From the Other Side of the Desk

Call it the "Mask Issue," if you like.

I hate them. I hate wearing them. I hate forgetting it in my car 97.4% of the time, and having to go back and get it.

I hate those signs on the door. I hate being told I need to wear one. I'm still ticked a cashier in Memphis told me to make sure it went over my nose...

There is nothing about wearing a mask that I like. Not one thing.

Okay, the only thing I do like about wearing a mask is no one complains that I'm not smiling...

But that's not the point. It's not whether we want to wear one, in fact, I don't think anyone wants to wear one.

But I'm wearing one anyway. Why? To protect people who are afraid of me not wearing one. To be compassionate toward people who want to go about their necessary business in the safest manner possible and are afraid to do it.

So far, I've been healthy throughout this crisis, pandemic, or whatever we are calling it. But frankly, I don't know if I've got it already and have just shown no symptoms. And I certainly don't want the guilt of infecting someone and having them fall ill or worse.

It's not a tin foil hat. It's a mask. I hope this stupid COVID-19 thing goes away and fast. But until then, if you want me to wear a mask, I'll wear one.

I may even smile behind it.

The Never Ending Story...

Salary Suit Trial Set to Begin Again October 5

With much of the preliminary proceedings gotten out of the way during the September 3-4 trial dates, it is hoped the 14-month standoff between the Hardeman County Sheriff and the Hardeman County Mayor can be decided.

The September portion was interrupted by the morning of the second day spent in negotiations to settle the suit, but ended with no agreement and a resumption of the trial.

No negotiations since have taken place.

Still waiting to perhaps testify and not yet excused from the trial were eight persons held by the plaintiff, including budget committee members Junior Jimmerson and chairman Jerry Watkins, commissioners Jackie Sain and Johnny Lanier, who are also on the budget

What Was Wrong with the $102,000?

For the plaintiff, it was about overtime and attorney's fees. In addition to the $102,000 agreed to by the commission in October of 2019, the commission also agreed to:

Overtime pay shall be paid by the county promptly upon submission of those hours and the county agrees to pay all such overtime. If the total of overtime exceeds any amounts set forth in the budget and a budget line item is exceeded, the sheriff shall request a budget amendment which the county then shall approve.

And they also agreed to:
The county is responsible for and shall pay all court costs and litigation costs in this matter within thirty (30) days of entry of this order.

Citing the issue of paying unlimited overtime and being subject to whatever the attorneys in the case requested, Shaw filed the suit to stop the settlement as it was written. Herron's request for $175,000 in legal fees was stopped by the same action.

committee; commissioners Justin Howell and Mark Gilliam, and mayor's office employees Carly Weems and Linda Ervin. Their status in the continuing of the trial is uncertain.

The issue began in July of 2019, when following the passing of the 2019-2020 budget, Hardeman County Sheriff John Doolen sued for more support.

The issue was seemingly settled in October 2019 after then Hardeman County Attorney Chip Cary and Attorney Roy Herron came to an agreement. Cary presented it to the county commission in a special called meeting as the sheriff's department, who originally sought and sued for approximately $1.4 million dollars, settled for $102,000.

At the October 8, 2019 meeting, the vote went 13-1 in favor of ending the lawsuit with the settlement. While both sides claimed lack of adherence to the settlement terms, Attorney Amber Griffin Shaw filed a Motion to Set Aside the Consent Order on behalf of Sain on February 10, citing numerous problems with the consent order. Herron eventually gave up on the settlement, setting up the September 2020 trial date.

Lee Ends October in September

As a National State of Emergency remains in place, Tennessee Governor Bill Lee announced on September 29, the State of Emergency in Tennessee will continue through October with adjustments made to previous executive orders.

"Tennessee's response continues to be one of the most targeted in the country and a continued State of Emergency ensures we have access to additional federal funds, ensure our health care capacity is stable and loosen restrictions that would otherwise hinder our response time," said Governor Lee. "COVID-19 is still a serious problem and I encourage every Tennessean to continue social distancing and doing their part to make wise choices and help mitigate the spread of the virus."

Governor Lee today signed Executive Order No. 63 to extend certain, targeted provisions of previous executive orders through October 30, including the authority of local governments to institute mask requirements. Remaining restrictions on businesses and gathering sizes in the 89 counties with a state-run health department have been removed.

