, 'Can you hear me now?' is a frequent part of your telephone conversations, you'll be delighted when the new cell phone tower is completed. My family is really looking forward to improved reception and hope all of Silerton will benefit." Gail Mayfield heard from the construction crew the transmission would be line-of-sight and the range would be seven miles with a strong signal and 12 miles with less. The tower will be owned by Valley Bridge who will attach an AT&T signal atop the tower and possibly lease additional space to other carriers. Next steps will include attaching the signal units, building a security fence, and securing electrical power. The Chester County location was chosen due to its altitude of 555 ft. and more favorable regulations. The tower is 195 feet tall supporting 5-foot signal units.

Hello from Toone! It looks as if someone stole May when my back was turned. As a matter of fact, the last three months are somewhat of a blur. This has definitely been the strangest several months that I can remember in my 68 years. It seems I just put my Christmas decorations away when the pandemic spread across the land shutting everything down, and now I look up and it's June and our country is once again being tested. I believe I speak for everyone when I say it would be wonderful to have somewhat more normal times again. Oh well, at least we are finally beginning to have some pretty weather with a bit less rain. Let's all get out and enjoy these days while we have them, because it's spring in West Tennessee!

Hardeman County Schools pre-K and Kindergarten registrations will be held at each elementary school from Monday, June 9 through Friday, June 12, 9:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. daily. Enrollment applications will be available at each elementary school when registering your children. The online application will be available beginning Monday, June 9, at: www.hcsedu.org. You can find this link under the enrollment information tab. All families will receive notifications of their child's eligibility status once applications are submitted and reviewed. This is a literacy program for rising 1st through 3rd grade students which will deliver high-quality books throughout the summer. For more information, visit them online at: hcsedu.org/34927?articleID=54701. Just a reminder that free meals for children 18 and under will be distributed at Toone Elementary school, Monday - Friday, from 10:00 a.m. - 10:45 a.m. They asked that you please stay in your car when you arrive, and your meals will be brought to you. If you would like to volunteer to help distribute meals, or to help direct traffic call the Southwest Human Resource Agency at, 1-800-497-1286.

Our good friend and neighbor, Ms. Bobbie Carter, celebrated her 87th birthday this week. Word is she loved the red cowboy hat that she received as a gift. Happy Birthday, Ms. Bobbie!

Please join me in conveying our condolences to our good friend at Centennial Bank, Joyce Peters. Joyce's Mother, Angelina Ann Yarbrough Cox, passed away this week. Let's all keep Joyce and her family in our thoughts and prayers. Happy Birthday wishes go out to our neighbor, Annette Hooper Simer, June 7. If you see Annette out and about, please wish her a happy day!

As more of our local small businesses and restaurants re-open, let's all do our best to go out to show our support and welcome them back. Local businesses are the backbone of our communities, and they need our support now more than ever. Remember to share your community news with your neighbors by contacting me through the information listed at the head of this article. Until next time. . . . talk to your neighbors!

Hello to all! I pray everyone is doing well. Thank the good Lord for the beautiful sunshine we have been receiving. Hornsby Baptist now has an app for those who would like to download it and keep up with all the things the church will be doing. It will also have daily devotions that are written by some members of the church. YEP will start June 28 and involves several churches that work together doing things such as projects for shut-ins, car washes, witnessing among neighborhoods, and so many other great mission works. So very thankful for so many young people who are willing to go out and spread the word of Jesus. VBS is scheduled for July 31 through August 3, always a fun program as we teach children about Jesus. This year's theme is "Jesus: Our Strong Foundation". Sunday School will be starting back on June 7 and I am so ready for us to be back as I know lots of others are as well.

Please remember to continue to support the local businesses all that you can, I know they would appreciate it. Things seem to be getting a little better and that is what our prayer is. Everyone working together to help each other, so please continue to check on those who have health issues and other needs. Remember we are all in this together.

