Full-Time Mayor Plan Moves Along

The committee appointed by Mayor Julian McTizic to consider changing the structure of the City of Bolivar government returned their recommendation at the regularly scheduled meeting of the city council on September 14.

With the projected June 30, 2021 announced retirement of long-time City Manager Shelia Dellinger, the city had the opportunity to consider options for the future, such as eliminating the position of city manager and instead having a full-time mayor do many of the duties.

The committee, consisting of Chairperson Suzanne Rhea, Melvin Golden, Larry Crawford, and Carole Spinks presented their findings to the city council, asking that the city make the mayor full-time starting in 2021, as well as doubling the salaries of the city council members. See inset When, Who, and How Much for details.

Currently, the city charter directs that the mayor be paid $9,600 a year and city council members receive $3,000 per annum, figures that have not changed for at least the last fifteen years.

The full-time mayor position and the council raises will require no new money, according to the committee, as Dellinger's salary, a not-filled clerk position, and a new employee

When, Who, and How Much

- Ordinance 20-004 would set the Mayor of Bolivar's salary at $85,000 per year, plus benefits.
- The change in the mayor's position, including salaries, duties, and benefits, would not be put into effect until after the May 2021 election.
- Ordinance 20-005 would set the city council members salary at $6,000 per year.
- Changes in city council salaries for positions currently held by Suzanne Rhea, Page Walley, Jonathan Joy, and Melvin Golden would take place after the May 2021 election.
- Changes in city council salaries for positions currently held by Larry Crawford, Todd Lowe, Larry McKinnie, and Carole Spinks would take place after the May 2023 election.

hired to replace a retired one for less money would fund the changes, according to Chairperson Rhea, who was asked to clarify by Golden after the issue was brought up by Councilman Larry McKinnie.

The vote went 7-0 on both ordinances. Councilman Larry Crawford was not in attendance at the meeting.

A second reading, public hearing, and second vote is required to put the proposed changes into effect. All three are scheduled for the next meeting of the council on October 12.

The ordinance, to be put into effect for the 2021 election, needs to be approved at least 60 days prior to the qualifying deadline for the election, which will be in February. The Bolivar City Elections are scheduled for May 18, 2021.

Meeting Notes...

• Councilman Page Walley asked about and it was confirmed that the city charter required the mayor to be elected with a 50% plus one majority, which would necessitate a runoff election if no one candidate got a majority.

• Other business discussed by the council was the recent Bolivar Downtown Development Corporation (DEVCO) audit, garbage collection changes due to the temporary closing of the Hardeman County Landfill, and

• Councilwoman Spinks announced that she and councilmen Golden and McKinnie will host a community day on Saturday, September 19 from 2:00-7:00 p.m. in East Bolivar.

Whiteville Gets CDBG Grant

State Senator Dolores Gresham announced that a major Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) totaling $630,000 has been awarded to Whiteville for sewer system improvements. Gresham made the announcement in conjunction with one by Governor Bill Lee and the Department of Economic and Community Development regarding the award of CDBG grants statewide.

"I am pleased Whiteville will receive this grant and congratulate our local officials for submitting a successful application and our Department of Economic and Community Development for recognizing the need," said Senator Gresham. "It will help make needed sewage improvement to benefit area residents."

The funds were allocated under a procedure authorized by the Tennessee General Assembly. ECD administers the grant program based on priorities set at the local level where community needs are best known.

Helping Feed Hardeman Co.

A local organization is taking it upon themselves to help with a result of a global illness.

Because of the coronavirus pandemic, people who never before experienced hunger and the sense of helplessness that accompanies it, are suffering from economic catastrophe. Businesses have closed or downsized staffing, and families are struggling to pay rent or mortgages. For the first time, some families have scarce food. Feeding America estimates that 54 million people nationwide may be food insecure during the fall of 2020.

September has been designated as Hunger Action Month, a national event sponsored by the premier food bank organization, Feeding America. Feeding America has catalyzed individuals, agencies and industries to give

Resolutions Honor Citizens

The Hardeman County Commission honored Lynn and Jackie Jackson (as well as Jody and Angela Jackson who were not able to be present) for their work in providing quality auctions and auctioneers for events in Hardeman County.

Thousands Get Masks from City of Bolivar

The City of Bolivar is proud to announce the receipt of 10,000 masks donated by the First Responder Children's Foundation (FRCF) in partnership with Mask-Club by Trecco.

