ONE DOLLAR

From the Other Side of the Desk

About a year ago, we got a kitten. Cute little thing. Named her Hayley. Grey with black stripes.

Well, as cats will do, Hayley has been curious lately about what in the world is going on outside, where the birds, bees, and lizards roam. So when she gets a chance, she peeks out the door and even puts a paw or two in the garage.

Grace does not like this.

Grace is 14 and claims that on her 15th birthday, she is getting a ride to the DMV for her learners permit, passing it, and then driving us home.

(only half of that has any chance to be true, by the way – rest assured the streets are safe – for now)

But anyway, Grace noticed that Hayley wanted to go out and explore and find out what the world has to offer. And as I said, she doesn't like it one bit.

"Hey," she said. "We need to figure out a way to close up the doggie door (we have no dog, but the cats use it to go in and out) so that Hayley can't get outside."

"Why?" I asked.

"She can't go out there. She'll get hurt or something bad will happen. She's too little and precious and has no idea what could happen to her."

"I think I understand perfectly," I said. "So I'll make you a deal. We'll board up the doggie door to keep Hayley safe if you agree to stay here the rest of your life, let us drive you around, etc. What do you think?"

She didn't answer.

I guess she's thinking it over.

Mayor Expects Budget to Pass

After months of debate and work, Hardeman County Mayor Jimmy Sain says he expects the 2019-2020 budget to pass without a tax increase and without much trouble at the second reading on June 18.

"It'll be easy. It should be. The Budget Committee is doing the right thing. They should support the Budget Committee," said Sain.

Sain, pointing out that there hasn't been a tax increase in five years of his administration, says the schools and the sheriff's department are the biggest challenges.

"Two years ago we had to take four cents from the general fund and the schools so we could make up the deficit in the debt service. It was a have-to case. We got accused of balancing the books on the back of school children. That stuff I'm tired of hearing. Last year they lost like 40-something more kids," he said, speaking of the schools. "And we didn't even blink an eye, we went on with the same budget. This year it's 147. That's a serious drain."

"The schools are a business," he continued, saying the schools have lost 25% of their students in the past eleven years. "When you lose 25% of your business, you can't keep the same budget. Things have to change. Why are all these kids homeschooling? Why are all these kids going to private school?"

"We are not asking for any of their funding. We are just asking to adjust the tax rate to protect us in the future."

Sain says he feels confident that even with a tax rate drop, the talks with the schools to make a deal to provide funding outside the tax rate will result in a win-win situation for both in the long-term.

Sain said the Sheriff's Department's budget problems aren't money, but administration of the budget.

"It is not fixed. They do not have an administrator over budgeting and funding," said Sain, saying the department doesn't need more money to operate. "They had one in Billy Davis, who is now the Circuit Court Clerk. They need to administer what they have. And no one in this office can administer what they have. Once their budget is approved, they need to administer it, just like we do our budget and the other elected officials do theirs."

The second reading of the Hardeman County Budget is scheduled to take place June 18 at 7:00 p.m. in the Hardeman County Courthouse Courtroom. A public hearing will precede the vote by the County Commission.

Mayfield Honored for Service to City

Cathy Mayfield, who is the Grant Administrator for the City of Bolivar received a 2019 Certificate of Merit Award from Tennessee Historical Commission.

"I've been doing grants for several years," said Mayfield, who has worked for the city since 2002. "I love it. It's quite interesting. Each one is different."

The city has benefitted from her attention to detail.

"I truly appreciate Cathy's efforts and hard work to help grow our city," said Mayor Julian McTizic. "Her heart for historic preservation is second to none and I am happy that her efforts are being noticed across the state."

"Cathy does an excellent job with grants," said Bolivar City Administrator Shelia Dellinger. "She's very dedicated and very committed. I think Mayor McTizic made an excellent choice in making her the grant administrator. Photo: Mayfield with Mr. E. Patrick McIntyre, Jr., Executive Director for the Tennessee Historical Commission."

Sand Beach Lake Project Unveiled

Bolivar Mayor Julian McTizic unveiled plans for Sand Beach Lake on the east end of Bolivar, in a ceremony on May 23.

Unveiled as a 122-acre park, the plans have a boat ramp, beach area, walking trails, an amphitheatre, camping areas, and in the future, cabins. McTizic said that he expects the walking trail to be finished in two to three years, and the camping area, amphitheatre, and zip line in 3-4 years.