Governor Lee also signed Executive Order No. 64, which extends through October 30 provisions that allow for remote notarization and witnessing of documents. Executive Order No. 60, which extends through October 28 provisions that allow for electronic government meetings subject to transparency safeguards, including the requirement of live broadcasts of electronic meetings to the public beginning Octo-

The Strayz to Entertain in Downtown Bolivar

Hardeman County Live will take over the Bolivar Downtown Amphitheatre on October 2 when The Strayz come to Music on the Square.

The Strayz are comprised of four seasoned musicians who have all performed throughout the Mid-South area for over 40 years. Memphis is where the magic began. They first met there and quickly shared a common musical interest in many of the same artists, backgrounds and styles. Together they've created an exceptional blend of instrumentations and vocal harmonies.

If there is rain, the event may be moved to the Bolivar Farmers Market Pavilion.

“In May of this year I had a life threatening health experience.”

Immediately, Sugar Creek’s nurse was by my side and the ambulance called. I was taken to Jackson General Hospital and within a short time air lifted to Vanderbilt. Most likely I would not have been here today had I not made the decision 3 years ago to make Sugar Creek Senior Living my new home. I realized it was no longer safe for me to live alone. I stopped in for a visit, put my name on the waiting list & then called my family to let them know my decision. Not only do I have professional & licensed nurse care but along with it, I enjoy the delicious home cooked meals served daily, activities, exercise and outings.

Sugar Creek is a wonderful place to call home. My suggestion to other seniors, make the decision to make the move while you can make it!

Broccoli Tots

Ingredients

- 1 bunch of broccoli, cut into equal sized florets (around 3-4 cups)
- 1 cup sharp cheddar cheese, shredded (I used Cabot Vermont Sharp White Cheddar)
- 1/3 cup onion, finely chopped
- 1/2 cup breadcrumbs
- 2 eggs
- salt and pepper

Directions

1. Preheat your oven to 400 degrees F.
2. Pour 1 inch of water into a saucepan; bring to a boil. Place the broccoli into the boiling water, cover, and reduce the heat to medium. Cook the broccoli for 5-6 minutes, or until it can easily be pierced by a fork. Drain the broccoli and set aside to cool slightly.
3. Lay the broccoli out onto paper towels and cover with more paper towels. Press down firmly on the broccoli to absorb as much moisture as you can. Another method is to put the broccoli in the center of a dish towel and ring out the water as seen here. Finely chop the broccoli.
4. In a large bowl, combine all of the ingredients and season with salt and pepper. Stir everything together until well mixed. Fill each muffin cup in a mini muffin tin to the top, pushing down on the filling with your spoon so it's nice and compacted.
5. Bake for 18-20 minutes in preheated oven. The top will be starting to golden. To easily remove from the pan (without scratching it to death), run a plastic knife around the edges of each tot and they should come out easier.

NOTES

If they seem to be falling apart when you take them out of the pan you can (1) put them back into the oven to cook for a few minutes longer so they are a bit crispier or (2) let them sit in the pan for a few minutes to let the insides firm up a bit before removing them from the pan. You have to be ginger with them if they're sticking a little to the pan!

The sharp cheddar can be substituted with whatever cheese you have on hand.

You can buy all the ingredients in this recipe at Food Giant Big Star, 200 North Main Street, Bolivar

RALPH SPENCER

APRIL 10, 1954 - SEPTEMBER 18, 2020

Ralph Spencer was born April 10, 1954 to Vernon Lee and Ruby Lee Spencer in Somerville, Tennessee. He was the fourth of five children.

He began attending school at Morrow's Grove School in Somerville, Tennessee. He later attended Hickory Valley School, Bolivar Elementary School, Bolivar Industrial School and graduated from Bolivar Central High School in 1973.

Ralph confessed his faith in Christ and was baptized at Antioch Baptist Church in Whiteville, Tennessee under the late Pastor Charlie Murphy, where he served as an usher. He later united with New Mt.

Pleasant Baptist Church in Middleton, Tennessee where he remained a faithful member and regular attendee until his death. While at New Mt. Pleasant, he served as Chairman of the Deacon Board, Superintendent of Sunday School, President of the Ushers Ministry, and a member of the Male Chorus.

Ralph held several jobs during his lifetime, including jobs at Nelms Chevrolet, Bolivar Tannery, Shangberg's, P.N Hirsh, and Thyssen-Krupp (Dover) Elevator Division, from which he retired in April 2020 after 43 years of employment. He also faithfully assisted his father on the family farm during weekends, holidays, and days off.

He was a member of the Masonic Trojan Lodge #280, where he served as the last Master; Past Vice President of the Independent Society #3; member of the NAACP; and Past President of the Middleton Civitan Club.