Prayer is a powerful thing and I know there are a lot of wonderful folks who are happy to pray for you or someone you know. If you have prayer request please let us know. Please continue to lift the following people up in your prayers: Lynn Allen, Joe Anderson, Mimi Anderson, Hugholene Barnes, Ricky Bass, Diane Cross, Sue Day, Norma Emerson, Rich Emerson, Robert Gibson, Crystal Grantham, Thomas Green, Sue Hall, James Hanna, Marilyn Hanna, Willie Lou Hannis, Richard Hazelwood, Justin Hodge, Sue Hodge, Willis Hornsby, Jo Edna Howell, Charley Johnson, Ann Kelly, Aubrey King, Lucy King, Debbie Laster, Bobbie McBride, Betty McMahan, Orville McMahan, Margie Moore, Carolyn Morgan, Evan Niels, Lockie Newman, Joyce Overton, Gay Pierce, Gail Pope, Scarlett Sipes, Stacy Spence, Ronna Spoon, Susan Thompson, Benjamin Tucker, Martyn Venuti, Tommy Warner, Eddie Webb, Jennifer Wheeler, Piper Williams, the men and women who serve our country, the families of the ones who are fighting cancer, all the health care workers, the leaders of our country and especially the ones who are lost. Food Giant Big Star Stay-at-Home Gourmet

Shrimp and Avocado Salad

Ingredients

- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 2 stalks celery, thinly sliced, plus 3 tablespoons chopped celery leaves
- 3 tablespoons finely chopped fresh cilantro
- Kosher salt and freshly ground pepper
- 1 1/2 limes
- 1 1/2 pounds large shrimp, peeled and deveined
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 2 avocados, diced
- 1 5-ounce package baby kale salad mix (about 8 cups)
- 1 small bunch radishes, thinly sliced

Directions

- Preheat a grill or grill pan to medium high.
- Make the dressing. Combine the mayonnaise, celery leaves, 2 tablespoons chopped cilantro, 1 tablespoon water, 1/2 teaspoon salt and a few grinds of pepper in a large bowl. Grate in the zest of 1 lime and squeeze in the juice.
- Toss the shrimp with the vegetable oil, 1/4 teaspoon salt and a few grinds of pepper in a bowl. Arrange the shrimp on the grill and cook until pink and just firm, about 2 minutes per side. Transfer to the bowl with the dressing; squeeze in the juice of the remaining 1/2 lime.
- Add the sliced celery, avocados, salad mix and radishes to the bowl with the shrimp; toss to coat. Top with the remaining 1 tablespoon chopped cilantro.

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Food Giant Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

Middleton High School HOSA Wins Awards

Over 3,000 students were scheduled to attend the 2020 TN State HOSA Leadership Conference and Competition on April 6. Due to health concerns related to Covid 19, plans quickly changed to May 14 and the TN Health Occupations Students of America State Conference went virtual. Middleton High School HOSA students along with other students throughout the state, ranging from 7th to 12th grade, submitted conference material and were tested online prior to this date.

Before the state level of competition, most competitions require students to attend the regional HOSA competition and place in the top five of their region in order to compete at the state level. This competition was held in Jackson, TN in January 2020. Participating in HOSA State Conference helps students gain confidence and leadership skills while learning about future career interests. Students also put a significant amount of time into studying and preparing for the tests, presentations, and skills in their competitive events.

This year, 15 Middleton High School and Middle School HOSA students placed in the top five of the state in their competitive events. If students place first through third in their competition, they are eligible to compete at the national level. The following students placed at the state level this year:

- 1ST PLACE – EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN – Laurin Baldwin and Anna Webb, graduating seniors
- 2ND PLACE – VETERINARY SCIENCE – Ethan Doyle, graduating senior
- 2ND PLACE – CPR & FIRST AID – Amanda Atkins and Romeo Ayala, graduating senior
- 3RD PLACE – MEDICAL LAW & ETHICS – Connor Dixon, graduating senior
- 4th PLACE – DENTAL TERMINOLOGY – MaKenzie Eady, graduating senior
- HEALTH CARE ISSUES EXAM – Ava Lanier and Lilly Floyd, upcoming sophomores
- 1st PLACE – PREPARED SPEAKING – Caitley Mott, upcoming freshman
- 1st PLACE – HEALTH CAREER EXPLORATION – Julianne Townsend, upcoming freshman
- 1ST PLACE – DYNAMIC DECISIONS – Gage Nixon and Allie Baker, upcoming freshmen
- 1ST PLACE – NUTRITION – Maddie Willis, upcoming freshman
- 2ND PLACE – MEDICAL MATH – Madison Doyle, upcoming freshman

1. Wild Cherry, in 1976. Unfortunately, it was the only hit the group ever had, possibly because they went through over a dozen members in their short run.
2. "One Fine Day," starring Michelle Pfeiffer and George Clooney, in 1996. The song received a Grammy nom for Best Original Song. Songwriter James Newton Howard has written for over 100 films.
3. Pat Boone, in 1961. Amazingly enough, the song shot to No. 6 on the U.S. charts, and did even better internationally, hitting No. 1 in Belgium, Italy, Norway and others.
4. Desmond Dekker & The Aces, in 1968.
5. "I Just Wanna Stop," by Gino Vannelli, in 1978. Vannelli got his first big record deal by racing after Herb Alpert in a studio parking lot, hotly pursued by security guards, to give Alpert a demo tape. Alpert signed him.