Councilman Page Walley said he has kept an eye on this project for a few years.

"Historically, there have been talks, on and off, about possible development around the lake, but as of the last two years, development has moved from talks to actually planning the project," he said.

In November of 2018, the city voted to use the funds from the Hatchie River Project to purchase the property to create a tourism destination. The sale was made final this April.

Trails Open for Business on June 1

Tennessee State Parks will celebrate National Trails Day with free guided hikes at all 56 state parks on Saturday, June 1.

This will be the third of the state parks' signature hikes this year, following First Day Hikes in January and Spring Hikes in March. Thus far, 4,787 park visitors have participated in the hikes.

"This is an opportunity for people to feel connected to nature and to learn about a Tennessee State Park at the same time with the guidance of a park ranger," said Anne Marshall, acting deputy commissioner of the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation. "Whether you're interested in a park's history, seeing incredible views or taking a challenging trek, our parks give everyone that feeling that you can't get anywhere else."

The American Hiking Society designates the first Saturday in June as National Trails Day as a day of public events aimed at advocacy and trail service. Last year, 108,947 people participated in 1,203 events across 50 states.

Tennessee State Parks are offering a variety of ranger led hikes, night hikes, history hikes, nature hikes or trail clean-up hikes. With more than 1,000 miles of trails, ranging from easy paved trails to rugged backcountry trails to scenic waterways, the state parks have something for everyone.

Rice Honored by American Red Cross

The American Red Cross-Midwest Tennessee Chapter has named local resident, Mrs. Sarah Rice as their 2019 Volunteer of the Year. Sarah is employed by the City of Bolivar and serves as administrative support for the Bolivar Fire Department and as the city's social media manager.

Sarah has been a volunteer for the American Red Cross for over three years and currently serves as the Disaster Action Team Captain and Community Volunteer Leader for Hardeman County. She is also certified in mass shelter operations. In this role, she responds to and provides direct client assistance and resources to those who have lost their homes to fire or other natural disaster. The award was presented on Thursday, May 16, 2019, during the 2019 American Red Cross Heroes Luncheon in Jackson.

Presenter Heather Carbajal, Disaster Program Manager, said that American Red Cross response in Hardeman County has increased from an average of five responses in years prior to 2016 to approximately 25 per year from 2016-2019 since Sarah joined the American Red Cross chapter. In addition, one of the smoke alarm events that she helped organize led to two lives being saved during a house fire in December.

Fire Chief Lynn Price said, "We are so very proud of Mrs. Rice's commitment to our community and our department, and we thank her for her service to both."

Ann Hinson attended the graduation of her granddaughter, Tessa Hinson, on Saturday, May 18. While Tessa was being homeschooled, she also took classes studying cosmetology. She will finish those studies in August and then go to work as a cosmetologist.

Steve and Linda (Hatch) Russell recently attended the Honor Banquet held at Middleton High School. Their grandson, Clay Dixon was recognized as 5th academically in his graduation class. He also received the award for excellence in agriculture and the technology scholar award. He was a Wall of Fame recipient of a $1000.00 scholarship for academic and personal achievement. The school recognizes honor students by putting their pictures on their Wall of Fame. Clay and his family are delighted to see his picture on the wall.

Frankie and I attended my granddaughter, Merry Ashlyn Gatewood's, graduation at First Assembly Christian School in Cordova, TN. Merry Ashlyn received recognition as being the Valedictorian. She also received many scholarships to be applied to her tuition at Union University where she plans to major in Political Science.

Gilbert Lee and Frances Stack recently attended the 15th Annual Gospel Music Fanfare held each year in Somerset, KY at the Center for Rural Development. The six-day event was filled with morning worship services, music groups showcases, matinee concerts, and evening concerts.

Family and friends enjoyed Joey Lambert's crawfish boil at his parents' home, Larry and Anita, Saturday, May 18. Anna and Glen Kirk enjoyed the occasion. It was the first time Anna had experienced a crawfish boil. Crawfish, potatoes, sausage, corn on the cob cooked in Joey's special seasoning poured out on the table and fill your plate. Friends and family brought desserts. Great fellowship and no one left hungry.