Most people who knew him knew he was a Pittsburgh Steelers fan through and through.

On February 10, 1978, he united in holy matrimony to Ramona Haddix of Middleton, Tennessee. This union produced two daughters. He was a faithful and dedicated husband and a great father. He led by example, always taking his family to church. Ralph was a humble man and everyone who knew him loved and respected him for the type of person he was. His wife lovingly refers to him as "the greatest husband in the world". Most people knew his favorite saying was "happy wife, happy life".

On Friday, September 18, 2020 at approximately 1:45 p.m., after a brief illness, Ralph went home to be with the Lord.

Ralph leaves his wife of 42 years, Ramona Haddix Spencer; two daughters, Cherissa Rene' Spencer of Middleton, and Jessica Nicole Spencer of Nashville; his parents, Vernon and Ruby Spencer of Bolivar; three sisters, Oreatha Spencer Stennis of Omaha, Nebraska; Doris Spencer-Gorie of Baltimore, Maryland and Eunice Spencer of Whiteville; one brother, James E. ## The Call of Wisdom, Part 1

by Jeff Capshaw

This week's lesson is from a classic passage in the Old Testament: Proverbs 8. In this Proverb, wisdom is personified as a woman crying out to be heard universally by all.

It says, "does not wisdom call? Does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries aloud: . . ." (8:1-3). Furthermore, the call is "to you, O men, I call, and my cry is to the children of man" (8:4). The point here is for all humans to hear the call.

The balance of the passage entails the contents of wisdom's words. First is the character of the message. It is characterized by being "noble," "what is right," of being "true" and "righteous." The writer goes on to characterize Lady Wisdom's words in an antithetical statement: "there is nothing twisted or crooked in them" (8:8). Instead, "they are all straight to him who understands, and right to those who find knowledge" (8:9).

Verses 10 and 11 are a value statement. Indeed, the writer presents wisdom as of greater value than material wealth. He writes, "take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold, or wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her."

In verses 12-13 is found a classical example of poetic parallelism, a tool the writers of all the Old Testament Wisdom employ and which has been explained in prior articles. In these verses, "synonymous parallelism" is utilized to paint a multi-faceted picture of Old Testament Wisdom.

Although the words and phrases and the concepts themselves are different in look, sound and form, yet they all orbit in the same neighborhood of meaning. That's the point of this literary device. Here is what it says. "I, wisdom, dwell with prudence, and I find knowledge and discretion. The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate" (8:12-13).

Here is one way to think about these two verses. First, wisdom and prudence are closely related. The wise person will, doubtless, have the ability to govern and discipline oneself by the use of reason. Likewise, a wise person will be both knowledgeable and have the skill to exercise sound judgment.

Next, there is a striking statement about fearing the Lord. It is the "hatred of evil." That too is wisdom. Proverbs 9:10 says, "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom." So, to be wise is to fear the Lord. That is what wisdom looks like.

Finally, the writer tells us what wisdom doesn't look like. It doesn't look like pride, arrogance, evil or perverted speech. The conclusion can be summed up with another Proverb. "The beginning of wisdom is this: Get wisdom, and whatever you get, get insight" (4:7).

Precious

by David Coy

We are hearing far too much of news reports of violence in our sister communities in too many states. Many, if not most of these deaths, were preventable. Even one unnecessary death is too much. Many mothers, fathers, husbands, wives, and siblings are mourning the loss of their loved ones. Why has this happened? This is perhaps the most asked question at the loss of family and friends is why? Why him or her? Why now, why this way? All lives matter and are precious. It is bad enough when a loved one dies from an illness or an accident and that is understandable, but violence from anarchists and domestic terrorist groups who have lashed out against people of many different cultures have not been good for any of us. Our nation is mourning for precious souls who are no longer here with us. We should be weeping with them as we also pray for their comfort, support, and strength to cope.

We all can do our part to support others who are mourning loss, even those in other areas of the country. Many have lost not only loved ones but financial security and attacks on their constitutional freedoms. As we have seen loss can occur in many different categories other than death. Our country is experiencing many different reasons to grieve that could and should be squelched through our determination to be united as Americans and live at peace one with another to the best of our ability. We do not have to storm the streets in violence, destroying businesses and people's livelihood indifferent to the people they hurt, and even murdering citizens including police. Let us pray for and pursue peace, and for one another and the healing of our nation. All life is precious. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcures.com

OUR COUNTY

Blood Donor Regulations Loosened

Due to recent FDA (Food and Drug Administration's) revisions of policies concerning the eligibility of blood donors, LIFELINE Blood Services announced that some members of our community, who were deferred from giving blood in the past, may now be able to donate blood again thanks to advancements in testing technology and further scientific study.