The Bolivar Fire Department requested the donation of 8,500 masks through the FRCF for distribution to all Hardeman County first responder agencies. The FRCF went far and above the initial request increasing the donation of masks to 10,000 and adding 500 face shields and medical gowns to the request.

"We are thankful for organizations like the First Responder Children's Foundation for their continuous support of all of our first responders. As a rural community in an economically distressed county, the donation of these supplies to protect our first responders as they are doing their jobs is vital and so very appreciated," said Mayor Julian McTizic.

The donation will be distributed to the Hardeman County Sheriff's Office, Hardeman County Ambulance Service, Hardeman County Rescue Squad, the Bolivar Fire Department, our nine (9) volunteer fire departments, and seven (7) police departments throughout the county according to McTizic.

Fudgy Football Brownies

Ingredients

- 1 cup butter
- 6 ounces unsweetened chocolate, coarsely chopped
- 2 cups sugar
- 4 eggs
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 1/3 cups all-purpose flour
- 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
- 1 cup miniature chocolate pieces
- 1 cup vanilla frosting

Directions

In a medium saucepan combine butter and unsweetened chocolate. Cook and stir over low heat until melted; cool slightly. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Line a 15x10x1-inch baking pan with foil, extending the foil over edges of pan. Grease foil; set pan aside.

Stir sugar into chocolate mixture. Add eggs, one at a time, beating with a wooden spoon after each addition just until combined. Stir in vanilla. In a small bowl stir together flour and baking soda. Add flour mixture to chocolate mixture, stirring just until combined. Stir in semisweet chocolate pieces. Pour batter into the prepared baking pan, spreading evenly.

Bake for 18 minutes. Cool in pan on a wire rack. Using the edges of the foil, lift brownies out of pan. Using a 3- to 4-inch football-shape or other cookie cutter, cut out brownies. (Or cut brownies into rectangles.)

Spoon Creamy Vanilla Frosting into a decorating bag fitted with a small round tip. Pipe frosting onto brownies to decorate. Let stand until frosting is set.

In a storage container layer brownie between sheets of waxed paper. Cover tightly and let stand at room temperature overnight.

State Improving COVID Data Information

The Tennessee Department of Health is improving the format for sharing of data on COVID-19 to update how some metrics are calculated and reflect evolving knowledge of the pandemic. The new format began September 3, and reflect a change in how active cases are calculated and a correction in county of residence for some cases. In addition, TDH is adding new resources including data snapshots for each county and a Critical Indicators Report.

"We're pleased to be adding new reports to help support rapid public health actions in Tennessee communities," said Tennessee Health Commissioner Lisa Piercey, MD, MBA, FAAP. "We also want to promote data transparency and help Tennesseans understand the reason case counts for some counties will change as we correct information based on their addresses."

TDH case count reports will include figures for "Inactive/Recovered" cases and will no longer include data for "Recovered" cases. "Inactive/Recovered" cases will include people who are 14 days or more beyond their illness onset date (or, for asymptomatic cases, their specimen collection date). This will more closely align with what is now understood about the infectious period of COVID-19, as recent data from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention show most patients with COVID-19 are no longer infectious after 10 days. Previously, TDH considered a case recovered after a 21-day period.

TDH is also correcting discrepancies in county location for about 1,700 cases, as the county to which they were originally assigned does not correspond correctly to their street addresses. This can occur in laboratory reports because some lab systems automatically assign county location based on the patient's ZIP code, which may be incorrect if the ZIP code straddles county lines. These cases will be corrected all at once, which will result in case count changes for some counties. A solution is in place to automate this process in the future.

Individual County Data Snapshots will provide information on case counts, hospitalizations, testing and more for each county at www.tn.gov/health/cedep/ncov/data/county-data-snapshot.html. In addition, the new weekly Critical Indicators Report includes information to help stakeholders monitor trends in cases, symptoms, testing capabilities and health care system capacity. Find the Critical Indicators Report online at www.tn.gov/content/dam/tn/health/documents/cedep/novel-coronavirus/CriticalIndicatorReport.pdf. TDH is also adding data on current hospitalizations to daily information posted at www.tn.gov/health/cedep/ncov.html.

Tennessee's county health departments continue to offer COVID-19 testing at no charge to anyone who wishes to be tested. Find a map of health department locations and contact information online at www.tn.gov/content/tn/health/cedep/ncov/remote-assessmentsites.html.