The "Smile" says it all:::::

Emma and I put a ton of effort getting bait, after hand poling in two different ponds, we were ready.

The Hatchie had risen several feet, finding all the lines was difficult, but, we did. As normal our expectations were high as we arrived at the landing just after daybreak. Today, Emma would check the lines. For those that fish this way in the Hatchie, you know, it's not a Done Deal even when you see the limb shaking. After checking several lines with no success, we rounded a bend and bingo, limb shaker!! As I eased the boat into position, I noticed several other limbs going against the current. The instant Emma grabbed the line it was like a "Pop-Up" tidal wave erupted! The Flathead (Yellow Catfish) had wrapped himself around several limbs underwater. The thought running through my mind was::: Help Her::::: Immediately!! Nope, she had to learn. It was now or never, I saw his head and with a surge of willpower, she got him in the boat!! Folks, everyone loses fish, I knew this one was a goner, but Emma Got it Done!! She also boasted the other two Flatheads and the Memories were made.

If you have the opportunity to take a young Sportsman/Woman::::: DO IT!! Note to Slick::::: I'll bet Your Slimy Skin is Shaking, which it should be:::: Emma has her sights Set on YOU!! As Always:: SAFETY FIRST::::: HOOT

Unjust Suffering by Jeff Capshaw

Two weeks ago, the lesson concerned growing spiritually during hard times, because "... suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope..." (Romans 5:3-5, ESV). Thus, suffering (usually a bad thing) can produce good outcomes.

Last week, we considered James' urging us to "count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness. And let steadfastness have its full effect, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing" (1:2-4). Therefore, rightly confronted with the proper mental attitude, trials can help believers to grow spiritually: a good outcome also.

There is another book in the New Testament that speaks to suffering. It was written to those who were undergoing intense persecution and suffering. Someone characterized the theme of the book as follows. "Those who persevere in faith while suffering persecution should be full of hope. They will certainly enjoy end-time salvation, since they already enjoy God's saving promises through Christ's death and resurrection."

Although an unusually long citation, Peter's deserves a hearing for context alone. "Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust. For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly. For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you might follow in his steps. He committed no sin, neither was deceit found in his mouth. When he was reviled, he did not revile in return; when he suffered, he did not threaten, but continued entrusting himself to him who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we might die to sin and live to righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed" (1 Peter 2:18-24).

A few brief comments are in order. First, the master-slave relationship in New Testament times was more akin to employee-employer relationships today; not like that which ended in mid-nineteenth-century America. Second, Peter is talking about something we've all witnessed this past week: unjust suffering. Bearing up under that is commendable because he said believers are called to endure injustice just like Christ did. None has endured that kind of injustice, and he is the example to follow. Much of what we've seen this week certainly isn't Christlike; that isn't a critical judgment; that's a fact.

Like the other passages cited,

Love by David Coy

There is a great deal of misinformation being circulated these days. As in days gone by as bad as we think our time is today in relation to health scares in our country it is not nearly as bad as has existed during the plague of 1918. Yet with events that have taken place in the last four or five days with anarchists that plague with violence, lawlessness, and lack of respect for human life and what belongs to another it requires a response. Therefore, I am compelled to talk about our need as a society to know and understand love. Love for human life, love and respect for one another as citizens. This can only begin when we recognize the existence of absolutes. There is absolute good as there is absolute evil. Just as there is absolute right and wrong, there is the origin of love and all that is right. We need to discover the blessing of love.

Those who have loved deeply and lost understand the value and importance of love and walking in love. They understand a person could possess all manner of skill in life but if they lack love they are nothing but a noisy cymbal. Love patiently endures, and is kind; does not envy or boast; is not arrogant or rude. Does not insist on its own way; is not irritable or resentful. Does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices in truth. We would do well to pray for our nation and world as we do our family and friends that all would prosper and be in health as their soul prospers. Many are living in sorrow today because of lives lost, prosperity lost because of unnecessary forced shutdown and now because of anarchy. The story is told of a man named Diotrophes who was a domineering individual and loved to be preeminent. Too many today lack love and humility. Pray that more will learn these character traits. this is entirely counter-intuitive. It requires God's supernatural grace to endure mistreatment. It is one thing to suffer, but it is another thing to suffer for nothing, to not be commended by God for our response. Therefore, if you have to suffer, then try by God's grace to suffer rightly.