For example, there is not a deferral for those who spent any time on a military base in the United Kingdom or Europe. In addition, there is no longer a deferral for time spent in Europe (except for those who have spent five years or more in France and Ireland between 1980 and 2001). The following blood donor deferral times have been shortened to three months: travel to Malaria risk areas, receipt of a blood transfusion, accidental blood exposure, participation in high risk behaviors.

The FDA's recent actions will allow many individuals to be able to donate blood again, and this is great news for patients who need blood and those who have been unable to participate in this life-giving service.

Hunters for the Hungry Accepting Donations

Tennessee Wildlife Federation's Hunters for the Hungry program is now accepting deer donations for the 2020 deer season. More than 60 deer processors across the state are accepting donations of deer to feed Tennessee families in need.

To see processors currently participating, visit tnwf.org/processors.

"Because of COVID-19, more Tennesseans than ever are having to rely on hunger relief organizations to help feed their families," said Matt Simcox, Hunters for the Hungry manager. "That's why we want to encourage even more hunters to donate their harvest this season. Each time they donate a deer, they're providing 168 meals to our neighbors who need it most."

When hunters harvest a deer, they may donate it at a participating processor. The venison is processed and then provided to community food banks or soup kitchens.

Since the program began, Hunters for the Hungry has provided more than 7.6 million meals to hungry Tennesseans.

Right now, hunters can drop off a whole deer donation at no cost to them. Each year, Hunters for the Hungry covers tens of thousands of dollars in processing fees for donations. If deer donations surpass available funding for this season, hunters can pay a reduced, $50 processing fee or redeem a Deer Coin.

In partnership with the Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency (TWRA), Hunters for the Hungry will test every deer donated within Unit CWD (Chronic Wasting Disease) for the disease. Hunters for the Hungry will also test many of the donations made outside Unit CWD in Region 1.

Only whole deer donations will be accepted in Region 1 and the counties that border it. Pound or Pack donations, which allow hunters to give a portion of their harvest, will continue to be accepted in the rest of the state.

In an abundance of caution, Hunters for the Hungry will discard all donations that test positive for CWD. There is no evidence CWD is transmitted to humans but the CDC still recommends against eating CWD-positive meat.

For more information about Hunters for the Hungry or to purchase a Deer Coin, visit tnwf.org/Hunters-ForTheHungry.

Selfish or Screaming for All :::::

With the 2020/2021 Waterfowl season approaching, I'm stocking up on lemon drops, hoping I don't get laryngitis.

For years I've been screaming about the duck situation (lack of) in our area. Since around 2004 there's been a decline of ducks, especially in my neck of the woods. The past five years have been terrible. I've heard one Waterfowl biologist say, "Ducks need three things; Water, food, safety." That remark alone tells me the "Sanctuary" (no hunting) areas of refuges holds ducks by the 1000's! I'm sure the select few of hunters that are fortunate enough to hunt near or within eyesight of these areas are extremely happy. They're seeing ducks on a daily basis. As for here....It's rapidly becoming memories only. Even when conditions are perfect such as flood waters and cold fronts, there's very few sighted. Natural food such as acorns are ignored. I will say this, we (TWRA) has a wetland area smack dab in the center of our county, "Greys Creek Wetland Area". The day after duck season last year I checked it out. I now call it "Little Vietnam." If your a duck hunter in this area, go check it out. Form your own opinion. I'm on a screaming mission!!

This picture was taken in 2004, we had a duckblind full of hunters. That's not the case now!! As Always, SAFETY FIRST HOOT.

Executive Order No. 63 includes provisions that:

Provide that persons with COVID-19 or COVID-19 symptoms are required to stay at home, and that employers may not require or allow employees with COVID-19 to work;

Urge persons to wear a cloth face covering in places where in close proximity to others, while facilitating local decision-making concerning face covering requirements;

Urge social distancing from those outside of your household, while eliminating caps on gathering size that have proven overly complex and arbitrary because they do not adequately account for critical considerations such as venue capacity and physical characteristics, type of activity involved, and location (indoors vs. outdoors), and thus undermine the more important focus on social distancing;

Providing a framework for safe visitation for nursing home and long-term-care facilities;

Allow for the reopening of senior centers, while providing that capacity must be limited to the extent necessary to accommodate adequate social distancing;

Provide that employers, businesses, and venues are expected to comply with the Tennessee Pledge for operating safely (the six counties with locally run county health departments continue to have existing statutory authority to issue additional directives on businesses/venues);

Continue access to take-out alcohol sales to encourage carryout and delivery orders;

Allow broad access to telehealth services;

Increase opportunities for people to easily join the healthcare workforce;

Facilitate increased testing and health care capacity;

Extend deadlines and suspend certain in-person continuing education, gathering, or inspection requirements to avoid unnecessary person-to-person contact; and Increase opportunities to work remotely where appropriate.