A big shout out to Larry Lambert for passing on this story to parents who might have a discipline problem with their children during the upcoming summer. He stated that as a young boy, he and his two younger sisters would wander out of the yard despite their mother's instructions to play only in the yard. One morning as they were playing, their mother came out and told them that she had just heard that a local farmer had a mean bull and it had gotten out of the pasture, so they needed to stay in the yard. Many times, that summer, their mother used the same story and it worked. They stayed in the yard. Then Larry got curious as to why they never saw the bull. He asked his mother where the bull was, it has never been seen in Silerton. His mother's only reply was, "It worked, didn't it"? Point of this story, a mother must be very creative.

GO FIGURE!

by Linda Thistle

The Maxwell's Stay-at-Home Gourmet

Stuffed Pepper Soup

Ingredients

- 1 lb. ground beef
- 1 small onion, diced
- 1 large bell pepper, diced
- 1 (29 oz) can diced tomatoes or Rotel tomatoes and chilis
- 1 (8 oz) can tomato sauce or tomato soup
- 1 (14 oz) can chicken broth (or beef broth)
- 2 cups cooked rice
- 1 tbsp sugar
- 1 tsp garlic powder
- salt and pepper, to taste
- shredded cheddar cheese, for topping

Instructions

In a large pot, brown and crumble ground beef along with diced green peppers and onion over medium-high heat. When meat is thoroughly cooked, drain excess grease from beef mixture. Put beef mixture back into pot.

Add in diced tomatoes, chicken (or beef) broth and tomato soup (or tomato sauce). Give it all a good stir. Then add in rice. Stir again. Then stir in seasonings; sugar, garlic powder, salt & pepper (to taste).

Cover and let soup simmer on low heat for about 30 minutes to let all the flavors blend. (The longer it simmers, the thicker it will get.)

Serve with shredded cheddar cheese on top of each serving.

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Maxwell's Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

Vacation and Retirement: Different Goals Require Different Investment Strategies

To achieve any of your financial objectives, you need to save and invest – that much is clear. But just how you save and invest may differ from goal to goal. Let's look at two common goals to see the differences in your savings and investment strategies.

The first goal we'll consider is a dream vacation – one lasting a couple of weeks or more, possibly to an exotic locale. So, for the investments you've designated to fund this vacation, you need two key attributes: liquidity and low risk. The liquidity requirement is pretty self-explanatory – you want to be able to get to your vacation funds exactly when you need them, and you don't want to be slapped with some type of early withdrawal or tax penalty.

The low-risk part of your vacation strategy means you want investments that won't drop in value just when you need to sell them to use the proceeds for your trip. However, you need to be aware that those types of stable-value investment vehicles likely will not offer much growth potential. As you may know, the investments with the greatest possible rewards are also those that carry the highest degrees of risk. Yet, by starting to invest early enough in more conservative investments, and putting away money regularly, you may be able to compensate for the lack of growth opportunities.

Now, let's turn to your other goal – retirement. When you are saving for retirement, your primary objective is pretty simple: to accumulate as much money as you can. Consequently, you will need a reasonable percentage of your portfolio devoted to growth-oriented investments. But what's a reasonable percentage? There's no one-size-fits-all solution – the amount of growth investments in your portfolio should be based on several factors, including your age, risk tolerance and projected retirement lifestyle.

Furthermore, this percentage may need to change over time. When you're just starting out in your career, you may be able to afford to take on the greater risk that comes with having a higher percentage of your portfolio in growth investments. But as you get closer to retirement, you might want to begin shifting some dollars toward more conservative vehicles – you don't want to be over-exposed to the volatility of the financial markets just when you need to start selling investments to help fund your retirement.

Nonetheless, you won't want to give up all growth investments, even during your retirement years. You could spend two or three decades as a retiree, and over that time, inflation could take a big toll on your purchasing power. To counter this effect, you will need to own some investments that have the potential at least to equal, and ideally outpace, the cost of living.

The examples of taking that extensive vacation and enjoying a long retirement illustrate the importance of recognizing that you will have many goals in life – and you'll need to prioritize and plan for them, sometimes following significantly different investment strategies. When you do, you'll give yourself a better chance of reaching your destinations.

FAITH

Jesus as God, Part 2 by Jeff Capshaw

In the previous article, I indicated that Jesus' having two natures is miraculous, mysterious, incomprehensible and unrelatable to our everyday experience. Furthermore, I shared some theories of Quantum Physics and claimed that they too are deeply mysterious. These alleged phenomena are as far beyond the realm of analogical comparison to our human experience as is Jesus' having two distinct natures (human and divine). However, since the Council of Chalcedon (451 AD), this is what the Orthodox creeds teach, and those creeds are anchored in the New Testament.