TDH is posting updated COVID-19 case numbers by 2 p.m. CDT each day at www.tn.gov/health/cedep/ncov.html. Find additional information at www.tn.gov/governor/covid-19.html and www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/index.html.

Open Enrollment Choices Can Have Big Financial Impact

It's that time of year again, where, if you work for a medium-to-large employer, you've got some decisions to make because it's open enrollment time. Of course, depending on your situation, you may have been working remotely for a while, but, even so, you will likely have the opportunity to review your benefits package and make changes. And you'll want to make the right moves, because your choices can have a big financial impact on your life.

So, take a close look at these key areas of your benefits program:

Health insurance – Think about your health care needs over the coming year – will you or someone in your family be coping with a chronic illness or facing a surgery? Will you need to at least consider testing and possible treatment for COVID-19? In any case, make sure you're choosing the right plan for your needs. And pay close attention to any changes in your health insurance, such as whether the plan's provider networks have changed – you may want to make sure your own doctor is still in-network. Also, check to see if you can reduce your health care premiums by taking part in a wellness program or health-risk assessment.

Life insurance – Your employer may offer a group life insurance policy for free, or for a small amount. It's probably worth your while to take this coverage, but it may not be enough for your needs. If you only had this group policy, but your family situation has recently changed through marriage or the addition of a new child, you may well need to add some private insurance.

Disability insurance – In addition to offering group life insurance, your employer may provide short-term disability insurance as an employee benefit. Like group insurance, this disability coverage may not cost you anything, but it may not be adequate – typically, short-term disability only replaces part of your income for three to six months. And while you may never need to miss work for an extended period of time, you never can tell – after all, more than one in four 20-year-olds will become disabled before they retire, according to the U.S. Social Security Administration. You may want to consider purchasing your own long-term disability policy on top of the coverage offered by your employer.

Retirement plan – You can probably make changes to your 401(k) or similar employer-sponsored retirement plan at any time, but why not look at it now, when you're reviewing all your benefits? If you can afford to increase your contributions, you probably should, because a 401(k), with its tax advantages and ease of contribution through paycheck deductions, is a great way to save for retirement. At a minimum, put in enough to earn your employer's match. You'll also want to review your 401(k)'s investment mix. Is it still providing you with significant growth potential within the context of your individual risk tolerance? Over time, you may need to make some adjustments, either because an investment is underperforming or because you're getting close to retirement and you need to reduce your risk exposure. In any case, it's a good idea to check up on your 401(k)'s investments at least once a year.

Your employee benefits are an important part of your overall financial picture – so do what you can to get the most from them.

FAITH

Pride & Prejudice

by David Coy

Fear can grip the heart and mind of people when they experience something unfamiliar and new. We are traveling through new experiences in relation to COVID and fear has risen in hearts of many and with some, pride and prejudice get in the way of accepting a new reality. As we have discussed before, embracing one's new reality is vital in all grief responses. Pride and prejudice can be the enemy of facts no matter how strong or direct a person receives the facts. Sometime in the 1840's physician Ignaz Semmelweis observed for a three year period the examination of autopsies by these physician teachers and students who then went to treat living patients. A high mortality rate ensued. Dr. Semmelweis instructed the teachers and students to wash their hands before treating the living. Mortality went down and ridicule, shame, pride and prejudice went up among colleagues and superiors of Dr. Semmelweis. His contract was not renewed. He left and moved to Budapest and was able to obtain employment. He instituted the rules of hand washing again and once again mortality rates in patients dropped and yes again pride and prejudice rose among his colleagues. Fear of losing one's status quo can be powerful and pride and prejudice added to the environment can be a very strong influence. (None Of These Diseases, by Dr. S.I. McMillen)

Fast forward to today. With everything we as a society are dealing with today and so much of it unnecessary, it is no wonder people are living in a perpetual state of panic and fear. Strong emotions can, not only cripple people from acting, but can and will influence some in the wrong direction when even facts attack their comfort in the status quo and power is threatened. Reality is based in truth. This is Sunrise Aftercare, sunrise@sfdcures.com

Silerton

Melea Beshires
tatteredthread@gmail.com

September is a memorable month for several Silerton citizens. Winna and David Cupples celebrated their 50th anniversary on September 11. The Cupples met when they were in the first grade and became sweethearts when they were 15 years old. Brother Henry married them in the Silerton Methodist Church. David Cupples also celebrated a birthday on September 10. The Cupples are proud of their grandson, Taylor Coffman; he left on September 8 to join the Marines. Other noteworthy anniversaries this month are Willard and Linda Beshires who celebrated their 48th anniversary on September 8 and Kevin and I celebrated our 5th year anniversary on September 12.