Hornsby

Amber D. Moore
731-609-1210
votetn35@yahoo.com

Hello to all! Hoping everyone is doing well! We were able to enjoy a few beautiful days but it looks like we are going to be seeing some rain for a few now.

Not much news from the school while they are on this schedule due to the pandemic. Hopefully we will get to enjoy more functions with them soon. Project 4:13 had another week of numbers going up on Wednesday night. This past Wednesday night the middle age school children had prayer and devotion in observance of "See You at the Pole" while the high school age went and listen to a speaker at First Baptist in Bolivar. So thankful for all these young people and what they are doing to lift up the name of Jesus. Please bring your kids out so we can share the gospel of Jesus with them, we start at 6:00 and end at 7:30 on Wednesday nights. This coming Sunday on October 4 we will be having movie night where we will be watching "I Still Believe" at 5:00 p.m. Please make plans to come join us and fellowship. Bible study will start back on October 11 on Sunday nights. If your church is not having Sunday night service we would love for you to come and study with us. Please remember that we are holding services on Sunday but you can also watch the sermon on Facebook. Please look at the app to keep up with community events and you can also read the devotions that are being written by members of the church.

Please mark your calendar for October 17 to come to Hornsby to celebrate its 100 year anniversary. Our theme is "A Place to Call Home" and the event will take place from 10:00 until 3:00 that day. If you know of anyone who has any pictures or memorabilia of years past that could be used to display we would greatly appreciate it. We are looking for sponsors to help with the celebration, if you would like to be a "Centennial Sponsor" for $100, please contact Becky Stanton, Lily Barnes, or Amber Moore and we will give you the information you will need. We will be selling t-shirts and Christmas ornaments also and any of the three of us can help you with that if you would like to purchase one. If you would like to help with the event please contact Becky Stanton. It will be a great time for food, entertainment, games and fellowship. Becky Stanton is steadily updating the Facebook page now and will start putting more information about the activities that will take place. We want this to be a great event and hope that lots of folks who grew up here will come back home to enjoy a day of celebrating the town.

Prayer is a powerful thing and I know there are a lot of wonderful folks who are happy to pray for you or someone you know. If you have a prayer request please let us know. Please continue to lift the following people up in your prayers: Lynn Allen, Mimi Anderson, Hugholene Barnes, Ricky Bass, Diane Cross, Sue Day, Norma Emerson, Rich Emerson, Robert Gibson, Crystal Grantham, Beckett Gray, Thomas Green, Sue Hall, James Hanna, Marilyn Hanna, Richard Hazelwood, Justin Hodge, Sue Hodge, Willis Hornsby, Jo Edna Howell, Charley Johnson, Aubrey King, Lucy King, Debbie Laster, Bobbie McBride, Betty McMahan, Orville McMahan, Carolyn Morgan, Evan Nield, Joyce Overton, Gay Pierce, Gail Pope, Lyla Prather, Stacy Spence, Ronna Spoon, Susan Thompson, Martyn Venuti, Tommy Warner, Eddie Webb, Joe West, Jennifer Wheeler, Piper Williams, the men and women who serve our country, the families of the ones who are fighting cancer, all the health care workers, the leaders of our country and especially the ones who are lost.

His Word for the week, Isaiah 30:18 "Yet the Lord longs to be gracious to you; He rises to show you compassion. For the Lord is a God of Justice. Blessed are all who wait for Him!" Praise God!!

Silerton

Melea Beshires
tatteredthread@gmail.com

Condolences go out to the family of Winna Cupples. She passed away on September 22nd at the age of 68. She and her husband David Cupples recently celebrated 50 years of marriage on September 11th. Winna grew up in the Silerton community. Our thoughts and prayers go out to her husband David, her three children, eight grandchildren, and extended friends and family.