For example, the Westminster Confession of Faith (1647 AD) summarizes the doctrine this way. "The Son of God, the second Person in the Trinity, being very and eternal God, of one substance, and equal with the Father, did, when the fullness of time was come, take upon him man's nature, with all the essential properties and common infirmities thereof; yet without sin: being conceived by the power of the Holy Ghost, in the womb of the Virgin Mary, of her substance. So that two whole, perfect, and distinct natures, the Godhead and the manhood, were inseparably joined together in one person, without conversion, composition, or confusion. Which person is very God and very man, yet one Christ, the only Mediator between God and man" (VIII.ii).

Several years ago, the New Testament Greek scholar, Murray J. Harris, conducted a study of Christ's divinity. His book, Jesus as God: The New Testament Use of Theos [God] in Reference to Jesus, concluded that there is no statement in the Greek New Testament that reads, "Jesus is God." However, Harris demonstrated that numerous passages do attribute divinity to Jesus of Nazareth.

One example of this is in John 12:37-41. The Apostle clearly says that the miracle worker, Jesus of Nazareth, is the same person as the God of the Old Testament (Yahweh-Exodus 3:14). John writes, "even after Jesus had performed so many signs in their presence, they still would not believe in him. This was to fulfill the word of Isaiah the prophet . . . (12:37, NIV). John then cites two texts from Isaiah regarding the Jews' hard hearts of unbelief and their spiritual blindness (Isaiah 53).

Sunrise: A Time by David Coy

Everything indeed has its time and purpose. Even if we do not understand the reason or the meaning behind events in our lives. Life can be a beautiful experience, but it can also be a time of sorrow and tribulation. Earthly endeavors are abundant for us to enjoy and pursue, yet not all are lawful or healthy. Sometimes we can become our own worst enemy by the poor unhealthy choices we make and sometimes through no fault of our own we suffer as well. In either case we may wonder why such and such is happening to us. As there is a time for everything under heaven, 'a season' (for example a time to be born and a time to die, Ecclesiastes 3:2), so there is a purpose for everything and a time for these to be fulfilled in their proper order (Ecc 3:1-8). Even healthy and lawful activities may become unhealthy and improper when used out of proper time and order. It is when we abuse the good earthly blessings provided us, that we may suffer because of our own poor choices.

We may not understand when for no apparent reason sorrow comes to us. Illness may come and is discovered quite by accident or death comes to a loved one sudden and unexpectedly and we wonder why, how? Then proclaim, I cannot handle this, I cannot cope or we stuff what is happening and pretend it did not happen. When this occurs we risk destroying ourselves from the inside and damaging our relationships around us. We should recognize we are not an island to ourselves and exist and succeed because of others support toward us just as we have supported others. This is the design and purpose of support groups. To support one another in our time of need. We need to acknowledge our need and the value of support in due season. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcares.com

Following this, John makes this incredible statement about Isaiah's vision of Yahweh in the temple. Readers will recall Isaiah saying, "in the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord [Yahweh], high and exalted, seated on a throne; and the train of his robe filled the temple" (Isaiah 6:1). Turning back to John 12, we read his commentary on Isaiah's vision where he attributes Isaiah's vision directly to Jesus. John clearly says, "Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about him" (v. 41)! Let that sink in.

There is no confusion here. John equates the Jesus of the New Testament with the God of the Old Testament, Yahweh. Although there is no New Testament reading which says, "Jesus is God," John and several other New Testament authors clearly attribute divinity to Jesus of Nazareth. Indeed, Jesus is the God-Man.

Mary Jo Hill Stringer, age 89, went home to be with her Lord and heavenly family on May 24, 2019, after a long heartbreaking battle with Alzheimer's. She was born January 5, 1930 to the Robert Edward Dickerson and Josephine Parish Dickerson.

She accepted Jesus as her Savior at the age of nine at Pinson Baptist Church. In 1945, she was a charter member of Beech Bluff Baptist Church which was established by her late father. She was Valedictorian of the Beech Bluff High School 1947 graduating class. She was employed by American Olean Tile Co. for about 15 years before moving to Bolivar in 1977. At the time of her death, she was a member of the Bolivar First Baptist Church.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her high school sweetheart and husband Verlon Lois Hill in 1976, husband Glenn E. DePriest in 1992, and by two brothers, William Edward Dickerson and Thomas Earl Dickerson.