VIRGINIA ANN HILLMAN VAUGHN

JULY 9, 1940 - MAY 26, 2020

Virginia Ann Hillman Vaughn 79 of Bolivar, passed from this life on Tuesday, May 26, at Jackson-Madison County General Hospital.

Born July 9, 1940 to Cos and Frances Kelso Hillman in Whiteville, she lived most of her life in Hardeman County, with the exception of living in Chicago about 15 years. She worked for Harman Automotive in Bolivar for 19 years and as a CNA at Brint's Nursing Home. Mrs. Vaughn loved to take care of others. She had a green thumb and her family proclaimed she was a master at everything she did. She loved to go out to eat and shop, to travel, and get on Facebook and Snap Chat. Her favorite color was purple. Mrs. Vaughn was a Baptist in belief.

Survivors include her four daughters, Tonya Phillips (Ronnie) of Whiteville, Lynn Sterling (Ricky) of Medon, Freda Sullivan of Jackson, and Beth McMahan of Moscow, TN; a sister Beverly Lax of Bolivar; two brothers, Mike Hillman of Crestview, Florida and Richard Hillman (Gay) of Houston, Texas; and nine grandchildren, Megan Taylor, T. J. Maybury, Jessica and Davis Mayfield, Rebecca and Anna Sterling, Caleb Quinn, Mark Johnson, and Chris West; seven great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild and one on the way. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two sisters, Janet Hillman and Marjorie Foote, and a brother, Coleman Hillman. The family requests memorials be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, www.stjude.org.

Funeral services were held on Friday, May 29 at 1 p.m. at Shackelford's Bolivar Chapel with Barry Bishop officiating. Burial was in New Union Cemetery.

Whiteville Water System Water Quality Report for 2019

Is my drinking water safe?

Yes, our water meets all of EPA's health standards. We have conducted numerous tests for over 80 contaminants that may be in drinking water. As you'll see in the chart on the back, we only detected 7 of these contaminants. We found all of these contaminants at safe levels.

What is the source of my water?

Your water, which is ground water, comes from the Memphis Sand Aquifer. Our goal is to protect our water from contaminants and we are working with the State to determine the vulnerability of our water source to potential contamination. The Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation (TDEC) has prepared a Source Water Assessment Program (SWAP) Report for the untreated water sources serving water to this water system. The SWAP Report assesses the susceptibility of untreated water sources to potential contamination. To ensure safe drinking water, all public water systems treat and routinely test their water. Water sources have been rated as reasonably susceptible, moderately susceptible or slightly susceptible based on geologic factors and human activities in the vicinity of the water source. The Whiteville Water System sources rated as reasonably susceptible to potential contamination.

An explanation of Tennessee's Source Water Assessment Program, the Source Water Assessment summaries, susceptibility scorings and the overall TDEC report to EPA can be viewed online at <https://www.tn.gov/environment/program-areas/wr-water-resources/water-quality/source-water-assessment.html> or you may contact the Water System to obtain copies of specific assessments.

A wellhead protection plan is available for your review by contacting Louis Coleman at the Whiteville water treatment plant between 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. weekdays.

Why are there contaminants in my water?

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Este informe contiene información muy importante. Tradúscalo o hable con alguien que lo entienda bien.

For more information about your drinking water, please call Louis Coleman 609-3441.

How can I get involved?

Our Water Board meets on the first Monday at 6:30p.m. at the community center. Please feel free to participate in these meetings.

Is our water system meeting other rules that govern our operations?

The State and EPA require us to test and report on our water on a regular basis to ensure its safety. We have met all of these requirements. Results of unregulated contaminant analysis are available upon request. We want you to know that we pay attention to all the rules.

Other Information

The sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity. Contaminants that may be present in source water:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.
- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial, or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining, or farming.
- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.
- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.
- Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally-occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA and the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation prescribe regulations which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. FDA regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water which must provide the same protection for public health.

Do I Need To Take Special Precautions?