Willard and Linda Beshires visited Townsend, Tennessee for an extended weekend getaway. They reported that Gatlinburg and the Outlet Malls were flooded with visitors that surpassed even the Christmas crowds. The Beshires enjoyed some mountain views by hiking Clingmans Dome. Afterwards they enjoyed a cup of coffee in the Apple Valley and ice cream in Townsend. Cades Cove is one of Willard's favorite scenic places to visit. He spotted a bear running into the woods while they were driving through Cades Cove. The next day, he and Linda spotted a baby bear in the Wears Valley area running alongside the road.

Frankie and Mary Lynn Lambert traveled to Cookeville this week and returned along the Natches Trace. If you have never driven the Natches Trace it is a gorgeous alternative to the interstate.

Last week, Kevin, Willard, Linda, and I took Otto to Jared Farms to pick out some pumpkins. He was too young last year to participate so we picked them out for him. It was such a treat to see him explore the selections and discover what caught his eye. We gave Jared Farms some good business that day thanks to Otto's generous grandparents. We left with two chrysanthemums, two gourds, a traditional orange pumpkin and Otto's three selections: a giant orange pumpkin worthy of starring in "It's the Great Pumpkin, Charlie Brown", a dark green pumpkin with two stems, and a bright yellow pumpkin.

Halloween and Thanksgiving are just around the corner. If you have a fun or unique family tradition for these holidays, I would love to share it with Silerton.

There will be wrestling at 108 Henderson St., Friday night, October 2 at 8 p.m. bell time. Wrestling will be Alex Ramsey, Steven Styles, Tony Lane, Billy Ron Badd, Brandon Young, Mic Vicious, and many more will be there. Try out the new SLUG BURGERS.

School has started. Let's keep our children, teachers and all those that work at the schools in prayers.

Joan Henderson submitted funny for the week: Holy Grins - A father was approached by his small son who told him proudly, "I know what the Bible means!" His father smiled and replied, "What do you mean, you 'know' what the Bible means? The son replied, "I do know!" "Okay," said his father. "What does the Bible mean?" "That's easy, Daddy..." the young boy replied excitedly, "It stands for 'Basic Information Before Leaving Earth.'" (This one is my favorite)

Steve Matthews submitted funny for the week: DRIVING I was driving with my three young children one warm summer evening when a woman in the convertible ahead of us stood up and waved. She was stark naked! As I was reeling from the shock, I heard my 5-year-old shout from the back seat, "Mom, that lady isn't wearing a seat belt!"

Please continue to deposit your Best Choice labels in the container at Food Giant service desk. This helps with the Middleton Woman's Club fund raising for community projects especially since we have had to cancel two bake sales due to COVID.

Thanks to those calling and giving me people that are sick and/or news. Call 731-376-8202 or email at bonnieshealthyliving@comcast.net with any news.

Hello from the much cooler Town of Toone where fall seems to be arriving! The corn has turned brown, the cotton fields are turning white, and the farmers are beginning their harvest. Even though it marks the beginning of the end of boating season, I look forward to the cooler temps and the amazing colors that the fall season brings us. It also brings numerous fairs and festivals to attend (even though I'm sure most of these will be cancelled this year). If nothing else, we are able to enjoy the great outdoors and the vivid colors of the trees. Happy fall, y'all!

We would like to introduce the 2020-2021 Toone School Bobcats Cheerleaders: Kayla Ramsey; Cynkenya Hudson; Emmy Piefer; Cheyenne Hughes; Laila Jones; Mollie Nuckolls; Danilyn Jacobs; Tihanna Jones; Ruby Carpenter; Sophie Doyle; Lexi Goodman; Harley Mullens. Congratulations to this energetic group of young ladies. I know they will represent our school very well.

Please keep our good friend and neighbor, Bonnie Leathers, in your thoughts and prayers. After a short stay in the hospital, she is now back home and recovering nicely, and has asked me to thank everyone who called, texted, visited and sent cards. Bonnie says her husband, Larry Joe, has been a good nurse and caretaker.

Our heart-felt condolences go out to our Toone neighbors, Mickey & Tommie Blevins, for the loss of their son, Jason Pace. Those of you who visited the Toone Hardware Store will remember Jason when he worked there. Please keep the Blevins Family in your thought and prayers.

Happy Birthday to our Toone neighbor, Joe Jimmerson, on October 9. If you see Joe out and about, be sure to wish him a very happy day!

Happy Birthday wishes to our good neighbor, Rosemary Jones, who will celebrate her big day, October 10. I wonder if being the wife of the mayor entitles her to a homemade cake from Joe?

Remember to share your community news with your neighbors via the information above. Until next time . . . talk to your neighbors!