Mayor Willard Beshires shares an update from the last town meeting. "The Silerton aldermen met Sunday August 30 at the city park pavilion. We discussed ways to improve our city government, the status of grants we have received and future plans for improvements in our town. These meetings will be held on a regular basis and future meeting times will be posted in this article. As always, the public is welcome to attend."

Mary Lynn Lambert reports on an enjoyable family gathering during the Labor Day holiday. She writes, "the Labor Day Weekend was a busy time for the Lamberts especially on Lambert Lane. On Friday night several family members met the Wade cousins at Logan's Roadhouse for a delicious dinner. On Saturday night family met for their traditional hamburger and hotdog cookout with all the sides. On Sunday, at 1:00, the family for a potluck meal. Haley Jeter organized a kickball game to replace the traditional baseball game. Attendance was down tremendously because of the virus. Family is looking forward to next year with all family members."

If anyone has an upcoming birthday, anniversary, or other memorable occasion let me know so we can celebrate with you here!

There will not be wrestling at 108 Henderson St., Friday night. Grady Watson says tell all the fans praying and hoping it won't be long until can open back up hopefully September 25.

School has started. Let's keep our children, teachers and all those that work at the schools in prayers.

Joan Henderson submitted funny for the week: When people tell me, "You're going to regret that in the morning." I sleep in until noon because I'm a problem solver.

Please continue to deposit your Best Choice Labels in the container at Food Giant service desk. This helps with the Middleton Woman's Club fund raising for community projects especially since we have had to cancel two bake sales due to COVID-19.

Thanks to those calling and giving me people that are sick and/or news. Call 731-376-8202 or email at bonnieshealthyliving@comcast.net with any news.

Hello to all! Hoping everyone is doing well! Please remember the girls' softball team has started playing so come on out and cheer them on. They will be playing Thursday the 17 in Bolivar at 4:30, you can also check out the school's website to see their schedule. Tutoring will also start this Monday the 21st for the children who have signed up. Project 4:13 started back last week and it was great seeing so many young folks again. We would love to share the gossip of Jesus with you, so come on and join us at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesday nights. Please remember that we are holding services on Sunday but you can also watch the sermon on Facebook. Please look at the app to keep up with community events and you can also read the devotions that are being written by members of the church. This week I would like to share one that my niece Amy Morris wrote. Anyone who knows Amy, knows that she is always smiling and cutting up with folks. So I hope you will enjoy this devotion she wrote titled "The Best Perspective during Difficult Times" and maybe it will help you in times like these, I pray that it does. "Have you ever noticed that being upset about your problems never changes them? A bad attitude is like a flat tire. If you don't change it, you won't go anywhere. Life does get difficult at times, but we can learn how to navigate those times successfully without losing our peace and joy. The thoughts we allow into our minds, and the attitude we choose to have, are the determining factors. Psalm 30:5 says, Weeping may tarry for the night, but joy comes in the morning. A favorite saying in our family is "This too shall pass." It is more difficult to think and speak positively during the "winters" of our life, but it is helpful to remember that spring always follows winter. But when our circumstances are hard, that's when it's really important to keep our mind set on promises in God's Word. When you are in the midst of difficulty turn to Romans 8:35-39, and remind yourself that no matter how difficult life is, God loves you and He's with you. He also promises to never allow more to come on us than we can bear as we look to Him for help (I Corinthians 10:13). During tough times, it's easy to think, I can't do this; it is just too much; it is too hard. Watch out for that type of thinking and when you recognize it, remember that it is a lie. Then replace it with a God-inspired thought like, I can do what I need to do because God is with me. This winter season in my life will be over one day and a spring season will come."

Please mark your calendar for October 17 to come to Hornsby to celebrate its 100 year anniversary. Our theme is "A Place to Call Home" and the event will take place from 10:00 until 3:00 that day. If you know of anyone who has any pictures or memorabilia of years past that could be used to display we would greatly appreciate it. We are looking for sponsors to help with the celebration, if you would like to be a "Centennial Sponsor" for $100.00, please contact Becky Stanton, Lily Barnes, or Amber Moore and we will give you the information you will need. We will be selling t-shirts and Christmas ornaments also and any of the three of us can help you with that if you would like to purchase one. If you would like to help with the event please contact Becky Stanton. It will be a great time for food, entertainment, games and fellowship. We have a Facebook page now and will start putting more information about the activities that will take place. We want this to be a great event and hope that lots of folks who grew up here will come back home to enjoy a day of celebrating the town.