She is survived by her husband, Hulon Stringer of Bolivar, daughters Deborah Isbell(Darryl) of Jackson, Dana Maness(David) of Bells, grandchildren Brad Isbell(Kayci) of Drummonds, Stephanie Halford(Terry) of Jackson, Michael Maness(Amy) of Bells, Jeremy Maness(Renae) of Medina, ten great grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and step children Harvey Stringer (Brenda) of Bolivar, and Anita Bell(David) of Arkadelphia, AR, four step-grandchildren, seven step-great-grandchildren, two step-great-great-grandchildren, a sister-in-law Martha Nell Dickerson, a host of nieces and nephews, and special friend Jean Bledsoe and her girls.

The family received friends and loved ones at a visitation on Sunday, May 26, 2019 at Shackelford Funeral Home in Bolivar. Graveside services followed at Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Cemetery, Mifflin Rd., Jackson, TN.

The family would like to extend grateful appreciation to special friends/sitters who have provided loving care in her home: Burnette Clark, Doris Turner, Pam Coble, and Beverly Robinson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to the West TN Chapter-Alzheimer's Association, 699 Oakleaf Office Lane, Memphis, TN 38117 or the Exchange Club Carl Perkins Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse, 312 Cheyenne Dr., Jackson, TN 38305.

THAD WILLIAMS NOVEMBER 15, 1942 ~ MAY 22, 2019

Mr. Thad Williams, age 76 of Bolivar, passed from this life on Wednesday morning, May 22, 2019, at Pine Meadows Healthcare & Rehabilitation Center.

Funeral services were held Friday, May 24, 2019 at Shackelford Funeral Directors in Bolivar with John Jicka and Charles Frost officiating. Interment followed in Union Cemetery.

He was born to the late Thomas Charles "Chess" Williams and Mary Rebecca Kennamore Williams in Tippah County, MS and lived most all of his life in Hardeman County. A 1960 graduate of Middleton High School, Thad married Shirley Ann Cossar on Friday, February 12, 1965. Mrs. Williams passed away on Wednesday, January 23, 2019 following 53 years of marriage. In addition to his wife and parents, Mr. Williams was preceded in death by a sister, Frances Morgan; and three brothers, J. C., Thomas E., and Joseph Hines Williams.

In 1964, he joined the Tennessee National Guard and served 22 years before retiring in 1986 as a Sergeant, First Class. He worked 39 years at Western Mental Health Institute retiring as Director of Safety. He also was an EMT with the Hardeman County Ambulance Authority for many years and was instrumental in founding the Hardeman County Rescue Squad. In his leisure time, Thad enjoyed researching genealogies, photographing cemeteries, weddings, ball-teams and other subjects. He was an avid hobbyist when it came to electronics and he collected the newest "gadgets" available.

He is survived by his sister, Chardean Trout of Bolivar; and many nieces and nephews. Memorials may be sent to the Bolivar First Baptist Church.

Nelms Body Shop Closing in on Record Year

With a win on May 31 against Golden Circle Tire, Nelms Body Shop will finish the 6U Dizzy Dean Baseball season like no team has in at least ten years: undefeated.

Nelms Body Shop, who won 14-6 over Maxwell's Big Star and 19-4 over Farmers Insurance on May 28, are 13-0, clinched first place in the league a week ago. Nelms Body Shop is coached by Bobby Hensley.

No team in the Bolivar Dizzy Dean or Dixie Youth Baseball League has finished undefeated since at least 2010, when The County Journal began keeping records of wins and losses in Bolivar Lions Club Baseball.

Other leagues are still in doubt in the last week of play.

The 8U league will decide their champion on May 30 as Hooper Sawmill (6-5) takes on Toth Tinting (6-5) in a winner take all contest. The 10U league will have Rotary (7-4) face Bolivar Credit (7-4) with the league title on the line on May 31 at 5:30 at the City Park, while the 12U league is led by Bolivar Insurance and Real Estate (7-1), who are a game away from clinching first place.

The league will have their awards and all-star announcements on June 1 at 6:00 p.m. at the Lions Club Field in Bolivar. Dizzy Dean Softball will have their final games and all-star announcements in the following week.