Avoid Financial Mistakes During Retirement

When you retire, you've learned a lot about all sorts of things, helping you avoid some of the mistakes you made earlier in life. However, you may still be susceptible to financial missteps specifically related to your retirement years. How can you dodge these errors?

Consider these suggestions:

Manage your withdrawal rate carefully. You will likely need to tap into your retirement accounts – your IRA and 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored plan. But you should establish an annual withdrawal rate that's appropriate for your situation. By withdrawing too much each year, especially in the early years of your retirement, you risk outliving your resources. You may want to consult with a financial professional to determine the withdrawal amount that's right for you. (Keep in mind, though, that once you turn 72, you will be required to take out at least a certain amount each year – based on your age and account balance – from your traditional IRA and 401(k) or similar plan.)

Don't underestimate health care costs. Once you turn 65, you will be eligible for Medicare, but you may still need a Medicare supplement plan and will probably also incur other expenses. In fact, A healthy 65-year-old couple who retired in 2019 will need nearly $390,000 over their remaining years just to pay for health care, according to HealthView Services, which produces health-care cost projection software. Other estimates show different amounts, but they all amount to hundreds of thousands of dollars. So, when calculating your expenses during your retirement years, reserve a big space for health care.

Don't take Social Security too early. You can start receiving monthly Social Security checks when you reach age 62, but your payments will generally be significantly larger if you wait until your "full" retirement age, which will probably be between 66 and 67. (The size of your payments will "max out" at age 70.) Of course, if you need the money at 62, you may have to take it, but if you believe you have longevity working in your favor, and you can afford to wait, you may be better off by delaying Social Security as long as possible.)

Don't invest too conservatively. Once you're retired, you might think that you should take as few chances as possible with your investments – after all, you simply have less time for them to bounce back from a downturn than you did during your working years. Nonetheless, it's important to own a reasonable percentage of growth-oriented investments to help keep you ahead of inflation. Even at a low rate, which we've experience recently, inflation can erode your purchasing power over time.

Don't be more generous than you can afford. If you have grown children who need financial help, or grandchildren heading to college someday, you'd no doubt like to do whatever you can to provide assistance. However, the hard truth is they simply have more time than you do to find workable financial solutions, whereas if you deplete your funds through your generosity, you could put yourself in a precarious position. So, be as giving as you can afford – but don't go beyond that. By preserving your financial independence, you'll end up benefiting your family, as well.

Retirement can be a wonderful time of your life – and you may enjoy it more by doing what you can to avoid costly financial mistakes.

OUR COUNTY

Tales from the Yellow House by Lee McAlpin

In October at the Yellow House, after the first cold spell, us kids usually put back on our brogans shoes. Each summer added a new stubbed toe, two or three scars from cuts and nail punctures, not to mention the number of times our feet had accidentally stepped into a pile of chicken, cow or horse droppings and squished (if that is a word) up between our toes during the summer months. I suppose that this might be the reason that my feet grew into a size twelve.

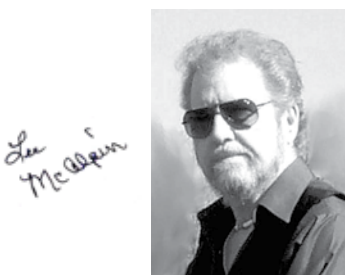

This time of the year usually found us cutting wood for the fireplace and cook stove for the coming winter. We would take trips into the surrounding woods to gather up pine knots for kindling, and to locate muscadine vines. Mom would make muscadine jelly and use the skins to make muscadine pies. We would scout out the hickory-nut or scaley-bark trees. We would spend a lot of time bursing the shells and picking out the goodies.

While on these trips we would scan every small cedar tree to see if we could find the perfect one to cut down for the coming Christmas season. We would also check out the holly trees with the red berries and the pines trees with the biggest pine cones. Dad would dig a pit in the ground out in the garden, line it with straw and fill it with sweet potatoes, turnips, bunches of collard greens, add more straw and then cover it with a mound of dirt, and lay some tin on top. This was a country vegetable cellar. It would keep the vegetables from freezing.

Nearly every fall, Dad would buy a hog to fatten up for the annual hog killing. Seems like more than often I got the job of slopping the hogs as we called it. Usually, there was a five gallon bucket placed outside the kitchen door into which all vegetable peelings, food leftovers, etc., were kept. This was mixed with water and poured into the hog trough for their meals along with a few ears of corn tossed into the pen for dessert. I would get a bath in the slop often when I would lift the can over the fence to pour the contents into the feeding trough. The old hog just couldn't wait and would take her nose and put it under the bucket and give me a dousing.