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have under-gone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about not only their drinking water, but food preparation, personal hygiene, and precautions in handling infants and pets from their health care providers. EPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbiological contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800-426-4791).

Lead in Drinking Water

If present, elevated levels of lead can cause serious health problems, especially for pregnant women and young children. Lead in drinking water is primarily from materials and components associated with service lines and home plumbing. Whiteville Water System is responsible for providing high quality drinking water, but cannot control the variety of materials used in plumbing components. When your water has been sitting for several hours, you can minimize the potential for lead exposure by flushing your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using water for drinking or cooking. If you are concerned about lead in your water, you may wish to have your water tested. Information on lead in drinking water, testing methods, and steps you can take to minimize exposure is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline or at <http://www.epa.gov/lead/protect-your-family%23water%23water>

Water System Security

Following the events of September 2001, we realize that our customers are concerned about the security of their drinking water. We urge the public to report any suspicious activities at any utility facilities, including treatment plants, tanks, fire hydrants, etc. 731-609-3441

Think before you flush!

Flushing unused or expired medicines can be harmful to your drinking water. Properly disposing of unused or expired medication helps protect you and the environment. Keep medications out of Tennessee's waterways by disposing in one of our permanent pharmaceutical take back bins. There are nearly 100 take back bins located across the state, to find a convenient location please visit: <http://tdeconline.tn.gov/rxtakeback/>

Water Quality Data

What does this chart mean?

- MCLG - Maximum Contaminant Level Goal, or the level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.
- MCL - Maximum Contaminant Level, or the highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology. To understand the possible health effects described for many regulated constituents, a person would have to drink 2 liters of water every day at the MCL level for a lifetime to have a one-in-a-million chance of having the described health effect.
- MRDL: Maximum Residual Disinfectant Level or MRDL: The highest level of a disinfectant allowed in drinking water. There is convincing evidence that addition of a disinfectant is necessary for the control of microbial contaminants.
- MRDLG: Maximum residual disinfectant level goal. The level of a drinking water disinfectant below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MRDLGs do not reflect the benefits of the use of disinfectants to control microbial contaminants.
- AL - Action Level, or the concentration of a contaminant which, when exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
- Below Detection Level (BDL) - laboratory analysis indicates that the contaminant is not present at a level that can be detected.
- Non-Detects (ND) - laboratory analysis indicates that the contaminant is not present.
- Parts per million (ppm) or Milligrams per liter (mg/l) - explained as a relation to time and money as one part per million corresponds to one minute in two years or a single penny in $10,000.
- Parts per billion (ppb) or Micrograms per liter - explained as a relation to time and money as one part per billion corresponds to one minute in 2,000 years, or a single penny in $10,000,000.
- Picocuries per liter (pCi/L) - picocuries per liter is a measure of the radioactivity in water.
- Millirems per year (mrem/yr) - measure of radiation absorbed by the body.
- Million Fibers per Liter (MFL) - million fibers per liter is a measure of the presence of asbestos fibers that are longer than 10 micrometers.
- Nephelometric Turbidity Unit (NTU) - nephelometric turbidity unit is a measure of the clarity of water. Turbidity in excess of 5 NTU is just noticeable to the average person.
- RTCR - Revised Total Coliform Rule. This rule went into effect on April 1, 2016 and replaces the MCL for total coliform with a Treatment Technique Trigger for a system assessment.
- TT - Treatment Technique, or a required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

Contaminant	Violation Yes/No	Level Found	Range of Detections	Date of Sample	Unit Measurement	MCLG	MCL	Likely Source of Contamination
Total Coliform Bacteria (RTCR)	NO	0		2019		0	TT Trigger	Naturally present in the environment

Fluoride	NO	.66	.66-.66	2019	ppm	4	4	Erosion of natural deposits; water additive which promotes strong teeth; discharge from fertilizer and aluminum factories
Lead ⁺	NO	BDL		2015	ppb	0	AL=15	Corrosion of household plumbing systems, erosion of natural deposits
Nitrate (as Nitrogen)	NO	1.72		2019	ppm	10	10	Runoff from fertilizer use; leaching from septic tanks, sewage; erosion of natural deposits
Sodium	NO	9.44		2016	ppm	N/A	N/A	Erosion of natural deposits; used in water treatment
TTHM [Total trihalomethanes]	NO	BDL		2017	ppb	n/a	80	By-product of drinking water chlorination
Haloacetic Acids (HAA5)	NO	BDL		2018	ppb	N/A	60	By-product of drinking water disinfection.
Chlorine	NO	1.4	.77-1.4	2019	ppm	4	4	Water additive used to control microbes.