Prayer is a powerful thing and I know there are a lot of wonderful folks who are happy to pray for you or someone you know. If you have a prayer request please let us know. Please continue to lift the following people up in your prayers: Lynn Allen, Mimi Anderson, Hugholene Barnes, Ricky Bass, Diane Cross, Sue Day, Norma Emerson, Rich Emerson, Robert Gibson, Crystal Grantham, Beckett Gray, Thomas Green, Sue Hall, James Hanna, Marilyn Hanna, Richard Hazelwood, Justin Hodge, Sue Hodge, Willis Hornsby, Jo Edna Howell, Charley Johnson, Ann Kelly, Aubrey King, Lucy King, Debbie Laster, Bobbie McBride, Betty McMahan, Orville McMahan, Carolyn Morgan, Evan Nield, Joyce Overton, Gay Pierce, Gail Pope, Lyla Prather, Lloyd Sipes, Stacy Spence, Ronna Spoon, Susan Thompson, Martyn Venuti, Tommy Warner, Eddie Webb, Joe West, Jennifer Wheeler, Piper Williams, the men and women who serve our country, the families of the ones who are fighting cancer, all the health care workers, the leaders of our country and especially the ones who are lost.

His Word for the week was chosen by my granddaughter Tanley, Psalm 6:4 "Lord, turn to me and help me. Save me. Your love never fails." Praise God!!

to help the unfortunate among us. Because of this designation and the pandemic, Hardeman Healthy Outreach is sharing the needs of local hunger action organizations and individuals.

According to results of a questionnaire conducted by H2O this summer, nearly 55 percent of the 175 respondents had just started to use a food pantry in the past six months. "We have definitely seen an increase since the beginning of the coronavirus pandemic," said Nikki Williams, coordinator of the Mid-South Food Bank distribution at Zion Temple Church of God in Christ.

You can help your Hardeman neighbors face down hunger by donating to the following with their requested needs:

- Bolivar Central HS "Communities in Schools": Bring new can openers to UT-TSU Extension office, 210 Vildo Road, Bolivar.
- Loaves and Fishes (Bolivar): Canned meats are needed. Call 609-2397 to donate.
- Michelle Griffin (individual who provides hot meals): Needs take-out meal containers. To donate, call her at 609-7869.
- Rivers of Life (Grand Junction): All non-perishable foods and take-out meal containers accepted. Contact Christine Pirtle (901-687-5500) to donate.
- Whiteville Food Bank: Monetary donations are requested at this time. Please make checks payable to Whiteville Food Bank and mail to them at P.O. Box 324, Whiteville, TN 38075
- Zion Temple Church of God in Christ (Bolivar): Contact Nikki Williams (616-8942) to donate clean, medium- to large-sized empty boxes.

When donating food, all donations are greatly appreciated, but healthy foods are encouraged: low-sodium canned vegetables, canned fruits that are packed without added sugar, brown rice, canned tuna or salmon, dried beans and peas.

The H2O Food Pantry Task Force is dedicated to helping Hardeman Countians access those foods that provide the proper nutrients to beat hunger and sustain health. For more information on the Food Pantry Task Force, email smiddle6@utk.edu or call UT-TSU Extension at 658-2421.

This project is funded by the CDC's High Obesity Program (HOP) through The University of Tennessee Extension to improve access to food and physical activity opportunities throughout Hardeman County. For more information, go to @BeMoreHardeman on Facebook.

Another Emma First:::::

September 12th, Emma and Will (my middle grandson) would be with me in the duck blind. The weather wasn't in our favor, foggy! At legal shooting time, visibility was definitely a factor. When we started seeing Wood ducks they were right on top of us and "Packing the Mail", only could see them for a second.

This was going to be extremely difficult! All of a sudden, Will shot and splashed one. A split second later Emma saw another and the splash happened, she got her first duck!! The excitement and expression on her face said it all!! And NO, she didn't have to go swimming like I did to retrieve it. I'm so proud of the example Emma is showing not only to all young sportsman/women, but to seasoned hunters as well. Hopefully her next first will be a nice buck during deer season. I know I repeat myself a lot, especially when it comes to Emma in the outdoors, she's proven herself time and time again. I'm Big Time Proud of her!! As Always SAFETY FIRST::::: HOOT