On a sunny day, Mom would pull the feather mattresses and pillows off the bed and lay them atop the tin roof on the storm house. She would give us kids a broom or stick and tell us to beat the tar out of them. I beat them the best I could but never did see any tar coming from them, but this beating fluffed up the feathers inside and the sun did its job in freshening the things. Mom usually put up her quilting frames in the fall. The frame hung from the ceiling on wires. She would start quilting on one end, sew as far as she could reach, and then roll up the quilted part on one of the frames and start sewing again. Most times neighboring women would come over and help her quilt. This time of the year brings so many good memories of my family, friends and country ways. May we never be without country.

Hardeman County Sports Notes

Young people were offered a free golf clinic on September 26 at the Hardeman County Golf and County Club. Bolivar Central Vice-Principal and Athletic Director Willie Parks arranged the outing. See photo above.

Bolivar Central and Middleton Volleyball teams will play in their respective district tournaments next week.

Middleton will face Scotts Hill on October 6 at Scotts Hill, with the winner immediately facing #1 seed Madison Academic for the district title. If the Lady Tigers reach the final, they will qualify for the regional tournament the next week at the home court of the district champion. Last season, Middleton qualified for the region, but lost to Summertown at Loretto. Middleton has finished first or second in the region each year for the past six seasons.

Bolivar Central will finish their district season October 1 at McNairy Central and find out their pairing for the district tournament scheduled to begin the following week at Lexington.

Two participants got all seven games correct in the first week of the SEC Football Pick'em Contest.

Picking all seven games were Jimmy Dillon of Selmer and Stephen Brock of Marietta, GA. One hundred and twenty nine players picked six games correctly, and forty four had five right.

Leading the team contest is the Fab Four (Dillon, Todd Ellsworth, Steve Whitten, and Nathan Howell) who got 25 out of a possible 28 games correct.

The Hardeman County Middle School Softball tournament will be broadcast on October 3 on wmodradio.com and re-aired after Tennessee Volunteer Football on Saturday afternoon.

Bolivar (5-1 in district) is the #1 seed and the host of the tournament.

The bracket is below:

#1 Bolivar

#4 Toone

#2 Middleton

Bolivar Falls to Fayette Ware

First Loss Since 2007 to Wildcats

Bolivar Central squandered opportunities late in the second quarter and fell 38-13 to Fayette Ware in Somerville on September 25.

The Tigers fell behind 22-0 before making a small comeback in the second quarter on a Tyler Rice 10 yard pass to Cordarious Stanley with 2:50 left in the second quarter and then intercepted Fayette Ware quarterback Kyle Lowe twice in the closing moments, but failed to get the touchdown that would have gotten the contest to a one-possession game.

Amir Green led Bolivar with 66 yards in 6 carries and scored a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

The Tigers learned on September 28 that one of their players tested positive for COVID-19 and will not play either October 2 against McNairy Central or October 9 against Martin Westview.

Middleton did not play South Fulton due to COVID-19 concerns.

BCHS Golf Ends at Regionals

Four Bolivar Central Golfers qualified for the Regional Tournament at Pickwick, but none moved on to the state tournament.

Leading the way for the girls was Kendall Adkins, who shot 96, missing a playoff for a state tournament spot by two strokes. Her effort was followed by Sydni Aylor, who shot 98. Sadie Fry has 130 for the girls. The lone Bolivar Central boy to qualify for the regional was Tyler Pierce, who shot 90. The last boys spot to make the state tournament next week shot 80.

Jimmerson Signs with Freed-Hardeman

Bolivar Central Lady Tiger Brooklyn Jimmerson signed with Freed-Hardeman University in Henderson on September 24. Freed-Hardeman Coach Todd Humphry, in his 20th year, is a graduate of Harding University in Searcy, Arkansas. The Lady Lions went 26-14 in 2019 finishing in the American Midwest Conference tournament second round.

Bolivar Central Volleyball Honors JoJo

Senior volleyball players honored the memory of Ja-Varrie "Jojo" Robertson, who passed away in October of 2016.

Several seniors who were classmates of Jojo at Toone Elementary School, gave a gift to his mother, Fabre Kadasha Williams and the entire team wore blue ribbons during the match to honor his memory.

The Lady Tigers downed Haywood, 25-8, 25-13, and 25-21 to pull their record to 7-8 on the season.