Iron: Iron occurs naturally in our raw water and occasionally accumulates in the distribution system. Iron shows up as "red" or "rusty" water at your tap. Although you do not want to drink water that is not clear, iron is not considered to be a hazard to your health. We test for iron daily and it is usually around 0 ppm. The aesthetic limit for iron is 0.3 ppm.

During the most recent round of Lead and Copper testing, 0 out of 10 households sampled contained concentrations exceeding the action level.

Baseball Comes Back

Baseball will come back to Bolivar on June 11, as nine teams in three age divisions will try to salvage a season out of the mess of a global pandemic.

The league, which typically operates from mid-April until early June, will run through the first week in August.

Also new in 2020 will be end of the year tournaments for the 6U and 12U leagues and the Vaughan Oil/WMOD Home Run Derby will take place July 31 at the Lions Club Field.

With the Dizzy Dean National Organization cancelling the World Series, the league will not be pressed to finish in time for postseason. The extra time will allow the season to last longer than the typical attempt to complete twelve games. The 8U league has 17 games on the schedule, the 12U has 16 games scheduled plus a tournament, and the 6U has 15 games in league play, with a final tournament as well. All games will be played on the Lions Club Field in Bolivar and a full concession effort will be offered as well.

Sanitation and social distancing guidelines will be a part of the league as well. WMOD Radio is scheduled to broadcast two nights a week during the regular season and will broadcast the year end tournaments as well.

With the time crunch on beginning the season, teams will not wear sponsored jerseys, but will have team colors for 2020.

See the Vaughan Oil Baseball Schedule on A10.

Free Fishing Day is Still On at Whiteville Lake

Tennessee's 2020 Free Fishing Day will go on as scheduled. The day is set for Saturday, June 6 when anyone may fish free without a license in Tennessee's public waters.

The Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency provides the annual free day in hopes of increasing interest in fishing. The day allows anyone the opportunity to try this great outdoor sport, especially children to celebrate fishing as a wholesome and healthy recreational option. In addition, children ages 15 and younger may fish without a license beginning on Free Fishing Day through the following Friday (June 12).

This year's Free Fishing Day will be held under unusual circumstances. Due to the coronavirus pandemic many events have been cancelled, including all TWRA-hosted events. Check TWRA's youth fishing website for a complete list of events and cancellations. Despite having the organized events cancelled, TWRA will still stock these locations with catfish before Saturday and encourages families to go fishing at a safe distance.

"We regret that our personnel will not be able to attend or host the fishing events that we all enjoy, but safety is our top priority" said Frank Fiss, TWRA Fisheries chief. "Despite this, we have continued the stocking process and hope families can go and enjoy the day."

The day and week are annual events in Tennessee and are great opportunities to introduce children to the enjoyment and excitement of a day on the water catching fish. The TWRA annually stocks several thousand pounds of catfish for Free Fishing Day.

Free Fishing Day and Week apply to Tennessee's public waters, TWRA owned and operated lakes, and state park facilities. Some privately owned pay lakes and ponds continue to charge during this special day and week. Anglers will need to consult with those operators if there are any questions about a facility.

Adoptable Animal of the Week by Sara Vonderheide

Gannon (#19613) is an adult male red tick hound. He is estimated to be about five years old. He weighs a little over 70 pounds. This dog has the sweetest personality! He has all the features of a typical hound including a big heart and a wagging tail. He is heartworm positive and will need treatment. He will make the very best companion; he just wants to please. He is a shelter favorite and spends his days lounging in the office on a soft dog bed, but he really needs a home of his own to do his lounging in. If you are interested in adopting Gannon, fostering him during treatment, or donating to his treatment, please contact us (preferably by text): Charla Cooper (731-234-4421) or Jennifer Smallwood (731-609-0408). You can also check out our Facebook page, Hardeman Adoptable Animals, Inc.

HAA, Inc. is a 501©3 not-for-profit organization. Adoption fees are $125, and this includes all vaccines, spay/neuter, and care while at the shelter. If you are calling to report a loose dog, please call Animal Control at 731/658-2884. To call the shelter looking for a lost dog or to speak to a volunteer, please call 731/659-3040 and leave a message. Need to have your dog OR cat spayed or neutered? Need to have it done for free? Contact us to find out how you can do that!