OUR COUNTY

The Hardeman County Arts Council by Bertha Vaughan

Some of you who are reading this article may already be a member of the Hardeman County Arts Council, called HCAC for short, or are familiar with its functions and purpose. For those who are not members, we hope that after learning more about it you will want to become a member also.

The HCA provides an outlet to bring life to all the arts, here where we can enjoy them at home without having to go out of town. Whatever you prefer, whether music, drama, comedy, or a good murder mystery dinner theater production, or maybe the beautiful printings by various artists displayed in the Southern Exhibit Arts Shows, you can find all of this right here where you live. You will also find art displayed on walls in the foyer during every event of the year.

There are a lot of choices of things to see and enjoy at the HCAC. Some of you may like to make suggestions as to something you would like to see presented here, your comments are welcome.

The membership fee is the source of income that helps to keep the doors open, and for the upkeep of the building and grounds. These fees are very affordable: for a single person the fee is $25 per year, family is $30, business is $60, and corporate is $125 per year. Patron amounts vary by category: Bronze is $100-249, Silver is $250-499, Gold is $500-999, and Platinum is $1000 or more. All of these are yearly fees.

You will receive a notice when your membership is due, and you can mail in your payment...it's just that simple. The HCAC is completely non-profit. We also have a memorial and honorarium program which is a very special way to remember someone. HCAC is supported completely by donations, membership fees, and ticket sales. And of course, the memorials and honorariums. It is run like any other business except the fact that this one is run by volunteers. No one gets paid or gets special privileges. Like any business we have expenses, or overhead, if you will.

We have a super nice board of directors who are elected by the members each year. They have many decisions come before them that they have to take care of, and this they do with the care and cooperation that you would find anywhere else. They all work together with full respect and confidence in each other. These are some of the nicest people you would ever want to meet. They all have my undying respect, gratitude and support for the great job they have done over the years and continue to do today. Now, all that being said, it is a great outlet for those who have dreams of performing on stage, or showing their paintings at an art show. We can help to make their dreams come true right here at the HCAC. All in all, it takes money and volunteers to keep this business going, and to keep our doors open, that's why we all need to help support their efforts as much as possible. Some of the famous plays used are licensed, so there is a fee to be paid to use them.

The HCAC is a real asset to Hardeman County, its people and our economy. This is a only a capsule amount of what the HCAC is all about, and its value to all of us in one way or another. I just wanted to make everyone aware of what a truly great organization we have here. This is a wonderful world we live in, people. Enjoy as much of it as you can, while you can. It's a sure way to help each other feel good when they see others living life to its fullest. That's what your support of the arts can do. Make a dream come true for the want to be an entertainer for the stage or a place for the artists dream of showing their finest work of art.

Again, we have the nicest group of volunteers of anywhere. When you see one of them, please tell them thank you. They have spent many long hours of hard work making sets, moving sets, storing those sets, and some of them have been doing that since the beginning. It is truly remarkable how all of these people have come together and have done such a great job. The board of directors have done a great job of making the wisest decisions and have worked diligently to make this non-profit business the best anywhere. They could use more volunteers to help with every aspect of this business. If any of you would like to become a volunteer, please call me at 731-658-2152, and if anyone would like to become a member, please call me and I will be happy to help you any way I can. Or if you know a member, express your desires to them and they will help you too. I would like to encourage all the members, if I may, to each one sign up one member each. That would double our membership and help considerably with the income, which is always appreciated.

There is so much more to the HCAC than I have shared with you're here. I have only scratched the surface of what all the HCAC is about. Maybe this much will give you an idea of what it has to offer. Remember, if you consider volunteering may it always be for the right reason. You must want to help, and not because you feel you have to. You should want to help make something good even better. And this about this: Our world is here where we live. We have our own Carnegie Hall, our own Broadway. Granted, they are all much bigger in size, but we are all capable of anything here that can be done there. This is where we entertain our families, friends, and neighbors. People we know and love and who know and appreciate, and take pride in everything we do. This is our story here and our art showroom.

This is a just a comparison to show you that we are very fortunate to have this opportunity to do anything we are willing to work for. Hopefully, this article will help you decide to join us at HCAC. Let us all make an effort to take pride in our country. Support our county officials, and keep this one of the most beautiful, and generous places to live on this earth.

"Art is the gift of God, and must be used until His glory. That in art is highest which aims at this." My love to you all.

God bless you all, and God bless America.

My love to you all,

Bertha Vaughan