Check out our Facebook page or our website (www.hardemanadoptableanimals.org) for information on the progress of our new shelter! Come be a part of our future!

Due to COVID 19, we are closed for intake and the shelter is temporarily closed to the public. Viewing dogs for adoption is by appointment only, and we request supply donations either be left at the scales DURING OPERATING HOURS, or arranged by contacting by TEXT 731-234-4421, or 731-609-7552.

The new shelter is so very close to being ready, and we would love to be moved before the TN summer weather is in full force. To find out how you can help, contact a volunteer or visit our Facebook page. We are still in need of some funds for a few final projects, but we are making progress every week.

How Sports Might Look for a While

Tennessee Governor Bill Lee's Economic Recovery Group issued new guidelines for non-contact sports, camps, and higher education under the Tennessee Pledge on May 28.

"We're able to continue reopening our state thanks to the sustained efforts by Tennesseans to social distance and mitigate the spread of COVID-19," said Governor Lee. "It's important we continue to take personal responsibility for our health and the health of our neighbors, while recognizing and honoring the need for Tennesseans to get back to work and support their families."

Under Executive Order No. 38 issued May 22, non-contact sports may resume under certain precautions, including efforts to maintain social distancing, wear masks when feasible and added sanitization measures. Sports that may return under the current guidelines include but are not limited to baseball, softball, volleyball, golf, disc golf, tennis and racket sports, cycling, track and field and other running events, and equestrian. Contact sports such as football, wrestling, and hockey are not permitted except for practicing in a manner that does not involve close physical contact with other persons.

More details for non-contact sports, camps, and higher education can be found at tn.gov.

Summertime Means Farmers Markets

Drive across our part of the country these days, and there is one thing you're guaranteed to see more of: farmers markets.

The USDA reports the number of registered farmers' markets increased by 2.3% —and those are just the ones listed in the National Farmers Market Directory.

Farmers markets have an abundance of fresh produce, meats, oils, preserves and jellies, and more during this time of the year. Many markets also offer hand-made artisan products as well. Photo of vendor David Johnson by Ginger Tester.

Sticking to Budget Can Boost Your Emergency Fund

During the coronavirus pandemic, our health concerns – for ourselves and our loved ones – have been at the top of our minds. But financial worries have been there, too, both for people whose employment has been affected and for investors anxious about the volatile financial markets. And one aspect of every individual's total financial picture has become quite clear – the importance of an emergency fund.

In normal times, it's a good idea for you to keep three to six months' worth of living expenses in a liquid, low-risk account. Having an emergency fund available can help you cope with those large, unexpected costs, such as a major car repair or a costly medical bill.

Furthermore, if you have an adequate emergency fund, you won't have to dip into your long-term investments to pay for short-term needs. These investment vehicles, such as your IRA and 401(k), are designed for your retirement, so the more you can leave them intact, the more assets you're likely to have when you retire. And because they are intended for your retirement, they typically come with disincentives, including taxes and penalties, if you do tap into them early. (However, as part of the economic stimulus legislation known as the CARES Act, individuals can now take up to $100,000 from their 401(k) plans and IRAs without paying the 10% penalty that typically applies to investors younger than 59½. If you take this type of withdrawal, you have up to three years to pay the taxes and, if you want, replace the funds, beyond the usual caps on annual contributions.

Of course, life is expensive, so it's not always easy to put away money in a fund that you aren't going to use for your normal cash flow. That's why it's so important to establish a budget and stick to it. When developing such a budget, you may find ways to cut down on your spending, freeing up money that could be used to build your emergency fund.

There are different ways to establish a budget, but they all typically involve identifying your income and expenses and separating your needs and wants. You can find various online budgeting tools to help you get started, but, ultimately, it's up to you to make your budget work. Nonetheless, you may be pleasantly surprised at how painless it is to follow a budget. For example, if you've budgeted a certain amount for food each month, you'll need to avoid going to the grocery store several times a week, just to pick up "a few things" – because it doesn't really take that many visits for those few things to add up to hundreds of dollars. You'll be much better off limiting your trips to the grocery, making a list of the items you'll need and adhering to these lists. After doing this for a few months, see how much you've saved – it may be much more than you'd expect. Besides using these savings to strengthen your emergency fund, you could also deploy them toward longer-term investments designed to help you reach other objectives, such as retirement.

Saving money is always a good idea, and when you use your savings to build an emergency fund, you can help yourself prepare for the unexpected and make progress toward your long-term goals.
